GAME DAY IN ANNAPOLIS

NAVY FOOTBALL

An American treasure, Navy football will bring a small historic district to life five times this Fall. A Navy football "Game Day Experience" is unrivaled by any other collegiate football game in the country. Each home game lends itself to an entire day of fun, an event to say the least, for fans of all ages. From the minute fans arrive at the stadium, they are entrenched in wholesome entertainment everywhere they turn.

NAVYFEST

Looking for a more intimate setting for your group event? NavyFest is an area that provides space for groups of 30 to 1,000 to gather with friends, family, employees, clients and neighbors in anticipation of the heated action on the field. From your game ticket to a buffet lunch by one of our preferred caterers, everything can be provided as you experience one of the best tailgating traditions in college football. It is also the best place to view the march-on of the Brigade of Midshipmen. Please contact our group sales office at grouptickets@usna.edu or by calling (410) 293-8743 or (410) 293-8791.

PAGEANTRY

True patriotism and pride in one's country are felt every home game when the entire Brigade of Midshipmen marches from the grounds of the Academy to midfield of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium to salute its school, its team and most importantly, its country. Immediately following the National Anthem, often sung by the Naval Academy glee club, fans experience one of the most breathtaking moments of their lives, as planes flyby overhead to welcome the start of the game.

AT NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM

TEAM WALK

Don't miss the Navy football team's arrival at the stadium as it makes its way from the team buses through NavyFest and into the locker room. Join the Navy cheerleaders and fellow fans at the Mid Walk, two-and-a-half hours before every home game near the Blue Angel on the blue (press box) side parking lot.

THE GAME

Game day features even more tradition and pageantry, beginning with the sounding of the cannon, symbolizing the official start of the game and heard again only when Navy scores. When the Mids put points on the board, fans witness another spectacle as a sea of plebes race to the North end zone to do push-ups that match their team's point total on the scoreboard.

POSTGAME

At the conclusion of the game, the Navy football team will stand in front of the Brigade of Midshipmen and sing Navy Blue & Gold, the school's alma mater. It is the greatest tradition in college football.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

In today's modern era, three undefeated teams with nearly identical records would cause a stir among fans and pollsters alike. This was the case when Navy earned its lone national championship in 1926, as the Midshipmen shared the honor with Stanford and Alabama.

A 7-7 tie between Alabama and Stanford in the 1926 Rose Bowl gave the Cardinal a 10-0-1 mark, while the Crimson Tide and the Mids each had identical 9-0-1 records.

The Midshipmen opened the '26 season with a new coach, Bill Ingram. A former Navy standout from 1916-1918, Ingram took over a Navy team that had only won seven games in the previous two seasons combined. One of the keys to Navy's 1926 squad was a potent offense led by All-America tackle and team captain Frank Wickhorst, who proved to be a punishing blocker for the Navy offense. One member of the Navy offense that appreciated the blocking of Wickhorst was Tom Hamilton. The quarterback and kicker had a pair of 100-yard rushing games en route to All-America honors.

Navy's biggest win that year was against Michigan in front of 80,000 fans in Baltimore. The Mids scored 10 second-half points to upset the Wolverines, 10-0. Navy's offense tallied 165 yards behind the powering attack of Hamilton and Henry Caldwell who scored Navy's lone touchdown on a one-yard plunge. Jubilation from the victory continued after the game, as the Midshipmen tore down the goal post at each end of the field and carried away all the markers that lined both sides of the field. The joy replaced the disappointment of the previous year when Michigan handed Navy its worst loss in school history at the time, 54-0.

Navy headed into its season finale against Army with a 9-0 record. The game was to be played in Chicago at Soldier Field, which had been built as a memorial to the men killed in World War I. It was only natural Army and Navy would be invited to play the inaugural contest there. James R. Harrison of the New York Times described the game as "the greatest of its time and as a national spectacle." Over 110,000 people witnessed the Midshipmen open up a 14-0 lead on the Cadets, only to see Army fight back to take a 21-14 lead early in the third quarter. The Navy offense responded behind its strong ground game led by running back Alan Shapley. On fourth down and three yards to go, Shapley ran eight yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 21. As the final quarter concluded, Army mounted a brief threat only to miss a 25-yard field goal.

The tie gave the Midshipmen a share of the national championship, as a pair of polls, Boand and Houlgate, named Navy the national champion.

JOE BELLINO
1960 HEISMAN TROPHY

Naval Academy legend and 1960 Heisman Trophy winner Joe Bellino passed away on March 27, 2019, in Massachusetts at the age of 81. Bellino was a 1961 graduate of the Naval Academy and was Navy's first Heisman Trophy winner and first football player to have his number retired.

Bellino, a native of Winchester, Mass., was known as the player who was never caught from behind. In just three seasons, he scored 31 touchdowns, rushed for 1,664 yards on 330 carries, returned 37 kicks for 833 yards and set 15 school records.

Bellino was a unanimous All-America selection at halfback in 1960 and was also the winner of the Maxwell Award. His end zone interception preserved Navy's 17-12 win over Army that season. The Midshipmen were ranked as a high as fourth in the country and went on to play in the Orange Bowl on Jan. 1, 1961.

Bellino was also an outstanding catcher and outfielder on the Navy baseball team. He hit .428 in 22 games in 1959 and led the Eastern Intercollegiate League in stolen bases. He had a .320 average in 1960 and was the baseball team captain in 1961.

Army partisans can hardly forget the 1959-60 academic year for what Bellino did to the Cadets. In addition to his three-touchdown performance in the 1959 Army-Navy game, he was equally sensational in the Army-Navy baseball game in 1960. Bellino went 4-for-4 at the plate, drove in three runs, stole two bases and threw out two Army runners attempting to steal as Navy carved out a 9-1 win.

Bellino capped off his senior year (1960-61) at the Academy by winning the school's top two athletic awards, the Thompson Trophy and the Naval Academy Athletic Association Sword, marking the first time in 41 years that one midshipman received both of these awards.

Bellino's number 27 jersey in football was retired after the 1960 season. He had a three-year stint with the Boston Patriots after he had completed his four-year service obligation. He stayed in the Navy Reserves for 24 more years and reached the rank of Captain.

Bellino was a 1977 inductee into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and was a charter inductee into the Maryland Football Shrine in 1984. The Bellino Auditorium in Ricketts Hall is named after this outstanding athlete and in 2009, he was named to the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial All-Stadium Team. During its annual season-ending football banquet, Navy presents the Joe Bellino Award to the varsity football player whose inspiring on-field performance made a significant impact on the team and contributed to its overall success during the season.

Bellino worked for 40 years in the auto leasing and auction industry and prior to that was an independent business owner. He was also a longtime member of the Board of Directors of the Northern Bank and Trust, but was most proud of his participation in local or national charities, including that for the Disabled and Limbless Veterans.

Bellino is survived by his wife of 57 years, Ann; his son, John, a 1989 graduate of the Naval Academy; and his daughter, Therese, as well as his daughter-in-law Annette and three grandsons, Ian, Evan and Eric; and his son-in-law Cary.

"I remember watching Joe dominate Army in the 1959 Army-Navy game and his performance that day helped me decide that I wanted to go to the Naval Academy," said Roger Staubach, who won the Heisman Trophy in 1963. "When I got to the Naval Academy in 1961, Joe was there as a TAD coach. He coached the plebe backfield and was my first college position coach. I've always been a big fan of his. He was as good as it gets as a person, I idolized him. I watched Navy football quite a bit on television when I was in high school and the biggest reason was to watch Joe Bellino. He was known for his big calves. He was so strong and had great speed. He will certainly be missed."

"Joe was my first hero and football inspiration. His standard of excellence was a great example for me, as well as everyone associated with the Naval Academy and college football fans," said New England Patriots head coach Bill Belichick, who grew up in Annapolis and whose father, Steve, was a longtime assistant coach at Navy.

"Joe excelled in football and baseball at Navy and I attended many of his games with my father. My father held Joe in high esteem and my parents remained close with Joe and his family," continued Belichick. "Joe was a warm and unselfish person – I feel privileged to have enjoyed a lifelong friendship with him. The first football game I remember was in 1959 when Joe scored three touchdowns in Navy's 43-12 victory over Army. When Joe graduated in 1961 he gave me his midshipman cover – 50 years later, I gave it back to him because it belongs in his family. He was very helpful to me when I came to the Patriots. He spoke to our team several times and helped many of our players and coaches through his connections in this area. I enjoyed the opportunity to see and talk to him on a regular basis for the last 20 years. Joe was a great man and I will miss him greatly."

ROGER STAUBACH
1963 HEISMAN TROPHY

Known as "Roger the Dodger," Roger Staubach has scrambled his way to success as a college athlete, an All-Pro NFL quarterback and as a successful businessman.

In 1963, Staubach became the second Naval Academy football player in four years to win the Heisman Trophy. It was his junior season with the Midshipmen, and all he did was lead Navy to a ranking of second in the country and a berth in the Cotton Bowl, where he set Bowl records for pass completions (21-of-31) and yards passing (228). The Midshipmen posted wins over West Virginia, Michigan, Notre Dame and Maryland that season. He completed 106 passes in 161 attempts for 1,474 yards, while earning consensus All-America honors, as well as the Maxwell Trophy and Walter Camp Memorial Trophy.

At one time, Staubach, who was hampered by injuries in his senior season of 1964, had set 28 Naval Academy records in football. He also had some outstanding performances as a varsity baseball player and a brief but significant moment as a varsity basketball player. He lettered in baseball three-straight years (1963-65) as an outfielder and pitcher. In 1963, he hit .420, and in 1965 he was the team captain. He also won a letter in basketball in 1962-63.

Staubach was the recipient of the Thompson Trophy Cup at the Academy for three-consecutive years and was the 1965 winner of the Naval Academy Athletic Association Sword. He was the first sophomore to win the Thompson Trophy Cup and is its only three-time winner. He was only the fourth midshipman since 1900 to win both the Thompson Trophy Cup and NAAA Sword.

After four years in the United States Navy, including a tour in Vietnam, Staubach joined the Dallas Cowboys and led that team to unprecedented heights. Again, displaying the daring play he had shown at Navy, Staubach directed the Cowboys to 23 fourth-quarter comeback wins, 14 in the final two minutes of a game or in overtime. He played 11 seasons with the Cowboys and led them to the Super Bowl four times, including world championships in 1972 and 1978. The Cowboys were 90-31 with Staubach as their starting quarterback.

Among his awards were the NFL Players Association Most Valuable Player and The Sporting News NFL Player of the Year in 1971, Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl VI (1972), Washington Touchdown Club NFC Player of the Year in 1976 and 1978, NFC Pro Bowl selection five times, the Vince Lombardi Sportsman of the Year Award in 1975, NFL Players' Association NFC Offensive Player of the Year (1978), and the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1979.

Staubach was named Walter Camp Foundation Man of the Year in 1985, was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1985, his first year of eligibility, and inducted into the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in 1981.

The football locker room in Ricketts Hall was named in his honor in 1996 and in 2008, Staubach received the National Football Foundation's Gold Medal, the highest honor one can receive from that organization. Staubach has also been honored as a "Distinguished Graduate" of the United States Naval Academy.

He was named to the Walter Camp All-Century Team, was elected into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame, spearheaded a successful movement to land North Texas and the Dallas Cowboys the Super Bowl in 2011 and was named to the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium All-Stadium Team.

Staubach married his high school sweetheart, Marianne, and the couple have been married for 57 years. They have five children, 15 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

GO NAVY! B

At the Naval Academy, beating Army is paramount. Plebes yell “Beat Army!” in Bancroft Hall, “Beat Army!” is on every weight in the Naval Academy weight rooms, and alums and fans alike yell “Beat Army!” at the end of Blue & Gold, the Naval Academy’s alma mater.

The annual showdown between the two rivals in each sport is deemed the Star Game with the players from the winning team receiving a Star for their letter sweaters. For those sports that face Army multiple times in a season, the Star Game is designated prior to the start of the year.

Navy had unprecedented success in both the Star and overall series against Army in 2021-22 going 20-4 (.833) in Star competitions and 27-9 (.750) in overall competitions against the Black Knights. Both the 20 Star wins and 27 overall wins were the most in series history by either side.

Navy has lost the overall series to Army just four times in the last 51 years and has lost the Star series just four times in the last 44 years.

Navy leads the all-time series against Army in all sports 1141-858-44.

2021-22 STAR SERIES PRESENTED BY USAA

MEN’S GOLF

In one of the most exciting conclusions to an Army-Navy men’s golf Star Match, Navy senior Nicholas Klock sank a four-foot putt for par on the first playoff hole to lead the Midshipmen to a sudden death victory over their archrivals at the Naval Academy Golf Club in Annapolis.

SPRINT FOOTBALL

The Navy sprint football team recorded a 14-6 victory over rival Army at Shea Stadium in West Point, N.Y. Defensively, Navy was able to hold the potent Army offense to under 200 total yards (193), including holding the Black Knight rushing attack to -10 yards on 34 total carries. Offensively, the Midshipmen finished with 207 total yards of offense, including 137 yards through the air. Brandon Atwood led the passing attack, going 14-for-26 with a touchdown and two interceptions. Adam Weissenfels completed a crucial pass on a fourth-and-four for nine yards, which continued a Navy scoring drive.

MEN’S SOCCER

Jacob Williams netted the first hat trick for the Midshipmen since 2012 and Tyler Fahning tallied his seventh shutout of the season to lead the Navy men’s soccer team to a 3-0 victory over Army in Army-Navy Cup X played at Subaru Park in Chester, Pa.

WOMEN’S CROSS COUNTRY

A dominant pack strategy by the Navy women’s cross country team led the squad to a 15-point victory over service academy rival Army in the 2021 Star Meet. Led by Ellie Abraham’s second-place individual result, Midshipmen runners crossed the finish line at Bowdoin Park consecutively in each of the next four positions as Navy totaled 20 team points versus 35 for the host Army team. The Mids’ tightly-packed lead group finished with an impressive top-five separation of just 31.8 seconds.

MEN’S CROSS COUNTRY

The Navy men’s cross country team led wire-to-wire and finished with seven of the top-eight runners in a dominant show of depth and excellence over Army in the 2021 men’s cross country Star Race. Competing on a 7.6k course at Bowdoin Park, the Mids received standout performances from throughout its lineup and earned a 17-46 victory over their rivals, the Black Knights. Brett Brady led Navy’s individual effort as the junior earned a 2.3-second victory over his classmate Garrison Clark.

WOMEN’S SOCCER

The Navy women’s soccer team turned in a dynamic, well-rounded performance as the Midshipmen dominated their service academy rival, the Army Black Knights, in the schools’ annual Star Match by a score of 3-1. Playing in front of a loud and passionate home crowd at the Glenn Warner Soccer Facility, the Mids received goals from a trio of talented underclassmen as Alexa Riddle led off the scoring in the first half before Amanda Graziano and Katie Herrmann added markers in the second half to allow the hosts to knock off the Black Knights.

MEN’S AND WOMEN’S SWIMMING & DIVING

The Navy swimming and diving teams posted a sweep of Army at Lejeune Hall in Annapolis. The women’s team recorded a 230-70 win to earn the program’s 33rd victory in a row over the Black Knights and the men’s team tallied a 158-142 victory to record the program’s 31st straight win over Army. The winning streaks rank first and second, respectively, for the longest in any sports in the Army-Navy rivalry.

FOOTBALL

Quarterback Tai Lavatai ran for two touchdowns and Navy’s defense limited Army to 57 second-half yards and a season-low 232 overall in a 17-13 victory The game was played at the Meadowlands to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks. Navy played a complete game, outgaining Army on the ground and overall, controlling the clock and converting three big plays, two on fourth down, that led to all its points. The Navy defense made the big play at the end, stopping Army quarterback Christian Anderson a yard short at the Navy 46 on fourth down with 91 seconds left. Bijan Nichols added a 43-yard field goal for Navy.

BEAT ARMY!

RIFLE

Marleigh Duncan scored a program-record 1,188 points to lead the No. 10 Navy rifle team to a 5,885-5,823 Star Match victory over No. 14 Army at the Tronsrue Marksmanship Center. The victory marked the third time in the last four seasons Navy has defeated Army in the annual Star Match.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S INDOOR TRACK & FIELD

The Navy men's track & field team posted a 101-80 victory over rival Army in the annual Indoor Star Meet at Wesley A. Brown Field House. The Midshipmen won 10 of the 17 events in America's Meet, earning maximum points in seven events on the day.

The Navy women's track and field team trailed by as many as 10 points at the midway point of the meet, but outscored rival Army 44-27 down the stretch to come away with a 94-87 victory in the Indoor Star Meet at Wesley A. Brown Field House. The women's track & field team has now defeated the Black Knights three consecutive times.

GYMNASTICS

The Navy gymnastics team dominated Army from start to finish on its way to a 17.7-point victory in the 2022 edition of the Star Meet before a raucous crowd at Halsey Field House. Coming into their contest against their service academy rival with a season-high of 391.45 points, the Mids were hitting in all facets of its game plan and posted a 397.25 score versus a 379.55 for the Black Knights. Navy outscored Army in all six events as a team, including 3.0-plus point advantages on the pommel horse, rings and high bar. The win was the fourth straight by the Mids in their series versus the Black Knights.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Sean Yoder's five points in the last two minutes of the game provided just enough of a cushion for the Navy men's basketball team to hang on for a 52-49 victory over Army at Christl Arena in West Point, N.Y. The Mids have now won the Star Game in back-to-back years and in four of the last five seasons.

WRESTLING

The Navy wrestling team won seven of the 10 bouts, including each of the last five, to secure a 22-9 victory over archrival Army in the annual Star Match at Alumni Hall. The Mids have dominated the wrestling series 51-10-5.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The Navy women's tennis team rallied from a match down to win the doubles point and went on to take three of the four singles contests to secure a 4-1 victory over rival Army in the Star Match held at the Tose Family Tennis Center. Navy has now won two of the last three Star Matches against the Black Knights. Kacey Moore paced the Midshipmen effort, teaming up with Samantha Johns to earn a two-point win at the No. 3 doubles, prior to clinching the match for the Mids with a straight-set victory in the No. 2 singles competition over Caroline Vincent.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S OUTDOOR TRACK & FIELD

The Navy track & field team swept the 2022 Army-Navy Outdoor Star Meet. The men's team posted a 107-93 victory, while the women's team claimed a 117-86 win. For the men, it was the 10th consecutive outdoor victory in the series for Navy, while the women claimed their seventh consecutive outdoor Star. On the men's side, the Midshipmen won 11 of 19 events, earning maximum points in six events. On the women's side, Navy won 13 of 19 events, including maximum points in nine individual events and a pair of relay victories.

MEN'S LACROSSE

Senior co-captain Jack Sweeney cashed in on his lone appearance of the game, as the extra-man sniper scored the game-winning goal 58 seconds into overtime to lead the Navy men's lacrosse team to a 12-11 victory over #6 Army at Michie Stadium. Army is the highest-ranked opponent Navy has defeated since beating #3 Yale 13-10 in the opening round of the 2016 NCAA Tournament.

MEN'S TENNIS

After dropping the doubles point, the Navy men's tennis team won four straight-set singles matches to rally for a 4-1 victory over Army at the USNA Tennis Courts in Annapolis.

COMMANDER-IN-

The Commander-In-Chief's Trophy is presented annually to the winner of the football competition among the three major service academies — Army, Navy and Air Force — and is named in honor of the President of the United States.

Navy has won the trophy in 11 of the last 19 years and the Mids are 28-11 over the last 39 games against Army and Air Force.

Navy has won the trophy a total of 16 times: 1973, 1975, 1978, 1979, 1981, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2012, 2013 and 2015, 2019.

When there is no clear-cut winner, the trophy remains with the winner of the previous year's competition.

The three-sided trophy stands two-and-a-half-feet tall and is engraved with the academy seals. Reproductions of the three mascots — the Army Mule, the Navy Goat and the Air Force Falcon — are ensconced on the respective sides of this bauble. The trophy is sponsored by the West Point Association of Graduates, the Naval Academy Alumni Association and the Air Force Association of Graduates.

The year in which the trophy is won is engraved on a plate gracing the respective academy's side of the trophy.

▶ Malcolm Perry had a 4-yard touchdown run with 23 seconds remaining to give Navy a stunning 34-25 victory over Air Force in 2019.

▶ Malcolm Perry became the fourth quarterback in FBS history to rush for 300 yards, running for an Army-Navy Game record 304 yards and two touchdowns in Navy's 31-7 rout in 2019.

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American is firmly established as a Power 6 conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, football and basketball postseason victories, expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to a College Football Playoff semifinalist, three New Year's Six bowl champions (UCF in 2013 and 2017; Houston in 2015), two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 13 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl seven times in the league's first nine football seasons, including the 2021 campaign, when Cincinnati became the first American Athletic Conference team to reach the College Football Playoff. The American was the only conference to have a team in the College Football Playoff and the NCAA Men's Final Four in the 2021 calendar year.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. Cincinnati has registered back-to-back top-10 finishes after the Bearcats were No. 4 in 2021 after their historic CFP appearance and No. 8 in the final 2020 national polls. UCF finished in the national top 10 twice as a conference member – in 2013 and 2017. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last seven years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). SMU returned to national prominence in 2019 with a 10-win season, during which the Mustangs were ranked as high as No. 14 nationally. Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014, while Tulane played in three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's cross country and men's track and field.

Under The American's banner, Houston's men's basketball team reached the 2021 NCAA Final Four and was ranked No. 3 in the final coaches' poll, while Memphis claimed the 2021 NIT title. Houston's men's track and field team took third place at the 2018 and 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Tulsa has registered top-six national finishes at the 2019, 2020 and 2021 NCAA Men's Cross Country Championships.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. Houston's Ed Oliver won the 2017 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman, while Cincinnati's Coby Bryant won the 2021 Jim Thorpe Award as the top defensive back. The American has had four top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes as Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds was fifth in 2015, UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton was eighth in 2017 and sixth in 2018, and Cincinnati quarterback Desmond Ridder was eighth in 2021. Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Acker was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, South Florida star Georgina Corrick was the Division I softball Academic All-America of the Year in 2022, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional and international sports as well, beginning with the selection of UCF quarterback Blake Bortles by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer, including former Memphis center James Wiseman, who was the No. 2 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and former Wichita State third-baseman Alec Bohm, the No. 3 selection in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Former SMU standout Bryson DeChambeau, who was the 2014 American Athletic Conference individual champion, went on to win the 2015 NCAA Championship, the 2015 US Amateur title and has since become one of the top players on the PGA Tour, including a win at the 2020 U.S. Open. Former Memphis tennis player Joe Salisbury, a 2014 all-conference selection, has gone on to win the 2020 Australian Open men's doubles championship and the 2021 French Open mixed doubles title. Former Tulane standout Dominik Koepfer has earned a top-50 world ranking in men's tennis. Cincinnati's Jordan Thompson led the United States volleyball team to its first gold medal in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+. The football championship game, all rounds of the men's basketball championship, and multiple rounds of the women's basketball championship, will be on linear ESPN television networks.

The first seven American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with an expansive group of bowls for the new cycle, which began in 2020, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations for member institutions.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Pow6rful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

ACADEMY AND TRA

When the founders of the United States Naval Academy were looking for a suitable location, it was reported that then Secretary of the Navy George Bancroft decided to move the naval school to "the healthy and secluded" location of Annapolis in order to rescue midshipmen from "the temptations and distractions that necessarily connect with a large and populous city." The Philadelphia Naval Asylum School was its predecessor. Four of the original seven faculty members came from Philadelphia. Other small naval schools in New York City, Norfolk, Va., and Boston, Mass. also existed in the early days of the United States.

The United States Navy was born during the American Revolution when the need for a naval force to match the Royal Navy became clear. But during the period immediately following the Revolution, the Continental Navy was demobilized in 1785 by an economy-minded Congress.

Through the efforts of Bancroft, the Naval School was established without Congressional funding, at a 10-acre Army post named Fort Severn in Annapolis, Maryland, on October 10, 1845, with a class of 50 midshipmen and seven professors. The curriculum included mathematics and navigation, gunnery and steam, chemistry, English, natural philosophy, and French.

Congress authorized the Naval Academy to begin awarding bachelor of science degrees in 1933. The Academy later replaced a fixed curriculum taken by all midshipmen with the present core curriculum plus 18 major fields of study, a wide variety of elective courses and advanced study and research opportunities.

Since then, the development of the United States Naval Academy has reflected the history of the country. As America has changed culturally and technologically so has the Naval Academy. In just a few decades, the Navy moved from a fleet of sail and steam-powered ships to a high-tech fleet with nuclear-powered submarines and surface ships and supersonic aircraft. The academy has changed, too, giving midshipmen state-of- the-art academic and professional training they need to be effective naval officers in their future careers.

ANCHORS AWEIGH

"Anchors Aweigh" was written by Lt. Charles Zimmermann, Musical Director of the Naval Academy in 1906, with the lyrics provided by Alfred H. Miles of the Class of 1906, as a fight song for the 1907 graduating class instead of the usual class march Zimmermann had composed for previous classes. The song made its debut at the 1906 Army-Navy game, and when the Midshipmen won the game, the song became traditional at this game. It gained national exposure in the 1920s and 1930s when it was heard on the radio and was in a number of popular movies. In 1997 a one-hour documentary on the history of Navy football, titled "Anchors Aweigh for Honor and Glory", was produced by NFL Films. The film was deemed a success by both critics and fans alike. Here are the words:

Stand Navy down the field, Sails set to the sky,
We'll never change our course, So Army you steer shy.
Roll up the score, Navy, Anchors Aweigh,
Sail Navy down the field, And sink the Army,
Sink the Army Grey

BILL THE GOAT

The first recorded use of a goat mascot for Navy athletic teams was in 1893 when an animal named El Cid (The Chief) was turned over to the Brigade by young officers of the USS New York. El Cid helped Navy to a 6-4 triumph over Army that year. Two cats, a dog, and a carrier pigeon have also enjoyed brief reigns as the Navy mascot, but goats have served without interruption since 1904.

Bill XXXVI (36) and Bill XXXVII (37) are the current mascots. A group of midshipmen from the 8th company, known as Team Bill, are trained as goat handlers to ensure the goats' safety, security and comfort on the sidelines during football games.

BLUE & GOLD

This song was written in 1923 by Cmdr. Roy de Saussure Horn, USN (Ret.) with music composed by J.W. Crosley. Following every home athletic competition, the team faces its fans with its hand on its heart and sings the following:

Now, colleges from sea to sea
May sing of colors true;
But who has better right than we
To hoist a symbol hue?
For sailors brave in battle fair,
Since fighting days of old,
Have proved the sailor's right to wear
The Navy Blue and Gold

ENTERPRISE BELL

From the bridge of the famed World War II aircraft carrier, it has been a part of the Naval Academy tradition since 1950. The late Admiral Harry W. Hill, then Superintendent, was instrumental in bringing the "E" Bell to Annapolis. It rings during special ceremonies honoring the sports teams that won the N-Star against Army. The bell is stationed in front of Bancroft Hall.

HERNDON CLIMB

The Herndon Monument Climb is the traditional culmination of plebe year at the Naval Academy. Demonstrating the teamwork and perseverance they have learned during their first year at the academy, the plebes build a human pyramid to remove the "dixie cup" hat at the top of the vegetable shortening-covered monument and replace it with an upperclassman's hat. After successfully completing the Herndon climb, the freshmen are no longer called plebes but "fourth class midshipmen."

MIDSHIPMAN

The word midshipman first appeared in English in the 17th century in the form of the word midshipman to designate those men who were stationed "amidships," i.e. in the waist or middle portion of the vessel, while on duty. By 1687, however, the second 's' had been dropped to give the current form of the word. Midshipmen were originally boys, sometimes as young as seven or eight, who were apprenticed to sea captains to learn the sailor's trade.

In the early days of the American Navy, midshipmen trained aboard ship until they were eventually commissioned as ensigns. With the founding of the Naval Academy in 1845, it became possible, as it still is, for a midshipman to enter the Navy directly from civilian life. The name of students at the Naval Academy changed several times between 1870 and 1902, when Congress restored the original title of Midshipman, and it has remained unchanged since.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Navy is dedicated to providing its student-athletes top-notch game day and practice atmospheres in every sport. Navy annually ranks among the league leaders in attendance in nearly every sport, and has hosted numerous Patriot League and NCAA Championship events. Recently, many of the facilities have undergone extensive renovations, showing Navy's commitment, dedication and passion to provide the very best for its athletes.

Navy has played host to the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Quarterfinals six times, the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship Weekend, the season-opening Veterans Classic for men's basketball featuring some of the top teams in the country including two teams that went to the Final Four the same year they participated, Michigan State and North Carolina, the College Squash Association Individual Championship, the CWPA Eastern Water Polo Championship, the EIWA Wrestling Championship, the NCAA Zone Diving Championship, the ECAC Swimming Championship, the Women's Intercollegiate Sailing National Championship, the ECAC and the USAG Collegiate Gymnastics Championship, is the yearly home of the Military Bowl and in 2017 hosted the Naval Academy Baseball Classic exhibition game between the Washington Nationals and Boston Red Sox at Terwilliger Brothers Field at Max Bishop Stadium. In 2018, the Naval Academy hosted an NHL hockey game at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium between the Washington Capitals and the Toronto Maple Leafs. The Glenn Warner Soccer Facilitiy hosted the U.S. Men's National Team for a 10-day training camp in the summer of 2019.

Navy's facilities have also undergone major renovations and construction improvements, from the building of the $52 million Wesley A. Brown Field House to a $64 million overhaul of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium that gives the Midshipmen a dominant home-field football presence and made the facility the finest in college lacrosse.

The renovation of Ricketts Hall was completed in the fall of 2021 with the 25,000 square foot Ron Terwilliger Center for Student-Athletes at Ricketts Hall ($28 million), which will provide the public with extensive information regarding the physical mission and will provide much needed program space for the varsity teams including a new auditorium. The center also includes a 5,000 square-foot rehabilitation center for student-athletes.

Other major facility improvements include the $18.5 million Brigade Sports Complex, the $18 million Hubbard Hall Rowing facility renovation, a $10 million renovation to the Lejeune Hall pool that included new tile throughout both the 50 meter pool and dive well, a replacement of the dive towers and the addition of video boards, a $5 million renovation of Rip Miller Field (removed crown, installed vertical drainage, replaced bleacher and press box), the $1.8 million Willis Bilderback-Dinty Moore Navy Lacrosse Hall of Fame, a $6 million renovation at the Naval Academy Golf Course, a $3 million expansion of the Prager Family squash facility at Halsey Field House that added a doubles squash court, new bleacher seating, digital displays and upgraded team spaces, the $5 million Prusmack Rugby complex, a $5.1 million renovation and expansion of the Halsey Field House multipurpose basketball facility giving both teams new locker rooms, player lounges with adjacent film rooms, expanded athletic training room with dedicated hydrotherapy room and new coaches' locker rooms, a $1.2 million renovation to Max Bishop Stadium (baseball) for lights, the Joe Duff hitting facility and a new video board and a $950 thousand new indoor track Beynon Sports polyurethane surface at Wesley Brown Field House.

Other facility improvements have included the Athletic Hall of Fame at Lejeune Hall, a new scoreboard and outdoor track surface for men's and women's track & field at Ingram Field, Ricketts Hall training room expansion, a new video board at Alumni Hall, a new press box at the Glenn Warner Soccer facility, new hammer throw venues for track & field, a new scoreboard for swimming and a new wrestling locker room at Lejeune Hall, major renovations at Macdonough Hall for water polo and in Halsey Field House installation of FieldTurf, installation of new fully retractable perimeter protective net system, full interior wall painting, refurbishment of original wood fixed bench bleachers, addition of decorative banners from the rafters and the addition of backlit signs along both long walls of the arena.

NAVY-MAR MEMORIA

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium was initially renovated with the first of three phases over a four-year time period (2002-05) and transformed into a state-of-the-art multi-use facility hosting Navy football, sprint football and men's and women's lacrosse as well as a myriad of other local, regional, national and international events.

A fourth phase (2011-15) of renovations enhanced the venue's recruiting suites, hospitality facilities, scoreboards and locker rooms.

The $80M project was privately funded by the Naval Academy Foundation and the Naval Academy Athletic Association (NAAA). 360 Architecture of Kansas City, Kan. and Alt, Breeding, Schwarz of Annapolis, Md. directed the design.

The newest components include two state-of-the-art video scoreboards, chair back seating, ADA seating platforms and access ramps, concession stands, end zone seating, luxury suites, and additional sideline seating created by lowering the playing field to give the stadium a more intimate look and feel.

In 2004, a 12,000 square-foot banquet facility was constructed to host class reunion dinners and other Naval Academy functions.

The first floor Admiral William Lawrence N-Room houses plaques listing the names of all USNA varsity letterwinners and can seat 600 for a banquet or formal dinner.

The second floor is the home of the Bilderback-Moore Navy Lacrosse Hall of Fame. The James H.H. Carrington Room is part of the Hall of Champions that displays lacrosse photos, trophies, memorabilia and a multimedia presentation representing the proud tradition of Navy lacrosse.

The banquet rooms are serviced by a full kitchen and bar areas with a fully-integrated audio and video system that features 10 large screen televisions and the ability to give business presentations on both levels of the banquet facility.

The banquet facility is just one of many hospitality areas located in the stadium complex. Ten sideline suites are located on the lower east side of the stadium and eight in the south end zone. Large party tents are utilized with great views of the field in the southeast and southwest corners of the facility. Class reunions are frequently held in Class Ring North, located behind the battle arches in the north end, offering alumni an in-stadium tailgating opportunity.

A renovated press tower was completed prior to the 2004 season.

The fourth level, named the Flag Bridge, was erected under the old press area in the seating bowl. It has 71 permanent seats in front of additional stools, tables and chairs which allows for flexibility in hosting game day viewing or special events on non-game days.

The fifth level is dedicated to the writing press, radio booths, coaches' booths, scoreboard, public address and operations areas and the sixth level holds six suites.

In 2005, the lower concourse restrooms were expanded and the concourse was totally resurfaced. A major change to the stadium came with the installation of a new synthetic field surface which allows the stadium to be used 365 days a year.

In the summer of 2010, four luxury boxes, a television booth and camera locations were constructed on the Upper East Side. The relocation of the television production allows television to better capture the Navy sideline and Brigade of Midshipmen. In order to enhance the Stadium's ADA capabilities, two new elevators make stops at the lower portion of the upper deck to allow for fans to access their seats via a pedestrian bridge.

In the summer of 2011, a new playing surface was installed at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The monoblade monofilament turf system was installed by FieldTurf making Navy the first FBS program with this type of field.

In the summer of 2013 two new state-of-the-art high-definition video boards were installed, the brand new construction of two enclosed recruiting and hospitality reception areas (Yeager and Minter Pavilions) were completed in the south end zone and the home team locker room was completely refurbished. The Yeager Pavilion, on the press box side of the stadium, is also home of the Cmdr. Michael B. Clark and Lisa

In the summer of 2014, following a private dedication, the east tower formally became known as Akerson Tower, named in honor of distinguished Naval Academy graduate, Daniel F. Akerson '70. Additionally, two identical club lounges (The Athletic and Scholarship Programs Trustee Club and the 1963 Football Team Club), with dedicated seating, were constructed on either side of the existing Akerson Tower upper-level suites to provide a premium game day experience for up to 350 people. The two clubs officially opened before the 2015 season. Two additional suites were also added with the new club level.

In 2016, a new south end zone video board was added to match the exact size and dimensions of the north end board. This gives the stadium two of the largest boards in the country in venues of comparable size.

The stadium also got new Field Turf in the summer of 2019 which included a remembrance of Joe Bellino with his name and number on the field.

In the summer of 2021, ALL IN nameplates were affixed to a section of benches in the midshipmen seating area. The name plates represent those season ticket holders who donated their 2020 football season tickets during the Coronavirus pandemic. Due to county and state health guidelines, general public fan attendance was prohibited during the 2020 football season in Annapolis.

In the summer of 2022, the stadium lighting was retrofitted with a Musco LED lighting system. The new lights will increase the brightness on the field while using 60% less electricity.

The multi-purpose nature of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium has allowed it to play host to six NCAA Men's Lacrosse Quarterfinals, the 2005 NCAA Women's Lacrosse Championship, the 2005 Women's Lacrosse World Cup, the 2013 First and Second Rounds of the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Tournament, Major League Lacrosse games, as well as numerous high school, professional and local youth events. The stadium is the home of the Military Bowl and the site of several Baltimore Ravens' practices. In March of 2018 it hosted an NHL game between the Washington Capitals and the Toronto Maple Leafs and a DC United soccer game.

The memorial aspects of the original structure were preserved and enhanced during the renovations. More than 8,000 chair back memorial plates were removed, refurbished and reinstalled in the new seats. Hundreds of memorial plaques received the same treatment and are featured on the Memorial Plaque Wall in the North Memorial Plaza. Battle arches and class arches have been constructed to tell the illustrious story of the Naval Services. Each combination of battle arches contains a history lesson on the left arch and a description of the particular battle on the right. Each and every battle fought by either the Navy or Marine Corps is depicted through the use of color-coded battle streamers allowing visitors to chronologically view the story of the brave men and women who we honor for their service to our country.There was also an arch dedicated to those that went on to serve in the Air Force.

The stadium was rededicated on Oct. 8, 2005 before Navy's annual battle with Air Force. The Mids won the game 27-24.

The dedication plaque for Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium reads as follows:

"This Stadium is dedicated to those who have served and will serve as upholders of the traditions and renown of the Navy and Marine Corps of the United States. May it be a perpetual reminder that the Navy and Marine Corps are organizations of men trained to live nobly and serve courageously in peace, champions of our integrity; in war, defenders of our freedom."

NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM
THE CONSTRUCTION

Navy unveiled its newest pride and joy, the $3 million dollar Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, before 25,000 spectators by beating William & Mary, 29-2, on Sept. 26, 1959. Joe Bellino scored the first points in stadium history on a 53-yard touchdown run, while fullback Joe Matalavage rumbled for an 86-yard touchdown run. Quarterback Jim Maxfield led the Navy offense to two more touchdowns as the Midshipmen piled up 289 yards rushing while holding The Tribe to just 101 yards of total offense.

"I remember that we were all very proud of our new stadium and so impressed with how big and beautiful it was," Jim Dunn, an offensive center and captain of the 1959 squad, told the Annapolis Capital. "That stadium really helped put Navy football on the map. It made home games much more of an event."

Plans to construct a new stadium actually began more than two decades before and in 1939, the Naval Academy Athletic Association bought a 106-acre tract of farmland in West Annapolis.

By 1941, architects had completed preliminary plans and specifications, so rough grading of the former Davis-Smith site began.

However, World War II intervened and delayed construction of the stadium until 1956. That is when a survey showed the available athletic space for the Naval Academy intramural program to be woefully inadequate. Demolishing Thompson Stadium, home to Navy football since 1912, would free up five acres of valuable on-campus space for outdoor exercise activities.

Thompson Stadium had become terribly outdated in terms of seating, parking and other amenities and had deteriorated tremendously during its 48-year existence.

Academy officials estimated it would require $300,000 in renovations just to restore the stadium to limited utility without adding another seat, parking space or improved facilities. As a result, a drive to raise private funds for a new stadium began and was coordinated by Rear Admiral William R. Smedberg III, Superintendent of the Naval Academy at the time. Captain Eugene B. Fluckey served as campaign director and is credited with generating contributions that more than covered the cost of constructing the stadium. The stadium was funded by thousands of dedicated alumni, sailors, marines and friends of the United States Naval Academy, who donated the $3 million in private gifts. As a result, Navy was able to build a stadium that was worthy of its great football tradition.

"Thompson Stadium wasn't much to speak of. It was like a high school stadium to most of the players," quarterback Joe Tranchini told the Capital. "Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium was definitely a major upgrade."

Oct. 18, 1997 – Gerald Wilson returns an interception 95 yards for a touchdown, as Navy defeats VMI 42-7. The 95-yard interception return is a stadium record and second longest in school history.

Nov. 22, 1997 – Pat McGrew had a 91-yard touchdown run, second longest in school history and longest in stadium history, as Navy rolls over Kent State 62-29.

Nov. 22, 2003 – Quarterback Craig Candeto directed touchdown drives on all eight possessions he played as Navy destroyed Central Michigan 63-34 in front of a Senior Day crowd of 29,527. The win made Navy bowl eligible for the first time since 1996.

Nov. 20, 2004 – Seniors Kyle Eckel, Aaron Polanco and Eric Roberts rushed for two touchdowns apiece as Navy routed Rutgers 54-21, in front of a Senior Day crowd of 33,615. Navy, which scored 47-consecutive points in the game, rushed for 476 yards and 613 yards of total offense. The victory gave the Mids an undefeated record at home for the first time since 1996.

Oct. 8, 2005 – On a day that was already special because of the rededication of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, sophomore Joey Bullen made it even more memorable by drilling a 46-yard field goal with four-tenths of a second remaining to give Navy a thrilling 27-24 comeback victory over Air Force.

Aug. 30, 2008 – Shun White rushed for a school-record 348 yards and three touchdowns on just 19 carries to lead Navy to a season-opening 41-13 victory over Towson.

Nov. 1, 2008 – Linebacker Clint Sovie's 42-yard fumble return for a touchdown with 37 seconds left in regulation capped a 20-point rally in the final 9:16 to send the game into overtime and quarterback Ricky Dobbs' one-yard run in overtime gave Navy a miraculous 33-27 overtime victory over Temple.

Sept. 26, 2009 – Navy celebrated the 50th anniversary of the first game played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium by wearing replica 1959 jerseys against Western Kentucky. Quarterback Ricky Dobbs rushed for 143 yards and four touchdowns in the 38-22 victory.

Oct. 3, 2009 – The Navy defense completely shut down the nation's top rushing offense, while junior kicker Joe Buckley drilled three field goals, including a 38-yarder in overtime, to lead Navy to a 16-13 victory over Air Force in front of a sellout crowd of 37,820.

Nov. 14, 2009 – Ricky Dobbs rushed for a Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium-record five touchdowns on 26 carries to help lead Navy to a 35-18 victory over Delaware.

Oct. 20, 2012 – Navy scored 10 points in the final 5:30 to come from behind and shock Indiana 31-30 in front of 33,441 fans on Homecoming. Keenan Reynolds hit Matt Aiken with a touchdown pass with 2:02 remaining to give Navy the lead and a Parrish Gaines interception clinched the Mids' first win over a BIG TEN opponent at home since 1926.

Oct. 26, 2013 – One week after missing an extra-point in the second overtime that cost his team a chance to defeat Toledo, Nick Sloan redeemed himself against Pittsburgh booting a 30-yard field goal as time expired to give Navy a thrilling 24-21 come-from-behind victory.

Oct. 25, 2014 – Keenan Reynolds rushed for 251 yards and three touchdowns on 39 carries to give Navy a 49-39 Homecoming victory over San Jose State. Reynolds' first touchdown of the day set the school record for career rushing touchdowns with 50.

Nov. 15, 2014 – Keenan Reynolds rushed for a career-high 277 yards and a stadium-record six touchdowns to lead Navy to a 52-19 victory over Georgia Southern.

Sept. 19, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds ran for five touchdowns and 142 yards as the Midshipmen dominated East Carolina in their American Athletic Conference debut 45-21.

Oct. 3, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds rushed for 183 yards to lead Navy to a 33-11 rout of Air Force. It was Navy's largest margin of victory in the series since 1978.

Oct. 31, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds scored twice in the fourth quarter to tie the collegiate mark for career rushing touchdowns and Navy set a school record with three 100-yard rushers in a 29-17 victory over USF. Reynolds finished with 117 yards rushing, while Chris Swain rushed for a game-high 131 yards and Dishan Romine had 117 yards. It marked the first time in program history that three players each rushed for 100 or more yards in a game.

Nov. 14, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds shattered the FBS career rushing touchdown record, scoring four rushing touchdowns against SMU in Navy's 55-14 rout of the Mustangs. The four rushing touchdowns gave Reynolds 81 in his career, surpassing Montee Ball's record of 77.

Dec. 28, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds wrapped up his record-setting career in spectacular fashion, rushing for three scores and passing for another to lead Navy to a 44-28 victory over Pittsburgh in the Military Bowl. Reynolds' final touchdown, with 4:19 remaining, clinched the win and gave him 88 total touchdowns for his career, breaking the tie with Louisiana Tech's Kenneth Dixon for most touchdowns in FBS history. The win was the 11th on the year for Navy, which is a school record.

Oct. 22, 2016 – Will Worth rushed for 115 yards and threw two touchdown passes to help lead Navy to a 46-40 victory over #6 Houston. It was Navy's first win over a team ranked in the Top 10 since 1984. Navy entered the game as a 17-point underdog, but shredded the No. 1-ranked rushing defense in the country for 306 yards on the ground. Josiah Powell's 34-yard interception return for a touchdown was the big play of the game.

Oct. 7, 2017 – Zach Abey threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Carmona with 15 seconds left to lead Navy to a 48-45 victory over Air Force in front of a stadium-record crowd of 38,792.

Nov. 11, 2017 – Malcolm Perry rushed for 282 yards and four touchdowns in his first career start at quarterback and backup kicker JR Osborn hit an 18-yard game-winning field goal as time expired to give Navy a 43-40 victory over SMU. Perry's 282 yards rushing are the third most in school history.

Dec. 28, 2017 – Zach Abey came off the bench to rush for five touchdowns, and starting quarterback Malcolm Perry ran for 114 yards and two touchdowns as Navy rolled to an easy 49-7 victory over Virginia in the Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman.

Oct. 5, 2019 – Malcolm Perry scored on a 4-yard touchdown run with 23 seconds remaining to give Navy a stunning 34-25, victory over Air Force. The Falcons had scored 16 consecutive points in the final quarter and took the lead on a 1-yard run by Taven Birdow with 3:15 left in the game. However, Perry led an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive to claim the victory in the first leg of the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy. Navy linebacker Tony Brown returned a fumble 7 yards in the closing seconds to round out the scoring.

Oct. 26, 2019 – Bijan Nichols kicked a 48-yard field goal as time expired and Navy edged Tulane 41-38. Nichols' kick - a yard shy of a career long - capped a seven-play drive in the final 61 seconds to secure bowl eligibility for the Midshipmen for the 15th time in 17 years. Sophomore fullback Jamale Carothers rushed for a career-high 154 yards and accounted for four touchdowns and quarterback Malcolm Perry rushed for 142 yards and threw for a touchdown for the Midshipmen.

NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM

THE DANIEL F. AKERSON TOWER

The east side tower of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium was officially dedicated the Daniel F. Akerson Tower in a private ceremony on May 1, 2014. Dan '70 and Karin Akerson established the largest private gift in Naval Academy history with their $20 million commitment to the school, a significant portion of which served as the lead gift for the Phase IV renovations to Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium that commenced in the summer of 2013. Their generous contribution paved the way for the installation of two new state-of-the-art high-definition video boards, the construction of two enclosed recruiting and hospitality reception areas in the south end zone, the complete refurbishment of the home team locker room and the construction of two premium club lounges on the upper level of Akerson Tower adjacent to the stadium's existing upper-level suites.

THE FREDERICK & DIANE SMITH ATRIUM IN AKERSON TOWER

Located outside the main elevators in Akerson Tower, the Frederick & Diane Smith Atrium was dedicated in 2019. In recognition of a leadership contribution from the Smith's towards the Phase IV renovations at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, the Atrium was named in their honor. This space serves as a lasting tribute in recognition of fellow Marines who fought together in Viet Nam, and in honor of those who made the ultimate sacrifice.

ATHLETIC & SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS TRUSTEES CLUB

Located in the south club of Akerson Tower, the Athletic & Scholarship Programs Trustees Club was formally dedicated in the spring of 2016. In recognition of a $3 million dollar commitment to establish a sustainment and preservation fund for Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and for over seven decades of dedicated support by the USNA Foundation's Athletic & Scholarship Program Trustees, this space will serve as a lasting tribute to the organization's commitment to Navy athletics.

CMDR. MICHAEL B. CLARK & LISA QUADRINI POSTGAME MEDIA CENTER

Located inside of the Yeager Pavilion, the Cmdr. Michael B. Clark '69 & Lisa Quadrini Postgame Media Center serves as the site for the Navy football program's postgame media interviews. Professional grade audio-visual equipment allows the space to be converted from its in-game hospitality use to its postgame media use. Six video monitors throughout the room ensure that all attendees can have a front-row seat during the Midshipmen's postgame interviews.

THE REAR ADM. HAMILTON LOCKER ROOM COMPLEX

The Rear Adm. Thomas J. Hamilton Locker Room Complex at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium was officially dedicated at the opening game of the 1992 season.The $800,000 facility includes home and visiting team locker rooms, training rooms, an officials' dressing area and an office for the stadium supervisor. There are separate dressing and shower areas for coaches in each of the locker rooms. The locker rooms accommodate approximately 100 players and coaches for each team. The 16,000-square-foot structure is of masonry construction and is completely air conditioned. The facility actually includes two buildings and incorporates the arch which has been a traditional part of the entrance at the south end of the stadium. The arch was refurbished to match the decor of the complex. The home team locker room was renovated in the summer of 2013.

CHARLES S. MINTER JR. '37 PAVILION

The gold side recruiting suite was officially dedicated as the Vice Admiral Charles S. Minter Jr. '37 Pavilion in the fall of 2018. Dave '79 and Susan Rich made a leadership commitment towards the Phase IV renovations at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium and named the Pavilion in honor of Vice Admiral Minter. Vice Admiral Minter served as Commandant of Midshipmen and Superintendent of the United States Naval Academy. The Minter Pavilion provides a versatile space, and is used for hosting prospective midshipmen student-athletes, entertaining athletic donors, holding postgame press conferences, and catering to other special events on non-football weekends.

JACK STEPHENS FIELD

The United States Naval Academy Campaign: Leaders to Serve the Nation received a $10 million gift from Mr. Jackson T. Stephens of Little Rock, Arkansas in 2003. The late Mr. Stephens was a 1947 graduate of the Naval Academy and the former Chairman of Stephens Group, Inc. His gift supported the renovations of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, the Class of 1947 Legacy project to benefit the Academy's Museum, and other important Campaign priorities. The field at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium is named "Jack Stephens Field" in his honor.

TERWILLIGER FAMILY SCOREBOARD

The Terwilliger Family is honored to have the north scoreboard named after it for its contribution to the Naval Academy and to the Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium renovation project. Ron Terwilliger is a member of the Class of 1963. His brother Bruce is a member of the Class of 1965. Both were varsity athletes, scholars and served on active duty upon graduation. They are honored to give back to the Naval Academy, which gave so much to them.

MIKE & ROBIN YEAGER PAVILION

The blue side recruiting suite was officially dedicated as the Mike & Robin Yeager Pavilion in the fall of 2015. Mike '76, was an outstanding football player at the Naval Academy before serving in the Marine Corps and pursuing a successful career in the energy industry. He and his wife, Robin, made a significant contribution towards the Phase IV renovations to Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Their pavilion provides a versatile space, suitable for hosting prospective midshipmen student-athletes, entertaining athletic donors, holding postgame press conferences and catering to a variety of other uses on non-football weekends.

1963 NAVY FOOTBALL TEAM CLUB

Located in the north club of Akerson Tower, the 1963 Navy Football Team Club was formally dedicated in the fall of 2018. In recognition of the team members' significant contribution towards the Phase IV renovations at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, this space serves as a lasting tribute to the team. The 1963 team, one of Navy's all-time best, was coached by Wayne Hardin and the captain was Tom Lynch. Roger Staubach won the Heisman Trophy while leading the Midshipmen to a 9-1 regular-season record and a final ranking of No. 2 in the nation.

NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM 50TH ANNIVERSARY

In 2009, the Naval Academy Athletic Association celebrated the 50th anniversary of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium by honoring the 1959 Navy team that defeated William & Mary in the first game played at the stadium and announcing an all-time Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium team. The 2009 team wore 1959 replica jerseys against Western Kentucky to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the first game.

FOOTBALL FACILITIES

RICKETTS HALL

Navy's football team has the use of one of the top facilities in the country in Ricketts Hall. A $12 million renovation of Ricketts Hall has provided upgraded meeting rooms for the football team, offices for the football coaches, a player's lounge for the football team and offices for the Naval Academy Athletic Association administrators, business and ticket offices, sports information and sports promotions and marketing.

In 2004, a renovation was completed that added a trophy and reception room, as well as new football offices and meeting rooms.

In 2007, the weight room was renovated with new lighting, synthetic turf sprint lanes and a new paint scheme. The football locker room was also completely renovated to increase the size of the facility, which included a player's lounge area complete with big screen televisions and video games.

In 2011, the training room was completely renovated, as were Rip Miller Field and the coaches locker rooms.

In 2014, a new turf field was installed on Rip Miller Field that was identical to the turf at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

In 2015, a new 1,800-square-foot lounge with a glass wall overlooking the weight room was added, as well as a newly created nutrition room, renovated office space for six strength and conditioning coaches and a new 1,350 square-foot football coaches locker room adjacent to the coaching offices on the third floor.

The most recent addition is the Ron Terwilliger Center for Student-Athletes at Ricketts Hall, which will be a must-see destination for Navy recruits and visitors to the Academy. This state-of-the-art facility will illustrate the Academy's robust physical mission, showcase Navy's rich and vibrant athletic history and celebrate the achievements of Navy's student-athletes on and off the field. The facility is designed to contain an immersion theater, a 250-seat auditorium, an Army-Navy tribute exhibit, an executive conference room and an interactive display that celebrates the many facets of midshipmen student-athletes.

Ricketts Hall is named after Admiral Claude Vernon Ricketts, a 1929 graduate who played end for the Midshipmen, earning a varsity letter in 1928. During the battle at Pearl Harbor, Ricketts received a Letter of Commendation for his efforts to save his ship and his mortally wounded captain. He later became Commander Second Fleet and then assumed duties as the Vice Chief of Naval Operations.

THE CLASS OF 1972 SPORTS PERFORMANCE AND REHABILITATION FACILITY

A new state of the art rehabilitation center opened in the fall of 2021 to service all Midshipmen athletes. It consists of six treatment tables with modalities ranging from a Hivamat to Gameready, plus a fully operational Physicians Clinic to provide initial care or follow-up care. There will also be a designated space for our athletes to utilize recovery equipment. The recovery area will consist of Vibe Plates, foam rollers and five Deluxe Lounge chairs that recline and allow the student athlete to utilize a compression garment created by Recovery Pump. Another key item that will be utilized in this area is a piece of rehabilitation equipment created by Delos. It helps prevent and rehabilitate lower body injuries by providing instant feedback and allows the athlete to have better proprioceptive output. As the athlete departs the rehabilitation center, they will be able to utilize a Grab and Go nutrition center in order to continue with the recovery process and to stay fueled up for practice or competition. The 1972 Sports Performance and Rehabilitation Facility was made possible through a leadership gift from the Class of 1972.

STAUBACH LOCKER ROOM

The football locker room, which is named after 1963 Heisman Trophy winner Roger Staubach, was completely renovated in the summer of 2019 and includes 175 custom built lockers.

THE RED ROMO TRAINING CENTER

The Romo Physical Training Center, which is named for Navy's former athletic trainer the late Leon (Red) Romo, incorporates a state-of-the-art rehabilitation therapy pool, Hydroworx, for use by athletic teams and the Brigade of Midshipmen, an AlterG anti-gravity Treadmill, a computerized injury management system which will network with all other training rooms around the Naval Academy and with the Naval Academy Medical Department, updated equipment and treatment modalities and a doctor's examination area with a portable x-ray unit and self chilling cold whirlpools.

JACK LENGYEL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING FACILITY

Overlooking the Severn River and the Chesapeake Bay sits the Ricketts Hall weight room.

Bryan Fitzpatrick and his strength and conditioning staff instruct the Midshipmen in their daily workouts. Programs are structured to help the athletes maximize their overall athletic abilities. A variety of speed/strength workouts are organized throughout the year, both in-season and off-season. Olympic-style lifts, which include the snatch and the clean and jerk, are the core exercises used at the Naval Academy. Variations of these lifts, along with squatting and pressing exercises, are performed during each workout. Flexibility, speed and agility development, conditioning and nutritional information are the final components of each daily workout.

Encompassing 12,000-square feet of prime weightlifting space, the Midshipmen complete their speed/strength workouts on:

- 24 Rogers Pendulum Half Racks (each station includes):
- Plae Olympic platform
- Multi-purpose cable pulley unit
- Dip bars
- Pull up bars
- Hyper-extension
- Multi-purpose bench
- 500+lbs of Intek weights plus bar
- 12 Intek dumbbell stations 20lbs-135lbs
- 12 Rogers Pendulum 5-way Neck mechanics
- 12 Rogers Pendulum Glute Hams
- State-of-the-art speed development equipment which includes a 10x20 yard indoor turf
- 12 Rotating 65" flat screen TV's with integrated high tech computer system split into 4 separate zones, used to post individualized workout programs, messages, timing clocks and training videos all of which are connected to a 3,000-watt speaker system for premium sound. The system also has a built in video control system which enables the strength & conditioning staff to video an athlete performing an exercise and play it back instantly to ensure proper technique is being performed.

LYNCH FOOTBALL WARDROOM

The Lynch Football Wardroom, which features a nutritional center, provides Midshipmen football student-athletes a place to gather, relax and re-energize between training, classes and practice. The wardroom was renovated in the summer of 2019 and is named in honor of the Navy Football Brotherhood and the 1963 Navy football team through a leadership gift from Tom Lynch '64, the Captain of the 1963 Navy football team.

CHET GLADCHUK
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his 22nd year as President of the Naval Academy Athletic Association and Director of Athletics, Chet Gladchuk has overseen the most successful era in the history of Navy Athletics.

During Gladchuk's tenure at the Naval Academy, he has seen the Midshipmen win three national championships, 219 conference titles, produce 305 All-Americans and 123 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

Navy had one of its best years ever in 2021-22, highlighted by a 20-4 (.833) record against Army in Star competitions and a 27-9 (.750) record overall against the Black Knights. Both the 20 Star wins and 27 overall wins against Army were the most in school history.

Overall, Navy teams posted a 266-172-4 (.606) record, had 19 All-Americans, 10 Academic All-Americans, six Patriot League Scholar Athletes of the Year, 15 national or conference coaches of the year, 19 national or conference athletes of the year and won 15 conference championships.

Navy again won the Patriot League Presidents' Cup in 2021-22, which is awarded annually to the member institution with the highest cumulative sports point total based on conference championships and final regular-season standings in sponsored men's and women's sports, for the eighth-straight year and for the ninth time in the last 10 years.

Navy's eight-straight Presidents' Cups are the most in history. Navy's nine Patriot League titles in 2021-22 tied the school record for the most won in a year. Navy has won 71 Patriot League Championships over the last 10 years, the next closest is Boston, who has won 32 titles during the same time frame. The Mids have won 122 Patriot League titles over the last 20 years. The second-place school during that span is Bucknell with 77 championships.

The Mids had never won the Presidents' Cup prior to Gladchuk coming to Navy.

Navy maintains national stature in the classroom as well with 21 of its 24 NCAA sponsored teams above the national average for their respective sport in the Academic Progress Report. Navy's 10 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans in 2021-22 were tied for the fourth most in all of Division I and Navy's 92 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans since 2010 are the fourth most in the country.

Gladchuk's efforts have been recognized on a national level. He received the John L. Toner Award from the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in December of 2016, which recognizes an athletics director who has demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics. Gladchuk was recognized for engineering the move to the American Athletic Conference, which will secure Navy's future as a FBS program of national stature for years to come.

Gladchuk, who is the second-longest tenured athletic director in the FBS, was recently added to the College Football Playoff committee starting this fall.

Gladchuk has received the Bobby Dodd Athletic Director of the Year Award. This national award is presented in recognition of an athletic director's support and commitment toward the successful advancement of intercollegiate athletics. He has been recognized by the Secretary of the Navy for his contributions and service to the Navy and the Naval Academy with the Superior Public Service Award to the Department of the Navy. He was awarded the Commodore Perry Distinguished Citizens Award by the Navy League, has served as the President of the Division I Athletic Directors Association and is a member of the prestigious Division I FBS College Football Playoff Committee. Recently he was the finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year award.

Gladchuk has been able to parlay Navy's athletic success into a television partnership with CBS Sports Network that has increased Navy's television exposure both in the United States and internationally. CBS Sports Network, the first 24-hour college sports network, televises every Navy home and select neutral site football games (excluding Notre Dame and Army which are televised nationally by CBS), as well as other Midshipmen men's and women's athletic events, original programming and documentaries centered on the storied Navy athletic program. The long-term, multi-media agreement includes internet streaming, broadband and video-on-demand rights and high definition rights. A major part of the agreement was that all home football games would be played on Saturday for the convenience of the Navy alumni. Navy sports are seen all over the world with the international distribution of Navy programming, especially to the troops serving abroad. Navy's contract with CBS Sports Network runs through 2027. In addition, as a member of the American Athletic Conference for football, every road game is televised by major networks.

Gladchuk added radio giants WBAL (1090 AM) in Baltimore and WFED (1500 AM, 1050 AM, 820 AM) in Washington D.C./Northern Virginia to Navy's radio network. WBAL Radio, which is Maryland's dominant and most powerful radio station. WFED Radio, which is also the home of the Washington Nationals, is a 50,000-watt station that will air 10 regular-season football games.

Since being introduced as the Academy's 28th Director of Athletics on Sept. 4, 2001, Gladchuk has pressed forward on numerous fronts with high energy and ever expanding vision. From the hiring of some of the top coaches in the country to the renovation of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, Gladchuk has made improvements in many key areas that will prove success on the athletic fields for years to come.

Gladchuk's initial impact on the Naval Academy was the $80 million renovation of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Under his vision and leadership the stadium was completely refurbished over a three-phase time frame. Gladchuk worked closely with the city, county, state and neighborhood associations to ensure proper communication and sensitivity to issues that benefit both the NAAA and community at large. Gladchuk was awarded the Green Star award by the City of Annapolis for commitment to the environment and the neighborhood during the ongoing renovation of Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

Gladchuk and the NAAA have also teamed up with the Naval Academy Foundation to raise private funds for every physical mission facility, such as the new 25,000 sq. ft. Physical Mission Center in Ricketts Hall, Brigade Sports Complex (golf, tennis, hockey, rugby, etc.), Max Bishop Stadium (baseball), varsity squash courts, all team locker rooms and all practice facilities. more than $200 million non-appropriated dollars have been raised in support of capital projects in support of the physical mission and intercollegiate athletics. In addition, as a 501c3 non-profit business entity, under Gladchuk's leadership, the Naval Academy Athletic Association has externally generated essentially all annual operating funding to support 33 varsity sports programs, provide coaching and staffing salaries, maintenance expenditures for many major athletic facilities, and new initiatives as they are developed. During Gladchuk's tenure, over $800M has been externally generated with non-appropriated funding in support of the annual operation of intercollegiate athletics and the physical mission.

Other highlights during Gladchuk's tenure at the Naval Academy include the renegotiation of the Army-Navy contract which resulted in over $50 million to the two schools over an eight-year period, scheduling Maryland, Notre Dame, Ohio State and Army at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore to promote Navy football in the community, negotiating the extension of the Navy-Notre Dame and Army-Navy football game television contract with CBS and negotiating bowl deals with the Houston, Emerald, Poinsettia, Meineke Car Care, EagleBank, Texas, Armed Forces and Military Bowls.

Gladchuk is heavily involved with many NCAA, the American Athletic Conference and Patriot League committees. He was selected to serve on the NCAA Leadership Council, which is one of the highest NCAA appointments an athletic director can realize. The council helps set the Division I legislative agenda and advises the NCAA regarding major legislative issues being considered.

Gladchuk has been on the NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Athletic Directors) Executive Committee and served as the Chairman of the Executive Committee in the Patriot League and a member of the NCAA Olympic Sport Liaison Committee. Currently he remains President of the Naval Academy Golf Association and recently led a capital campaign to successfully complete a $10M renovation of the course.

Gladchuk came to the Naval Academy from the University of Houston, where he had been the Director of Athletics for four years and guided the Cougars to 19 Conference USA Championships, while making significant strides in the academic success of their student-athletes, gender equity and fiscal management.

Before Houston, Gladchuk was the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics, Intramurals and Recreation for seven years at his alma mater, Boston College. Under Gladchuk, Boston College emerged as one of the NCAA's elite programs of the 1990s winning numerous Big East and NCAA Championships. The school's graduation rate for all student-athletes was annually over 90 percent and the Eagles often won the College Football Association's Academic Achievement Award for the highest graduation rates among all Division I schools. Gladchuk led the Alumni Stadium expansion effort, which resulted in a $35 million improvement to the football stadium.

Prior to rejoining Boston College, Gladchuk served as AD at Tulane University from 1987-90. During his tenure, he directed the reinstatement of the Green Wave basketball program to Division I status. In addition, he oversaw the construction of new facilities for the athletics administration as well as baseball, track and field and tennis teams after a $25 million athletics campaign was successfully completed.

From 1985-87, he served as Associate AD at Syracuse University, heading operations, NCAA compliance, financial aid and facility operations.

Gladchuk lettered three years in football at Boston College and graduated with honors in business management in 1973. He earned a master's in sports administration from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst in 1974, where he began his career in intercollegiate athletics, including serving for seven years as Director of General Physical Education, Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for the university. He also has served as Director of Athletics and head football coach for the New Hampton (Prep) School in New Hampshire prior to leaving for UMass.

He and his wife, Kathy, have four children: John, a graduate of Loyola Marymount; Katie, a graduate of Boston College; Christie, a graduate of Trinity; and Julie, a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

FIRST-RATE FACULTY AND STAFF

The Naval Academy's philosophy of education stresses attention to individual students by highly qualified faculty members who are strongly committed to teaching. Classes are small, with an average size of fewer than 18 students and a student-faculty ratio of 8:1. All courses at the Naval Academy are taught and graded by faculty members, not by graduate assistants.

Our 600-member faculty is an integrated group of officers and civilians in nearly equal numbers. Officers bring fresh ideas and experiences from operational units and staffs of the Navy and Marine Corps. The academy's civilian faculty members give continuity to the educational program and form a core of professional scholarship and teaching experience. Working together closely, these military and civilian faculty members form one of the strongest and most dedicated teaching faculties of any college or university in the United States.

MAJORS

Students at the Naval Academy can select one of 25 different majors grouped into six different divisions: Division of Engineering and Weapons, Division of Mathematics and Science, Division of Humanities and Social Sciences, Division of Professional Development, Division of Leadership Education and Development, and the Division of Character Development and Training. In addition to graduating with a Bachelor's of Science, students can attain a minor in one of seven different languages: French, German, Spanish, Russian, Japanese, Arabic and Chinese.

Students who excel at the Naval Academy have many opportunities to challenge and advance themselves through several special programs -- Trident Scholars, Honors Programs, and Voluntary Graduate Education Program (VGEP).

ACADEMIC PROGRESS REPORT

Twenty-two of Navy's 24 NCAA sponsored varsity sports programs rank above the national average in their respective sport in the NCAA Academic Progress Report. Football's APR is a 988, while the national average is 964.

The Academic Progress Rate is a real-time measure of eligibility and retention of student-athletes competing on every Division I sports team. The APR awards two points each term to student-athletes who meet academic-eligibility standards and who remain with the institution. A team's APR is calculated by the total points earned by the team at a given time divided by the total points possible.

SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Sydney Fortson ('20) was named the 2019 Senior CLASS Award winner for women's soccer, becoming the third Navy student-athlete to win the award. The Senior CLASS Award was started in 2001 by Dick Enberg in response to the growing trend of men's basketball players leaving school early for the NBA. The award honors the attributes of senior student-athletes in four areas: classroom, community, character and competition. Evan Barnes of the men's soccer team ('08, 2007 winner) and Ricky Dobbs of the football team ('11, 2010 winner) have also won the award.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

In addition to furthering their education at schools across the country, students at the Naval Academy annually are in competition for several prestigious scholarships. Since Navy's first Rhodes Scholar, E. Van Meter ('28), a total of 54 Naval Academy graduates have received the Rhodes Scholarship, including 2022 graduate Sarah Skinner, team captain of the women's rugby team. Also, 32 Mids have earned George C. Marshall Scholarships – most recently Christian Hoffman ('20, offshore sailing). He was also a Stamps Scholar and a Trident Scholar.

Standout swimmer Kelly Zahalka ('09) was a recipient of both the Harry S. Truman and Gen. George C. Marshall Scholarships, which paved the way for her to study for two years in the United Kingdom. Katie Davidson ('13) of the women's swimming team and Ronald Allen ('13) of the sprint football team won Marshall Scholarships in 2013.

Former women's track and cross country runner Kayla Sax ('10) was awarded a Gates Cambridge Scholarship and contributed to research focused on alternative energy sources at the University of Cambridge. The now Kayla Barron was recently selected as an astronaut candidate by NASA. Additional Mids to earn the scholarship in recent years include Tom Paul ('12) and Eric Washkewicz ('13) from the lightweight rowing team and Megan Hough ('16) of the intercollegiate sailing team.

Catalina Rico ('19) of the women's tennis team was awarded the Draper Laboratory Fellowship

▲ Patricia Mattingly was a two-time Patriot League Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year (2017-18 & 2018-19).

▲ Joshua Hanna ('18) is one of 16 Mids to have earned an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship over the last 12 years.

▲ Stephen Born ('18) is (2016-2018) and was name and attended MIT to complete a Master's of Science in Mechanical Engineering.

Cadie Higginson ('20) of the women's soccer team was awarded the Beyer Scholarship and attended Oxford University to complete a Master's in Public Policy.

Evan Robertson ('22), a heavyweight rower, earned a Marshall Scholarship. Robertson plans to pursue a Master of Science in advanced mechanical engineering with aerospace at the University of Strathclyde in Glasgow, Scotland.

Will Jarrett ('22), a lightweight rower and the Class of 2022 Valedictorian received a Knight-Hennessy Scholarship. The Knight-Hennessy Scholars program provides full funding for students to pursue a graduate degree at Stanford University. Jarrett intends to pursue a master's degree in electrical engineering.

Victoria Tran ('22), a women's soccer player, will attend the University of St. Andrew's University in Scotland on the R&A Ransome and Saints Sports scholarships.

Navy has seen 16 of its student-athlete over the last 12 years earn an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, with Meghan Hegarty (soccer) and Joshua Hanna (track and field) earning the accolade during the 2017-18 academic year,

Navy football player E.K. Binns ('16) received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and was a finalist for the Academic Heisman in 2015.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Naval Academy student-athletes have totaled 152 CoSIDA Academic All-America certificates over the years, with 109 of those awards coming since Chet Gladchuk has been the Director of Athletics. This includes Meghan Hegarty, who was selected as the 2017 national Academic All-American of the Year for women's soccer.

PATRIOT LEAGUE SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

Navy had six Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year in 2021-22: Victoria Tran (women's soccer), Brett Brady (men's cross country), Jackson Schultz (men's swimming & diving), Sydney Harrington (women's swimming & diving), Sean Casey (men's indoor track & field) and Derrick Thompson (men's tennis).

In 2021, men's swimmer Micah Oh went on to be selected as the Patriot League Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year. He was the 16th Mid to earn the accolade – the most of any school in the league.

VALEDICTORIANS

Will Jarrett of the lightweight rowing team was the valedictorian for the Class of 2022. It marked the seventh year in a row, the 10th time in the last 12 years and the 17th time since 2000 that a varsity athlete graduated No. 1 in overall order of merit.

▼ Victoria Tran ('22) is attending St. Andrew's University in Scotland on the R&A Ransome and the Saints Sports scholarships.

▲ Football's Ricky Dobbs ('11) was named the 2010 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award winner for the Football Bowl Subdivision.

◄ Meghan Hegarty ('18), a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, was selected as the 2017 CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for women's soccer.

▼ Sydney Fortson ('20) was named the women's soccer 2019 Senior CLASS Award recipient.

▲ Will Jarrett was the valedictorian of the Class of 2022, marking the seventh-consecutive year a Navy student-athlete graduated No. 1 in the class.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The men and women of the United States Naval Academy have committed themselves to the service of our nation. During their four years in Annapolis, the Midshipmen demonstrate their willingness to give by taking part in several community service events.

From outreach opportunities such as autograph sessions following athletic events, to working with underprivileged youths, the student-athletes at Navy give back to the area they call home during their college years.

Due to COVID-19, the Mids were limited in what they could do over the last several years with community service. The following are a few examples of community service opportunities performed by Navy athletics over the last three years.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

In 2021-22, the team participated with the Light House Project with their Shoe Some Love Drive (shoe drive) and also spent the day cleaning up the outside of the shelter.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

In 2019-20, the team participated in the "Score for Schools" program, where the team goes to elementary/middle schools and gives motivational talks to the students at assemblies, instructed at basketball clinics at NSA Annapolis and was involved with the Back to School Backpacks Project, where the team adopted an underprivileged child in Annapolis and gave them a backpack with the school supplies they needed. Women's basketball was also involved in a "Pink Game" for breast cancer awareness, "We Back Pat Game" for Alzheimer's awareness and conducted a free basketball clinic at Halsey Field House.

WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

In 2021-22, members of the women's cross country team volunteered at two (Midshipman Action Group) MAG hosted events - Girls on the Run (or Girls on the Yard) and a Special Olympics Track & Field meet. The team also had a musical quartet of women's distance runner's who shared their talents at a nursing home through the Music for Seniors program.

FOOTBALL

In 2019-20, The football team adopted Devin, who was part of the Friends of Jacqueline program, and made him part of the team for the season as he attended practices and home games. Members of the football team, including head coach Ken Niumatalolo, visited the St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Memphis as part of the Liberty Bowl festivities.

In 2021-22, Diego Fagot and Kevin Brennan read to students at the Naval Academy Primary School.

SPRINT FOOTBALL

The sprint football team participated in several community events during the 2021-22 academic year.

The Travis Manion Foundation Heroes Run was hosted by the Travis Manion Foundation which honors Marine 1st Lt Travis Manion, a Naval Academy graduate who was killed by a sniper in Iraq while saving his wounded teammates in 2007. This 5K event served to unite the community in remembering the sacrifices of the heroes of the September 11th attacks and in the wars since. The run through Annapolis commemorated the 20th anniversary of Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. The event also served to honor the 14 U.S. Naval Academy graduates who died that day.

Trunk or Treat: The team joined the families of Weems Creek Baptist Church to support Halloween activities and events in support of the local event. During the event, the players assisted with handing out prizes, signing autographs and hosting a few football skill events.

Annapolis High School 5K: The team joined the One Love Foundation 5k at Annapolis High School in support of healthy domestic relationships. Some of the players participated in the run and others helped with supporting the logistics of the event to include providing water at refuel stations, set up, break down, and photo support.

Operation Legacy: Following the volunteer event at Annapolis High School, the Navy Sprint Football Team joined The Spartans of Travis Manion Foundation, the Woody Williams Foundation, and volunteers to continue the work for the Gold Star Families Memorial Monument Caretaker Program. This year, the project honored the life and legacy of Captain Ford Shaw III. The players assisted in landscape restoration as well as planting new trees at the memorial.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE

In 2021-22, members of the team surprised Lawrence E. Boone Elementary School in Washington D.C, with holiday gifts they collected and wrapped especially for kindergarteners. The team also hosted a free clinic after a game this past spring. Over 50 kids grades 1-8 attended the clinic and many found a new or increased love for the game..

WOMEN'S SOCCER

In 2021-22, the women's soccer team participated in Athletes for Hope FIT, which connects schools around the country with young athletes to teach kids the importance of physical fitness and character-building traits. The team had multiple groups do monthly virtual workshops with classrooms all over the country. The team was also involved with the Special Olympics, Girls on the Run clinic, signed autographs at women's basketball games and volunteered at the Travis Manion run. Two athletes participated in the Athletes for Hope Sports Philanthropy Certificate Program.

MEN'S TENNIS

In 2019-20, the team participated in a Honors Flight welcoming World War II veterans to Baltimore before they make their way to view the memorials in Washington D.C.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

In 2019-20, the team worked with Frontline Outreach Sportcenter during its spring break trip to Florida. Serving over 1,000 families annually, Frontline Outreach Youth and Family Center is one of Central Florida's oldest established Christian-based safe havens located in the heart of Orlando's west side for over 50 years. Frontline Outreach Youth and Family Center, Inc. is a year-round, faith-based community center offering cradle-to-career programs. Their mission is to provide youth with a variety of holistic learning opportunities that creatively integrate sports and education with mentorship and character education. The team did a variety of tennis drills and ran a clinic with kids for several hours.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD

In 2019-20, Track and field team members operated water stations for the Annapolis 10-miler at Gate 8 and Ferry Farms Road. The track and field athletes that traveled to San Diego, Calif. for spring training conducted a run, jump, and throw clinic at Heritage Elementary School in Chula Vista for approximately 450 elementary-aged kids.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

In 2021-22, the team and coaching staff hosted a group of local youth from Stanton Center Teenage Club for a post match "get to know you."

WRESTLING

In 2021-22, the wrestling team was critical to the set-up and operation of the Manion Foundation 9/11 run at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The annual event draws 2,000+ runners and the proceeds go to support local fire, police and other first responding heroes in our community.

ANNAPOLIS AND THE CHESAPEAKE REGION

The Naval Academy is located in historic Annapolis, the capital of Maryland. In 1650, Puritans seeking religious freedom nestled into a spot on the western shore of the Chesapeake Bay and called their new town Providence. Settlers soon spread across the Severn River to the land that now makes up Maryland's capital city. The small settlement grew and was renamed Anne Arundell in 1694 in honor of Lord Baltimore's wife.

Governor Francis Nicholson chose the growing town on the Severn as the new provincial capital because of its central location. He rechristened it Annapolis in 1695 in honor of King James II's daughter, Princess Anne, who became Queen of England in 1702. Annapolis was granted a royal charter as a city in 1708.

Annapolis became the nation's first peacetime capital in 1783. From November 1783 to August 1784, the Continental Congress met in the Maryland State House. It was here that they accepted George Washington's resignation as commander-in-chief of the Continental Army and ratified the Treaty of Paris, ending the Revolutionary War. The Maryland State House is the oldest in continuous legislative use in the country. It is also the first and only State House to serve as the nation's capitol.

The colonial heritage of Annapolis is still evident as the city boasts more brick buildings from the 1700s than any other city in the country.

The heart of downtown Annapolis has also been designated a National Historic District and a National Historic Treasure. Many fine examples of colonial architecture, including the Maryland State House, Hammond-Harwood House, Chase-Lloyd House and the William Paca House and Gardens, are open to visitors.

In August, 2009, Annapolis was named a Top 10 finalist for the International Award for Livable Communities, a competition focused on creating livable communities through sound environmental practices.

Annapolis is located on the western shore of the Chesapeake Bay, the largest estuary in the United States. The Chesapeake provides natural environs, sightseeing, sailing, fishing, kayaking and more, helping Annapolis become America's Sailing Capital. The water-lover will also revel in the fact that Maryland has nearly 4,000 miles of shoreline – more than any other state.

Within 30 minutes of Annapolis lies both Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, providing entertainment and sightseeing opportunities for residents and tourists alike.

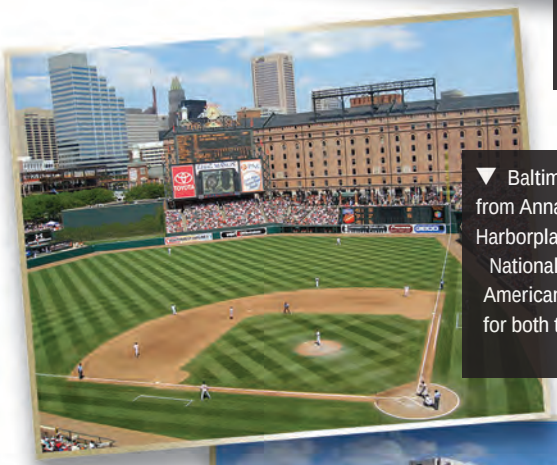
▶ The State of Maryland voted in 1788 to cede land to form the District of Columbia, which soon became our nation's capital. Washington, D.C., is located 30 minutes west of Annapolis.

◤ During the War of 1812, Francis Scott Key witnessed the bombardment of Fort McHenry in Baltimore and was inspired to pen the words to a poem entitled "The Star-Spangled Banner," which eventually became the national anthem.

▼ Pimlico Race Course, home of the Preakness Stakes, is located in Baltimore. The horse industry contributes $1.5 billion annually to the state's economy. There are over 20,000 horse farms located in Maryland.



▼ Baltimore's Inner Harbor is just 30 minutes from Annapolis. The City of Baltimore features Harborplace, the Maryland Science Center, the National Aquarium, B&O Railroad Museum, American Visionary Art Museum, and homes for both the MLB's Baltimore Orioles and the NFL's Baltimore Ravens.

MIDSHIPMEN IN PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

The Naval Academy has produced several significant NFL players, including Hall of Fame quarterback Roger Staubach of the Dallas Cowboys, Raiders running back Napoleon McCallum and New York Giants wide receiver Phil McConkey. In 2017, record-setting quarterback Keenan Reynolds was drafted in the sixth round by the Baltimore Ravens.

NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Every time one of our Midshipmen student-athletes dons the Navy Blue and Gold, he or she represents the Brigade of Midshipmen, United States Naval Academy, United States Navy & Marine Corps, and the United States of America.

The Navy football program has had 195-consecutive games televised by either CBS, NBC, ABC, CBS Sports Network, Fox Sports Network, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPNEWS or ESPN+.

Whether it is CBS, CBS Sports Network, Showtime, ESPN, the Washington Post or the Annapolis Capital/Baltimore Sun, the varsity athletic programs at the United States Naval Academy are given the platform to tell the much bigger story of our United States Navy & Marine Corps.

In 2011, Showtime produced a documentary chronicling the annual Army-Navy Game, and in 2017 the network followed the Navy program for 13 episodes of "A Season with Navy Football." Navy was the third college football program featured in the Showtime series, following Notre Dame in 2015 and Florida State in 2016.

The Navy Sports Information Office has been named one of the Top 11 SID office's in the country by the Football Writers Association of America a total of five times including three times in the last four years.

The national exposure given to our athletic programs is invaluable to our overall mission and with the move of the football program to the AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE, it has increased substantially.

SEASON OUTLOOK

MIDS END 2021 ON HIGH NOTE

- Navy defeated Army 17-13 in the season finale in front of 82,282 fans at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. It was the second time in the last three years and the 16th time in the last 20 years Navy has defeated Army.
- The 82,282 in attendance was the largest crowd for a college football game at MetLife Stadium and the largest for an Army-Navy game since 1974 when 83,246 fans witnessed Navy's 19-0 win over Army at John F. Kennedy Stadium in Philadelphia.
- Navy leads the all-time series against Army 62-53-7 and is 4-1 against the Black Knights in games played at the Meadowlands Complex. Navy has won the last three games played in New Jersey by a combined score of 114-32 (58-12 in 2002, 39-7 in 1997 and 17-13 in 2021).
- The win over Army gave Navy a share of the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy as Navy beat Army, Army beat Air Force and Air Force beat Navy. It's the first time the three schools all went 1-1 against one another since 1993.
- With 10 wins, Navy's Ken Niumatalolo is the winningest coach in the history of the Army-Navy game. College Football Hall of Famer and former Army coach Col. Earl "Red" Blaik is second with eight.
- Navy's 12 opponents in 2021 finished the year with a combined 94-48 (.662) record, which was the third-toughest schedule in the country based on opponent winning percentage (did not include games against Navy).
- The ELO strength of schedule rankings by WarrenNolan.com had Navy's schedule rated as the eighth toughest in the country last year.
- The Mids faced three teams ranked in the final Associated Press Top 25 in 2021 - Cincinnati (#4), Notre Dame (#8) and Houston (#17).
- Eleven of Navy's 12 opponents in 2021 played in bowl games, which was the most in the country. Among those 11 opponents was American Athletic Conference foe Cincinnati, who played Alabama in the College Football Playoffs. No team played the Bearcats closer in the regular season than Navy, who lost to Cincinnati 27-20 on Oct. 23 in Annapolis.
- Niumatalolo is the eighth-longest tenured coach in the FBS.
- Navy fielded one of its youngest teams in recent memory in 2021. The Mids had 2 freshmen and 11 sophomores on the offensive depth chart and 8 freshmen and 8 sophomores on the defensive depth chart (10 freshmen and 19 sophomores combined). Those numbers do not include a sophomore kickoff specialist, a freshman long snapper, a freshman punter and a freshman kickoff return specialist. Navy started 9 freshmen on the kickoff return team.
- Due to injuries, Navy put together 9 different starting combinations along the offensive line in its 12 games last year and started 5 different tackles, 5 different guards and 3 centers.

THREE RETURNING PLAYERS NAMED ALL-EAST

- The Navy football program had 5 players named All-East by the East Coast Athletic Conference, including 3 that are returning this year.
- Offensive tackle Kip Frankland, kicker Bijan Nichols and kick returner Maquel Haywood were all honored by the organization. Linebacker Diego Fagot and center Pierce Banbury were also named to the team.
- Frankland was the only Navy offensive lineman to start all 12 games last year for an offensive line that was forced to start 9 different combinations, including 5 different tackles, 5 different guards and 3 different centers. Banbury started 5 games at center for the Mids and 5 at right guard. The Mids faced 7 of the top-30 defensive units in the country according to Pro Football Focus.
- Nichols went 15-19 on field goals (2 of his misses were blocked and his other 2 misses were from 53 and 55 yards out) and 28-28 on PATs. He tied his career long with a 50-yard field goal against SMU.
- Haywood averaged 31.0 yards per kickoff return, which is the third-best average in school history and it's even more impressive by the fact Navy had 9 freshmen on the kickoff return team. He returned an East Carolina kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, which tied Reggie Campbell (2007 vs. Army) for the longest kickoff return in school history. Pro Football Focus, which grades every player nationwide, ranked Haywood as the eight-best kick returner in the country with a minimum of 10 returns.

NICHOLS NAMED SECOND-TEAM ALL-AAC

- Kicker Bijan Nichols was named Second-Team All-American Athletic Conference by the head coaches in the conference a year ago.
- Nichols made 15 of his 19 field goal attempts and all 28 of his PATs last fall. Of his 4 missed field goals, 2 were blocked and the other two were from 53 and 55 yards.
- Nichols has made the fourth-most extra points (105) in school history, while his 33-career field goals rank second in school annals. His 204-career points are the second most in program history by a kicker and just 18 points shy of record holder Bennett Moehring.

700 CLUB

- With its 66-31 victory over East Carolina on Nov. 19, 2016, Navy became the 24th school in the FBS and the first Service Academy to reach 700 wins.
- Navy has put together a 729-585-57 (.553) record over 141 seasons, which is tied with Arkansas for the 23rd-most wins in FBS history. Navy is one behind Syracuse for 22nd.

YOUTH IS SERVED

- In 2021, Navy fielded one of its youngest teams in recent memory. The Mids had 2 freshmen and 11 sophomores on the offensive depth chart and 8 freshmen and 8 sophomores on the defensive depth chart (10 freshmen and 19 sophomores combined).
- Those numbers did not include a sophomore kickoff specialist, a freshman long snapper, a freshman punter and a freshman kickoff return specialist. Navy started 9 freshmen on the kickoff return team.
- As a reminder, Navy is not allowed to redshirt, so those are all true freshmen and sophomores.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS

- 22 Navy players earned their first-collegiate start in 2021.
- Navy had at least one player make their first-career start in 10 of its 12 games.

GET 6

- Since his arrival in 2019, defensive coordinator Brian Newberry has challenged his defense to "Get 6" in every game.
- What does Get 6 mean? It's a combined total of 6 three-and-outs, fourth down stops and turnovers.
- If that turnover is returned for a score, it counts as an extra point towards the goal of six.
- Newberry believes that if his defense can accomplish the challenge, the Mids will have a great chance to win.
- In his three years with the Mids, Navy is 12-2 (.858) when they "Get 6" (8-0 in 2019 / 2-0 in 2020 / 2-2 in 2021).

MAQUEL HAYWOOD TO THE HOUSE

- Maquel Haywood returned an East Carolina kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown in Navy's 38-35 loss to the Pirates.
- The 98-yard return tied Reggie Campbell's mark (2007 vs. Army) for the longest kickoff return in school history.
- It was the first kickoff returned for a touchdown by Navy since the 2012 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl when Gee Gee Greene returned a kickoff 95 yards for a TD against Arizona State.
- Haywood averaged 31.0 yards per kickoff return on 12 returns, which is the third-best average in school history.
- Haywood was one of 9 freshmen on the kickoff return team last year, joining corner Mbiti Williams Jr., linebacker Jianni Woodson-Brooks, raider Jordan Sanders, linebacker Kyle Jacob, linebacker Colin Ramos, defensive end Justin Reed, linebacker Marcus Bleazard and slot back Amin Hassan.
- The only non-freshmen on the kickoff return team last year were sophomore linebacker Chaisen Buckner and sophomore wide receiver Camari Williams.
- Pro Football Focus, which grades every player nationwide, had Haywood ranked as the seventh-best kick returner in the country with a minimum of 10 returns. Four of the top-8 kickoff returners in the country were in the AAC per PFF.

KEN NIUMATALOLO

HEAD COACH

25th Year at Navy | 15th Season as Head Coach

Ken Niumatalolo enters his 15th season as the head coach at the Naval Academy and his 25th season in Annapolis overall.

Navy has had 10 winning seasons and played in 10 bowl games in Niumatalolo's first 14 years, making it one of the greatest eras in school history.

Niumatalolo has repeatedly guided the Midshipmen to success both on and off the gridiron. Included in his accomplishments are a number of milestones never before achieved by a coach or team in the program's 141-year history.

Niumatalolo (105-75, .583) is the program's all-time winningest coach and is the only coach in the history of the Army-Navy Game to start his coaching career 8-0 against the other Academy. Niumatalolo's 10 wins against Army are the most in the history of the Army-Navy Game. Navy has beaten Army in two of the last three years and 16 of the last 20 years.

Off the field, Navy football has produced 10 Academic All-Americans in his 14 seasons. Navy had 11 Academic All-Americans in the previous 56 years.

Navy faced one of the toughest, if not the toughest, schedules in school history in 2021. Navy's 12 opponents finished with a combined 94-48 record, which made it the third-toughest schedule in the country based on opponent winning percentage. Despite the tough schedule and young team, the Mids finished strong, winning their final two contests and three of their final five.

Niumatalolo led Navy to one of the greatest seasons in school history in 2019, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

Navy finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

Niumatalolo also led Navy to a school-record 11 wins in 2015, which included sharing the West Division title with Houston in Navy's first year in the American Athletic Conference, as well as winning the Lambert Trophy, awarded to the best team in the East, for the first time since 1963.

He led Navy to its first outright division title in 2016 as the Mids went 7-1 in the AAC and won the West division.

Niumatalolo is the first coach in school history to win four-consecutive bowl games and his six overall bowl wins are the most in school history.

He has led Navy to six Commander-In-Chief's Trophies, which is the most in school history.

Niumatalolo was one of just four coaches to be named a finalist for the Dodd Trophy and the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach Of The Year Award in 2015 and was a finalist for the Bryant Award again in 2019. He was a Dodd Trophy finalist again in 2016 and was also the AFCA Region 1 Coach of the Year in 2016. In 2019, he won the Stallings Award which is presented annually to a college football head coach who is both a humanitarian and an exceptional head coach.

He has been named American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year three times (2015, 2016, 2019) and the ECAC Coach of the Year twice (2015 and 2019).

In 2013, Niumatalolo was selected to the inaugural class of the Polynesian Football Hall of Fame.

He is just the second coach since World War II to lead Navy to a winning record in each of his first three seasons at the helm and joins Eddie Erdelatz and Wayne Hardin as the only Navy coaches to beat Notre Dame in consecutive seasons. He beat Notre Dame for a third time in 2016 to tie Hardin as the only Navy coaches to beat Notre Dame three times.

Since joining the American Athletic Conference in 2015, the Mids have compiled a conference record of 33-22, which is the fifth best record over that time period in the conference.

Navy finished the 2017 campaign with a 7-6 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference, which included a 49-7 rout of Virginia in the Military Bowl. The 42-point margin of victory was the largest by a Navy team over a team from the autonomy 5 since the Mids beat West Virginia 51-7 in the 1963 season opener. The Mids played eight games against teams that went to a bowl game and played five teams that won 10 or more games.

Navy compiled a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference in 2016 despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The Mids played Temple in the AAC Championship Game and played in a bowl game (Armed Forces) for the 13th time in the last 14 years. The nine wins tied for the fifth most in school history and the team set school records for points (531), touchdowns (73), touchdowns per game (5.2), rushing touchdowns (61), total offense (6,136 yards) and yards per play (6.8) despite playing four different quarterbacks.

In 2015, Navy won a school-record 11 wins against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game (beat Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the

COACHING STAFF

West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

In 2014, Navy was 8-5, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game (beat San Diego State 17-16 in the Poinsettia Bowl), and defeated Army for a series-record 13th consecutive year.

Navy finished the 2013 season with a 9-4 record, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the ninth time in the last 11 years, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game for just the eighth time in school history (beat Middle Tennessee 24-6 in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl) and defeated Army for a series-record 12th consecutive year.

Niumatalolo led Navy to an 8-5 record in 2012 and a berth in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl, which was Navy's ninth bowl game in the last 10 years. Navy defeated Air Force 28-21 in overtime and Army 17-13 to give the Mids the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

Navy was 5-7 in 2011 that included a series record 10th-straight victory over Army. The Mids played seven teams that finished with a winning record and six that went to bowl games.

The Mids posted an impressive 9-4 record in 2010, defeated Army for a series record ninth-consecutive time, defeated Notre Dame in consecutive seasons for only the third time in school history and appeared in a school-record eighth consecutive bowl game.

The 2009 season was one to remember for the Midshipmen, as Navy tied a school record for wins with 10, won a school-record seventh consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appeared in a seventh consecutive bowl game, beat Notre Dame in South Bend for the second straight time and ran their winning streak against the other two Service Academies to an amazing 15 straight games. The Mids capped the season off with a 35-13 rout of Missouri in the Texas Bowl.

In 2008, Niumatalolo became the first coach to lead Navy to a bowl game in his inaugural season and, thanks to a 33-27 victory over Air Force and a 34-0 win over Army, he became just the second Service Academy coach to win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy in his first year. Niumatalolo led the Midshipmen to an 8-5 record, the most wins for a first-year coach at Navy since 1934. Included in those eight wins was a 24-17 victory over 16th-ranked Wake Forest, which was Navy's first win over a team ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 since 1985. Navy also beat teams currently in the BCS in back-to-back weeks (Rutgers and Wake Forest) for the first time since 1981 and defeated a program-record four bowl teams.

Niumatalolo was promoted to head football coach at the Naval Academy on Dec. 8, 2007, by Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk.

He is the second Polynesian head coach in Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) history and the first Samoan collegiate head coach on any level.

Prior to being named head coach, Niumatalolo had two coaching stints at the Naval Academy for a combined 10 seasons, including the last six where he served as assistant head coach and offensive line coach.

Niumatalolo and the majority of his coaching staff have been part of a staff that has brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 130-77 (.628) record over the last 16 years, that includes 14 bowl games, 10 Commander-In-Chief's Trophies and a 13-3 mark against Army.

During that time, Navy made a school-record eight-consecutive bowl game appearances, won seven-consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophies, earned 15-consecutive wins over the other two Service Academies and claimed an NCAA-record four-consecutive NCAA rushing titles.

In 2007, with Niumatalolo as the Assistant Head Coach, he saw the Mids post an 8-5 record, win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appear in a fifth-straight bowl game (Poinsettia Bowl, which was Niumatalolo's first game as a head coach), set a school record for rushing (348.8 yards per contest) and defeat Notre Dame for the first time since 1963.

In 2006, Navy averaged a then school-record 327.0 yards per contest, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and participated in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

In 2005, Niumatalolo helped develop an offensive line that, despite having just one returning starter, paved the way for the nation's best rushing offense (318.7 yards per contest), went to a bowl game for a third-straight year, won a second-straight bowl game and won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

In 2004, Niumatalolo's efforts helped an offensive line that was hampered by injuries all year to perform well enough for the Midshipmen to finish third in the country in rushing (289.5), win a school-record tying 10 games (the most wins since 1905), go to back-to-back bowl games for the second time in school history, win the Emerald Bowl and win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

Despite a lack of experience up front, the Mids led the nation in rushing (323.2 yards per contest) in 2003 and set seven school records as Navy went 8-5, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and earned a berth in the Houston Bowl.

In 2002, the Navy offensive line helped the Mids to the third-best rushing average in the country (270.75).

Niumatalolo was also an assistant at Navy from 1995-98, serving as the offensive coordinator in 1997 and 1998. As the offensive coordinator, Niumatalolo tutored Chris McCoy, who set the then-NCAA record for most rushing touchdowns by a quarterback in a season with 20 in 1997 and became just the 10th player in NCAA history to rush for more than 1,000 yards and pass for more than 1,000 yards in the same season. In addition, Navy finished among the nation's top five in rushing his last-two years and broke 38 school offensive records during his tenure.

Niumatalolo coached at UNLV for three seasons (1999-01) and called the plays his final year (2001) in Vegas.

A 1989 graduate of Hawai'i, Niumatalolo lettered three years as a quarterback and was a part of Hawaii's first bowl team in 1989. He was hired as a fulltime assistant by his alma mater in 1992 and spent three seasons coaching on the offensive side of the ball.

A native of La'ie, Hawai'i, Niumatalolo and his wife, Barbara, have three children, Alexcia, Va'a and Ali'i and four granddaughters, Aussie Keanani, Rosie Momi, Jada Keala and Barbara Lilia.

BRIAN NEWBERRY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
Fourth Season at Navy

Brian Newberry is entering his fourth season as the defensive coordinator at the Naval Academy.

In 2021, despite playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, the Navy defense acquitted itself well by finishing 32nd in the nation in rushing defense (130.4 yards per game), 51st in passing defense (218.2 yards per game), 34th in total defense (348.6 yards per game) and 34th in red zone defense (.778). Linebacker Diego Fagot was named a Fourth-Team All-American by Phil Steele, First-Team All-American Athletic Conference and All-East. Fagot was also named MVP of the East-West Shrine All-Star Game.

In 2020, after a slow start, the defense finished the year with a flurry, holding Memphis (205 yards), Tulsa (296) and Army (162) to under 300 yards of total offense. It was the first time a Navy defense had achieved that feat since 1997 when the Mids did it seven-consecutive games.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' turnaround of eight games from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Poll. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that turnaround was the massive improvement Navy showed on the defensive side of the football as the Mids improved in every major category.

Navy finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in third down defense (121st in 2018), 10th in rushing defense (90th in 2018), 39th in passing defense (75th in 2018), 16th in total defense (86th in 2018), 34th in scoring defense (103rd in 2018), 68th in pass efficiency defense (117th in 2018), 55th in sacks (129th in 2018) and 53rd in tackles for a loss (129th in 2018).

Newberry, a semifinalist for the Broyles Award, which is an annual honor given to the best assistant coach in college football, and his defensive staff installed a "Get 6" culture within the Navy defense that really took off. Newberry told the defensive players if they got a combination of six three-and-outs, fourth down stops, turnovers and defensive touchdowns in a game, the Mids would win. In 2019, the Mids were 8-0 when they managed to "Get 6."

The Mids finished 10th in the nation against the run, giving up just 105.8 yards per game, despite facing the #2, #3 and #11 rushing offense's in the country. The Mids got the opposing offense off the field in three plays or less in 36% of its drives, which was the 10th-best average in the country. The Navy defense gave up just 15.2 first downs per game, which was tied for third best in the country.

Safeties Evan Fochtman and Kevin Brennan were named First-Team All-East.

Newberry was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Kennesaw State from 2015-18, leading the Owls to the FCS quarterfinals in each of the last two seasons. He runs a multiple defense with 4-2-5 and 3-4 principles.

Kennesaw State ranked first in the FCS in fewest first downs allowed per game (13.5) and second in total defense (263.7 yards per game) in 2018. The Owls finished seventh in scoring defense, giving up an average of 15.4 points per game. The Owls also ranked 11th nationally in third down conversion defense.

In 2017, Kennesaw State ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (15.5 points per game) and third in turnovers gained (35). The Owls picked off 24 passes, which ranked second nationally, and led the Big South in rushing defense (102.1 yards per game), pass defensive efficiency (117.0) and red zone defense (76.9 percent), while standing second in sacks (31).

The Kennesaw defense forced an incredible 56 turnovers over the last two years, including 37 interceptions.

Individually, Newberry helped develop 2017 All-American Bryson Armstrong.

Winner of the prestigious Jerry Rice Award (National Freshman of the Year), Armstrong captained an airtight defense in 2017, finishing first in the nation in fumbles recovered (four), while leading the Big South in sacks (11 solo). He finished second in the conference in tackles (114) and third in tackles for loss (12.5).

Newberry joined the Kennesaw State coaching staff after spending the 2012 season as defensive coordinator at Division II Northern Michigan.

Prior to his one season at Northern Michigan, Newberry served as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tenn., in 2011 where the Tigers improved their scoring defense by 16 points per game and total defense by 85 yards a contest.

Newberry's coaching experience also includes four seasons (2007-10) as defensive backs coach at Elon and five years (2004-06, 2001 and 2002) as defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach at Washington & Lee. He also served as a graduate assistant/defensive line coach at Rice during the spring of 2004, spent one season as an assistant defensive backs coach at Lehigh in 2003 and began his coaching career at Southern Arkansas where he was a graduate assistant coaching the defensive backs and wide receivers in 1999 and 2000.

While defensive backs coach at Elon, Newberry mentored five players who earned All-Southern Conference honors and in 2009, the Phoenix defense ranked fifth nationally in total defense.

In 2004, Newberry's Washington & Lee defense produced a school-record 43 sacks and ranked among the Division III leaders in rushing defense. The Generals' defense led the Old Dominion Athletic Conference in pass defense, rush defense and scoring defense in 2005 and in 2006, Washington & Lee forced 30 turnovers and ranked among the nation's leaders in pass defense.

Newberry played collegiately at Baylor and graduated in 1998 with a bachelor's of science degree in education. He helped lead the Bears to the Southwest Conference co-championship and an appearance in the 1994 Alamo Bowl and to a No. 5 national ranking in total defense in 1995.

Newberry and his wife, Kate, are the parents of a son, Max, and a daughter, Lyla.

ASHLEY INGRAM

RUNNING GAME COORDINATOR
Offensive Line | 15th Season at Navy

Ashley Ingram is in his 15th year at the Naval Academy coaching the centers and guards and his 10th as the running game coordinator.

Navy has compiled an 105-74 (.587) record during Ingram's tenure, beating Army 10 times, earning 10 bowl bids, winning six bowl games, winning six Commander-In-Chief's Trophies and beating Notre Dame three times. Ingram is also regarded as Navy's top recruiter.

In 2021, Navy managed to have the ninth best rushing offense in the country (225.5 yards per game) despite facing six of the top-35 defenses in the country, including three of the top 10. On top of the tough schedule, Navy had to start five different offensive tackles, five different guards and three different centers due to injury. Senior center Pierce Banbury was named All-East.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that success was a Navy offense that set school records for total rushing yards (4,687), rushing yards per attempt (6.1), rushing yards per game (360.5), total offense yards per game (455.8) and tied the record for total offensive yards per attempt (6.8). The Mids also led the nation in rushing thanks to an offensive line that will go down as one of the best in school history.

The Mids were also prolific in the passing game, finishing second in the country in average yards per catch (22.51) and seventh in passing efficiency (176.92).

Senior guard David Forney was named First-Team All-American Athletic Conference, while junior offensive tackle Billy Honaker was named Honorable Mention. Forney and senior center Ford Higgins were named First-Team All-East.

Navy finished the 2017 campaign with a 7-6 record, which included a 49-7 rout of Virginia in the Military Bowl. The 42-point margin of victory was the largest by a Navy team over a team from the autonomy 5 since the Mids beat West Virginia 51-7 in the 1963 season opener. The Mids played eight games against teams that went to a bowl game and played five teams that won 10 or more games. The offense set a school record by averaging 351.4 yards per game.

Navy finished the 2016 campaign with a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The Mids played Temple in the AAC Championship Game and played in a bowl game (Armed Forces) for the 13th time in the last 14 years. The nine wins tied for the fifth most in school history and the team set school records for points (531), touchdowns (73), touchdowns per game (5.2), rushing touchdowns (61), total offense (6,136 yards) and yards per play (6.8) despite playing four different quarterbacks.

Senior offensive guard Adam West was Navy's lone selection on the All-AAC First Team, while senior center Maurice Morris was named to the second team. West was named to the First-Team All-East squad, while Morris and junior guard Evan Martin were named Second Team All-East.

In 2015, Navy won a school-record 11 wins against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game for the 12th time in the last 13 years, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

Offensive guard E.K. Binns was named a 2015 CoSIDA Second Team Academic All-American and was a finalist for the National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete of the Year award. Binns was named First-Team All-American Athletic Conference and First-Team All-East.

Navy finished the 2014 campaign with an 8-5 record, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game (beat San Diego State 17-16 in the Poinsettia Bowl), won a bowl game in back-to-back years for the second time in school history and defeated Army for a series-record 13th consecutive year.

Navy finished the 2013 campaign with a 9-4 record, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the ninth time in the last 11 years, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game (beat Middle Tennessee 24-6 in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl) and defeated Army for a series-record 12th consecutive year.

Guards Jake Zuzek and E.K. Binns were named to the All-Independent and All-East team, while Binns was named Capital One Academic All-District.

Ingram helped lead Navy to an 8-5 record in 2012 and a berth in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Navy defeated Air Force 28-21 in overtime and Army 17-13 to win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

In 2011, guard John Dowd was named a First-Team Academic All-American for the second-consecutive year making him the first Two-Time First-Team Academic All-American in school history.

The Mids posted an impressive 9-4 record in 2010, defeated Army, defeated Notre Dame in consecutive seasons for only the third time in school history and appeared in a bowl game for the eighth-straight year.

The 2009 season was one to remember, as the Mids tied a school record for wins with 10, won a school-record seventh-consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appeared in a school-record seventh-consecutive bowl game and ran their winning streak against the other two Service Academies to an amazing 15-straight games. The Mids capped the season off with a 35-13 rout of Missouri in the Texas Bowl.

The Mids posted an 8-5 record in 2008 and participated in the EagleBank Bowl. The Mids won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy thanks to a 33-27 victory over Air Force and a 34-0 win over Army.

Ingram came to Navy from Bucknell, where he served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for two seasons.

In Ingram's first year as offensive coordinator at Bucknell in 2006, the Bison went from one win the previous year to six and ranked fifth in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 235.2 yards per game, and reduced their turnover total from 33 the previous season to 14.

Prior to Bucknell, Ingram was at Rhode Island where the Rams led the Atlantic 10 in rushing five of his six seasons and finished second in the nation in rushing yards in 2003..

A native of Iron City, Ga., and a 1996 graduate of the University of North Alabama, Ingram was a four-year letterman on the offensive line and helped his team win Division II national titles in 1993, 1994 and 1995. He entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant, first at North Alabama in 1997, then at Temple University in the spring. After spending a year at NorthCobb High School in Kennesaw, Ga., in 1998, he became the offensive line coach at the University of West Alabama in 1999, then at Rhode Island in 2000.

Ingram and his wife, Jenifer, are the parents of a daughter, Laura, and two boys, James and William.

DANNY O'ROURKE

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
Offensive Line | 21st Season at Navy

Danny O'Rourke is entering his 21st season at Navy and his fifth coaching the offensive line with a focus on the tackles. O'Rourke has also coached the secondary (four seasons), wide receivers (three seasons), inside linebackers (two seasons) and slot backs (seven seasons). Additionally, he is in his sixth year as the special teams coordinator.

O'Rourke has been an integral part of a staff that has brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 148-94 (.612) record over the last 19 years, that includes 15 bowl games, 11 Commander-In-Chief's Trophies and a 15-4 mark against Army.

Navy has won at least nine games eight times in the last 19 years. Before the current streak, Navy had won nine or more games just five times in the previous 77 seasons.

In 2021, Navy managed to have the ninth best rushing offense in the country (225.5 yards per game) despite facing six of the top-35 defenses in the country, including three of the top 10. On top of the tough schedule, Navy had to start five different offensive tackles, five different guards and three different centers due to injury. Offensive tackle Kip Frankland was named All-East.

The 2007 season was one to remember as well as the Midshipmen posted an 8-5 record, won a school-record fifth-consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appeared in a school-record fifth-straight bowl game, and defeated Notre Dame for the first time since 1963.

In 2005, O'Rourke helped tutor a young secondary that continued to improve throughout the year as Navy finished 8-4, won a school-record second-straight bowl game and won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

In 2004, O'Rourke's efforts helped Navy win a school-record tying 10 games (the most wins since 1905), win the Emerald Bowl and capture the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

In 2003, O'Rourke was part of a defensive staff that saw great improvement on the defensive side of the football as the Mids posted an 8-5 record, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and played in the Houston Bowl.

O'Rourke came to Navy from Valdosta State where he was the secondary coach for one year. Prior to his coaching stint at Valdosta, he coached the safeties at Georgia Southern in 2000 and helped the Eagles to a I-AA National Championship.

A native of Snellville, Ga., O'Rourke was a three-year letter winner at West Georgia and helped lead the team to back-to-back league titles his junior and senior years.

He was also an academic all-conference performer throughout his collegiate career.

O'Rourke received his master's degree in education administration from Temple in 2002.

He and his wife, Michelle, have two daughters, Kaeli and Lainey, and a son, Sean.

JOE CONIGLIO

ASSISTANT COACH

Strikers/Raiders | Second Season at Navy

Coniglio is in his second year at the Naval Academy and his first coaching the strikers and raiders. Coniglio served as a defensive assistant last year.

In 2021, despite playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, the Navy defense acquitted itself well by finishing 32nd in the nation in rushing defense (130.4 yards per game), 51st in passing defense (218.2 yards per game), 34th in total defense (348.6 yards per game) and 34th in red zone defense (.778).

Coniglio came to Navy from Kent State, where he was the outside linebackers and defensive recruiting coordinator since 2019.

Coniglio helped lead the Golden Flashes to their first bowl win in school history with a 51-41 victory in the 2019 Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl.

In 2020, Kent State finished 3-1 in a COVID-shortened season.

Coniglio spent three seasons at Kent State from 2009-2011, while earning a master's degree. His roles included special assistant to the head coach, defensive graduate assistant, video coordinator and defensive volunteer. Working closely with the Flashes' defensive line, Coniglio helped develop future NFL players Roosevelt Nix, Ishmaa'liy Kitchen and Monte Simmons. During that period, Kent State's defense ranked in the top tier of numerous NCAA categories, including 10th in the nation in total defense in 2010. In 2011, the Flashes ranked 21st in total defense, while the 2009 squad was fourth in tackles for loss and 17th in sacks.

Coniglio was the defensive line coach at Northern Michigan in 2012-13 and worked with current Navy defensive coordinator Brian Newberry, who served as the defensive coordinator there in 2012.

Coniglio spent five seasons at Rhode Island, where he served as defensive line coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

Rhode Island was also among national (FCS) leaders in numerous defensive categories during Coniglio's time with the Rams. In 2017, Rhode Island was the only defensive line in the nation to have five players with five or more sacks and 10 or more tackles for loss. The Rams broke the program's sack record that season and produced their third different all-conference player during Coniglio's time. In 2018, URI ranked 31st in the FCS in total defense.

On special teams, the 2018 Rams ranked in the top 20 in punt return defense, kick return average and punt return average. Coniglio also brought recruiting success to URI in 2016, when the Rams ranked first in the Colonial Athletic Association according to 247 Sports.

A two-time All-Mid-American Conference defensive end at Miami, Coniglio was a three-year starter and three-year winner of the RedHawks' Vic Waltz Defensive Lineman of the Year award. Coniglio helped Miami win three MAC East titles and ranks fifth among the program's sack leaders. He was also a roommate of RedHawk teammate Sean McVay, who has led the Los Angeles Rams to two Super Bowls (2018 and 2021) and won Super Bowl championship (2021)

Coniglio and his wife, Jessa, have a daughter, Anna, and two sons, Joseph and Matthew.

RYAN CRAWFORD

ASSISTANT COACH

Safeties | First Season at Navy

Ryan Crawford is in his first year at the Naval Academy and will coach the safeties.

Crawford comes to Navy from Wake Forest where he spent the past four years coaching in the secondary and served as the assistant special teams coordinator for the past two years.

In his four years in Winston-Salem, Wake Forest compiled a record of 30-19 and went to four bowl games. In 2021, Wake Forest finished 11-3 and was ranked as high as 10th in the nation.

In 2020, Wake Forest was one of seven FBS schools with a turnover margin of at least +10 and it was one of five schools in the country to post back-to-back seasons with at least 13 interceptions.

In his first year working with the special teams in 2020, the Demon Deacons returned a kickoff for a touchdown for the first time since 2003 and Donovan Greene finished fourth in the country in kickoff return average (34.0 yards per return).

Prior to making the move to Winston-Salem, Crawford spent six seasons as the secondary coach and special teams coordinator at Harvard. During that time, the Crimson were regularly ranked in the top 10 in scoring defense and total defense in the FCS, while Justice Shelton-Mosely led the FCS with an average of 18.8 yard per punt return while also leading the FCS with a pair of touchdown returns in 2017.

Before moving to the Ivy League, Crawford had multi-year stops at Rhode Island, Bucknell and his alma mater Davidson. In his final season at Rhode Island, Crawford was promoted to defensive coordinator.

A 2001 graduate of Davidson, Crawford earned a bachelor's degree in biology while playing defensive back and was named the school's male athlete of the year in 2000. He led the FCS with eight interceptions his junior season, while earning First-Team All-America honors. He was also named the FCS Mid-Major Defensive Back of the Year. He was inducted into the Davidson Hall of Fame in 2012.

Crawford went on to play professionally with the Indiana Firebirds of the Arena Football League and the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

Crawford and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter, Dylan, and son, Bryson.

COACHING STAFF

JOE DUPAIX

ASSISTANT COACH
Slot Backs | Eighth Season at Navy

Joe DuPaix enters his eighth year at the Naval Academy over two different stints coaching the slot backs.

In 2021, Navy managed to have the ninth best rushing offense in the country (225.5 yards per game) despite facing six of the top-35 defenses in the country, including three of the top 10. On top of the tough schedule, Navy had to start five different offensive tackles, five different guards and three different centers due to injury.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that success was a Navy offense that set school records for total rushing yards (4,687), rushing yards per attempt (6.1), rushing yards per game (360.5), total offense yards per game (455.8) and tied the record for total offensive yards per attempt (6.8). The Mids also led the nation in rushing. DuPaix's slot backs did not lose a fumble all season (152 carries, 17 receptions).

The Mids were also prolific in the passing game, finishing second in the country in average yards per catch (22.51) and seventh in passing efficiency (176.92).

DuPaix returned to Navy in the spring of 2018 from Southern Virginia University, where he was the head coach for two seasons. Prior to Southern Virginia, DuPaix was the recruiting coordinator and running backs coach at BYU for two seasons (2011-12). Working under then head coach Bronco Mendenhall, DuPaix was part of the staff that led the Cougars to an 18-8 overall record, including back-to-back bowl wins and a 10-win season in 2011.

DuPaix was the slot backs coach at Navy from 2008-10 and helped the Mids compile a 27-13 record, win two Commander-In-Chief's Trophies, win a bowl game and post a 3-0 record against Army. Eight of the 13 losses during those three years came against teams from a Power Five conference. The 2009 team won a then school-record 10 games, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and blew out Missouri in the Texas Bowl, 35-13. The Mids finished first in the nation in rushing in 2008 (292.4 yards per game), fourth in 2009 (280.5) and sixth in 2010 (284.8).

DuPaix's collegiate coaching career began in 1998 as the quarterback coach at NCAA Division II University of Missouri-Rolla, before moving on to California Polytechnic State University (Cal Poly) in San Luis Obispo, California from 2001-07 where he served stints as the quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator.

As a player, he was the starting quarterback and team captain for two years at Southern Utah University, where he set an NCAA FCS individual rushing record for yards by a quarterback (1,246 yards) during the 1996 season.

DuPaix transferred to SUU from Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he was an Honorable Mention Junior College All-American and the 1995 Real Dairy Bowl MVP, finishing the year with 2,482 passing yards and 832 rushing yards.

The Salt Lake City, Utah native played high school football for his father, Roger, at Skyline High School. As a senior, he was named the 1990 Utah State MVP (Class 4A) and led Skyline to its first state title of the 90's.

DuPaix and his wife, Monica, have eight children: Madeleine, TJ, Jackson, Scott, Bryson, Cooper, Kennedy and Micah.

ROBERT GREEN

ASSISTANT COACH
Cornerbacks | 10th Season at Navy

Robert B. Green is in his 10th season at the Naval Academy and his eighth as a coach on the field.

In 2021, despite playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, the Navy defense acquitted itself well by finishing 32nd in the nation in rushing defense (130.4 yards per game), 51st in passing defense (218.2 yards per game), 34th in total defense (348.6 yards per game) and 34th in red zone defense (.778). Cornerback Michael McMorris tied for fourth in the country in forced fumbles with five and was invited to the FBS All-American Tropical Bowl.

In 2020, after a slow start, the Navy defense finished the year with a flurry, holding Memphis (205 yards), Tulsa (296) and Army (162) to under 300 yards of total offense. It was the first time a Navy defense had achieved that feat since 1997 when the Mids did it seven-consecutive games.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that turnaround was the massive improvement Navy showed on the defensive side of the football as the Mids improved in every major category.

Navy finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in third down defense (121st in 2018), 10th in rushing defense (90th in 2018), 39th in passing defense (75th in 2018), 16th in total defense (86th in 2018), 34th in scoring defense (103rd in 2018), 68th in pass efficiency defense (117th in 2018), 55th in sacks (129th in 2018) and 53rd in tackles for a loss (129th in 2018).

The defensive staff, led by coordinator Brian Newberry, installed a "Get 6" culture within the Navy defense that took off. Newberry told the defensive players if they got a combination of six three-and-outs, fourth down stops, turnovers and defensive touchdowns in a game, the Mids would win. In 2019, the Mids were 8-0 when they managed to "Get 6."

The Mids finished 10th in the nation against the run, giving up just 105.8 yards per game, despite facing the #2, #3 and #11 rushing offense's in the country. The Mids forced the opposing offense off the field in three plays or less in 36 percent of its drives, which was the 10th best average in the country. The Navy defense gave up just 15.2 first downs per game, which was tied for third best in the country.

Navy finished the 2017 campaign with a 7-6 record, which included a 49-7 rout of Virginia in the Military Bowl. The 42-point margin of victory was the largest by a Navy team over a team from the autonomy 5 since the Mids beat West Virginia 51-7 in the 1963 season opener. The Mids played eight games against teams that went to a bowl game and played five teams that won 10 or more games.

The defense improved in all four major categories in 2017: against the run (154.5 yards per game in 2017), the pass (215.8 yards per game), total defense (370.3 yards per game) and scoring defense (26.3 points per game).

Navy finished the 2016 season with a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The Mids played Temple in the AAC Championship game and played in a bowl game (Armed Forces) for the 13th time in the last 14 years. The nine wins tied for the fifth most wins in school history. Outside linebacker DJ Palmore was named First-Team All-East.

Navy finished the 2015 campaign with a school-record 11 wins against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game for the 12th time in the last 13 years, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

As a team, the defense finished the 2015 season ranked 32nd in rushing defense (143.0), 40th in total defense (364.9), 26th in scoring defense (21.8), 12th in red zone defense (.737), 13th in turnovers gained (27), first in fumbles recovered (15) and third in turnover margin (+1.46).

Green spent his first two years as the Director of Player Development assisting Coach Niumatalolo and the officer representatives with professional development and molding of Navy football players to assume future positions of leadership in the Navy and Marine Corps.

Green is a 1998 graduate of the Naval Academy where he was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter on the football team as a defensive back. During the 1996 campaign Navy fashioned its best record since 1978 at 9-3 and registered a 42-38 victory over California in the Aloha Bowl. Consequently, Green was named to the Blue-Gray All-Star Football Classic and was an All-Independent selection.

Green was born and raised in Atlanta, Ga., where he attended Booker T. Washington High School. After graduation, Green attended the Naval Academy Preparatory School in Newport, R.I. before moving on to the Naval Academy. He was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps in May 1998, having completed his undergraduate education at the Naval Academy.

Following The Basic School and the Logistics Officer Course, he was assigned to 9th Communication Battalion, I Marine Expeditionary Force Headquarters Group in July 1999. During this tour, Green served as the S-4 Alpha, Maintenance Management Officer, and Headquarters Company Commander.

Ordered to Okinawa in June 2002, Green was transferred to Marine Aviation Logistics Squadron 36, 1st Marine Aircraft Wing, Camp Futenma, Japan, where he served as the S-4 Officer.

In July 2003, Green was assigned to Recruiting Station Indianapolis. While stationed there, Green served for two and one-half years as the Operations Officer, and one-half year as the Executive Officer.

In July 2006, Green reported to Inspector-Instructor duty serving as Operations Officer and Assistant Inspector and Instructor for Headquarters and Service Battalion, 4th Marine Logistics Group, Dobbins ARB; Marietta, Ga. During his tour, he was deployed to Iraq as a member of the 1st Marine Logistics Group G-3 staff in July 2008. Stationed at Camp Al Taqaddum, he served as the Embarkation and Unit Movement Coordination Center Officer-in-Charge.

Green returned from Iraq in February 2009 only to depart Marietta in July 2009 to further his career at the Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell AFB in Montgomery, Al. Earning a Master's Degree in Military Operational Art, Green graduated in June 2010 and was assigned to 2d Marine Division.

Upon arriving at 2nd Marine Division Headquarters, Green was immediately deployed to Operation Enduring Freedom and assigned as the Logistics Officer for Regional Support Command - Southwest, NATO Training Mission - Afghanistan at Camp Leatherneck. After the seven month tour, Green returned to Camp Lejeune, and was assigned as the S-4 Officer for the 6th Marine Regiment in February 2011.

As a member of 6th Marine Regiment, Green deployed to Afghanistan for a second time in December 2011. After serving a combined 11 months on Camp Delaram and Camp Leatherneck, the Regiment returned home in November 2012. He continued to serve as the senior Logistics Officer for the command until his transfer to the Naval Academy.

As a Marine, the former Lieutenant Colonel's personal decorations include Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (2nd award), Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (2nd award), Meritorious Service Medal (2nd Award), Defense Meritorious Service Medal, and Legion of Merit.

Green retired from the U.S. Marine Corps in the summer of 2017. He resides in Annapolis with his wife, Robyn, and twin boys, Garrison and Grant.

JERRICK HALL

ASSISTANT COACH

Defensive Line | Fourth Season at Navy

Jerrick Hall enters his fourth year at Navy as the defensive line coach. In his first three years he coached the nose guards and defensive tackles and this year he added the defensive ends to his responsibilities.

In 2021, despite playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, the Navy defense acquitted itself well by finishing 32nd in the nation in rushing defense (130.4 yards per game), 51st in passing defense (218.2 yards per game), 34th in total defense (348.6 yards per game) and 34th in red zone defense (.778).

A big part of that turnaround was the massive improvement Navy showed on the defensive side of the football, as the Mids improved in every major category.

Navy finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in third down defense (121st in 2018), 10th in rushing defense (90th in 2018), 39th in passing defense (75th in 2018), 16th in total defense (86th in 2018), 34th in scoring defense (103rd in 2018), 68th in pass efficiency defense (117th in 2018), 55th in sacks (129th in 2018) and 53rd in tackles for a loss (129th in 2018).

The defensive staff, led by coordinator Brian Newberry, installed a "Get 6" culture within the Navy defense that took off. Newberry told the defensive players if they got a combination of six three-and-outs, fourth down stops, turnovers and defensive touchdowns in a game, the Mids would win. The Navy defense gave up just 15.2 first downs per game, which was tied for third best in the country.

Hall is a 16-year coaching veteran and was a standout player at North Carolina State. He came to Navy from Elon, where he was an assistant for five years in two different stints.

Hall returned to Elon in 2017 and immediately helped the Phoenix to one of the biggest turnarounds in the FCS going from 2-9 the year before to 8-4 and a berth in the FCS playoffs.

In 2018, Elon finished 6-5 and made the FCS playoffs for a second-straight year.

One of Hall's pupils, Marcus Willoughby, recorded 117 tackles over two seasons and was named All-CAA. The Phoenix ranked 15th in the country in quarterback sacks, averaging almost three per game. In 2017, Elon's defensive line was responsible for 18 of the team's 31 sacks. Willoughby signed a free agent contract with the Baltimore Ravens in the spring.

Hall was the defensive line coach at Fordham in 2015 and 2016 and helped the Rams to a two-year record of 17-6.

The Fordham defense led the Patriot League and ranked 10th nationally in both turnovers gained and fumbles recovered in 2015. In 2016, Fordham ranked sixth nationally in passing efficiency defense and seventh in turnover margin. Justin Vaughn was an All-Patriot League selection in 2016 and went on to play in the CFL with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

Hall spent the 2014 season at the University of New Haven where he helped guide the Chargers to a 6-3 mark in the Northeast 10. New Haven finished 18th in Division II in rushing yards allowed per game and fourth in tackles for loss per game. One of Hall's players, Drake Harris, was named all-conference in the NE10.

Prior to his year in New Haven, Hall spent four seasons at Elon. In 2011, Hall mentored a defensive line that amassed 141 total tackles, 26.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. With a young line in 2012, Hall's unit recorded 6.5 of Elon's 16 sacks. Both Jordan Gibson and Brandon Brant were named All-Southern Conference.

From 2007-09, Hall helped coach Campbell University's defensive unit. During that stretch, the 2009 squad tallied 50 tackles for loss, including 12 sacks. Three of the 2008 squad's defensive linemen ranked among the top-25 linemen in the league in tackles per game.

Prior to joining the Fighting Camels, Hall spent three seasons coaching at his alma mater, N.C. State, where he was responsible for defensive film breakdown, scouting reports, coaching the offensive scout team and working with the defensive line. During his tenure, Hall worked with four first-round NFL draft picks, including Mario Williams - the first overall pick in the 2006 NFL Draft.

A 2004 graduate of N.C. State, Hall was a four-year letter winner for the Wolfpack as a defensive tackle and helped the program to three bowl game appearances, including a win over Notre Dame in 2002 Toyota Gator Bowl. His defensive coordinator at N.C. State was former Navy defensive coordinator Buddy Green. He earned a bachelor's degree in Park Recreation and Tourism Management in 2004 and completed his master's degree in Liberal Studies in 2007.

Hall and his wife Ashley have four children, twins Ayden and Avery and twins Joshua and Jordan. Ayden will be a freshman at the Naval Academy this fall and a member of the football team.

IVIN JASPER

ASSISTANT COACH

Quarterbacks | 23rd Season at Navy

Ivin Jasper is entering his 23rd year at the Naval Academy and his 21st as the quarterbacks coach. Jasper has been an integral part of a staff that has brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 148-94 (.612) record over the last 19 years, that includes 15 bowl games, 11 Commander-In-Chief's Trophies and a 15-4 mark against Army.

Navy has won at least nine games eight times in the last 19 years. Before the current streak, Navy had won nine or more games just five times in the previous 77 seasons.

Jasper's quarterbacks rank first (Keenan Reynolds, 31), second (Ricky Dobbs, 27), fourth (Will Worth, 26), fifth (Reynolds, 24), sixth (Reynolds, 23) and 11th (Malcolm Perry, 21) on the FBS single-season rushing touchdowns list by a quarterback. Reynolds is also the FBS record holder for career rushing touchdowns by any player with 88.

In 2021, Navy managed to have the ninth best rushing offense in the country (225.5 yards per game) despite facing six of the top-35 defenses in the country, including three of the top 10. On top of the tough schedule, Navy had to start five different offensive tackles, five different guards and three different centers due to injury.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that success was a Navy offense that set school records for total rushing yards (4,687), rushing yards per attempt (6.1), rushing yards per game (360.5), total offense yards per game (455.8) and tied the record for total offensive yards per attempt (6.8). The Mids also led the nation in rushing.

The Mids were also prolific in the passing game, finishing second in the country in average yards per catch (22.51) and seventh in passing efficiency (176.92).

Quarterback Malcolm Perry was simply sensational under the tutelage of Jasper, rushing for a school-record 2,017 rushing yards, which is the most in FBS history by a quarterback and the 24th most in FBS history by a player at any position in a single season. Perry also set school records for rushing yards per game (155.1), total offense (238.5 yards per game) and passer rating (181.5). Perry led the country in explosive runs (runs of 20 yards or more) with 26. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year, the ECAC Offensive Player of the Year and the Liberty Bowl Most Valuable Player.

Perry rushed for an Army-Navy Game record 304 yards and two touchdowns in Navy's 31-7 rout of Army as he helped bring the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy back to Annapolis for the 16th time in school history. Perry capped his career in the Liberty Bowl by rushing for 213 yards on 28 carries in Navy's 20-17 win over Kansas State. In the final four games of his illustrious career, Perry rushed for 858 yards and five touchdowns on 113 carries (214.5 yards per game). Perry also set the school record for passer rating (181.6).

Navy finished the 2017 campaign with a 7-6 record, which included a 49-7 rout of Virginia in the Military Bowl. The 42-point margin of victory was the largest by a Navy team over a team from the autonomy 5 since the Mids beat West Virginia 51-7 in the 1963 season opener. The Mids played eight games against teams that went to a bowl game and played five teams that won 10 or more games. The offense set a school record by averaging 351.4 yards per game.

Quarterback Zach Abey rushed for 1,413 yards, the second most in school history for a single season, and 19 touchdowns, tied for the fifth most in school history. Slot back / quarterback Malcom Perry had games of 282 yards (SMU) and 250 yards (Army) rushing in his first two career starts at quarterback. He is just the third player in FBS history to have two runs of 90 or more yards in a single season.

Navy finished the 2016 campaign with a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The nine wins tied for the fifth most wins in school history and the team set school records for points (531), touchdowns (73), touchdowns per game (5.2), rushing touchdowns (61), total offense (6,136 yards) and yards per play (6.8) despite playing four different quarterbacks. Navy also won the West Division of the AAC that year.

Quarterback Tago Smith was poised to have a breakout senior campaign before injuring his knee in the second quarter of the season opener against Fordham and was lost for the year. Senior Will Worth, who had been the holder the previous three seasons, stepped in and was on pace to break most of Keenan Reynolds' single-season records before breaking his foot in the AAC Championship Game. Worth finished with 1,198 rushing yards and 25 touchdowns, while throwing for 1,397 yards and eight touchdowns. His 25 rushing touchdowns were the fourth most in NCAA history for a quarterback, while his 2,595 yards yards of total offense was a school record.

In 2015, Navy won a school-record 11 games against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

Quarterback Keenan Reynolds finished his playing career as the all-time leading touchdown scorer (both total and rushing) in FBS history with 88, as well as the all-time leading rusher for a quarterback in FBS history (4,559 yards), the all-time leading rusher in school history and the all-time leader touchdown passer in school history (31). He is just the sixth quarterback in FBS history to rush and pass for 4,000 yards in a career. He finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting, was named Third-Team All-American by the Associated Press and was named the American Athletic Conference and ECAC Offensive Player of the Year. He was also named the winner of the James E. Sullivan Award, which is given to the nation's most outstanding amateur athlete and had his number (19) retired. Reynolds was drafted in the sixth round by the Baltimore Ravens.

Navy finished the 2014 season with an 8-5 record, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game (beat San Diego State 17-16 in the Poinsettia Bowl) and defeated Army.

Navy finished the 2013 campaign with a 9-4 record, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, qualified for a bowl game, won a bowl game (beat Middle Tennessee, 24-6, in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl) and defeated Army.

Reynolds had one of the greatest seasons by a Navy football player in school history in 2013, rushing for 1,346 yards and 31 touchdowns, while throwing for 1,057 yards and eight touchdowns. His 31 rushing touchdowns not only was a school record, but an NCAA record for a quarterback. He is just the fourth player in NCAA history (any position) to rush for 30 or more touchdowns in a single season.

Jasper helped lead Navy to an 8-5 record in 2012 and a berth in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Navy defeated Air Force 28-21 in overtime and Army 17-13 to win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

The Mids posted an impressive 9-4 record in 2010, defeated Army, defeated Notre Dame in consecutive seasons for only the third time in school history and appeared in a school-record eighth-consecutive bowl game.

Quarterback Ricky Dobbs finished his career with 2,665 career rushing yards (sixth all-time at Navy), 2,770 passing yards (ninth all-time at Navy), 49 career rushing touchdowns (second all-time at Navy) and his 13 passing touchdowns in 2010 was a school record for a single-season.

The 2009 season saw the Mids tie a school record for wins with 10, win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appeared in a school-record seventh-consecutive bowl game and ran its winning streak against the other two Service Academies to an amazing 15- straight games. The Mids capped the season off with a 35-13 rout of Missouri in the Texas Bowl.

Navy posted an 8-5 record in 2008 and participated in the EagleBank Bowl. The Mids won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy thanks to a 33-27 victory over Air Force and a 34-0 win over Army.

The 2007 season saw the Mids post an 8-5 record, win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appear in a bowl game, became the first team in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing three-consecutive years (rushing for a school-record 348.8 yards per contest) and defeated Notre Dame for the first time since 1963.

In 2006, Navy became just the fifth school in NCAA history to go to four or more consecutive bowl games with a different quarterback each year.

In 2005, Navy led the nation in rushing (318.7 yards per game) as the Mids went 8-4, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and won a bowl game (beat Colorado State 51-30).

In 2004, the Mids won 10 games, won the Emerald Bowl and claim the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

In 2003 the Mids led the nation in rushing and set school records for rushing yards per game, total rushing yards, rushing yards per attempt, rushing touchdowns, total offense, total offense per game and yards per play as Navy went 8-5, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and earned a berth in the Houston Bowl.

Jasper came to Navy from Georgia Southern where he served as the quarterbacks and fullbacks coach for three years and helped lead the Eagles to a 38-6 record and back-to-back NCAA Division I-AA National Championships in 1999 and 2000.

Prior to his appointment at Georgia Southern in January 1999, Jasper served as offensive coordinator at Indiana State during the 1998 season.

Before assuming the offensive coordinator's position at the Naval Academy Prep School in Newport, R.I., in 1997, Jasper spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Navy in 1995 and `96, handling the quarterbacks, fullbacks and slot backs.

Jasper is a 1994 graduate of the University of Hawai'i where he earned his bachelor's degree in sociology/criminology. He was a three-year letterman for the Rainbow Warriors (1991-93) at quarterback and slot back, where he helped lead Hawai'i to a Western Athletic Conference title. A native of Los Angeles, Jasper and his wife, Donna, are the parents of a daughter, Dallas, and sons, Jaylen and Jarren.

JASON MACDONALD

ASSISTANT COACH

Fullbacks | Fourth Season at Navy

Jason MacDonald is in his fourth year at Navy coaching the fullbacks.

In 2021, Navy managed to have the ninth best rushing offense in the country (225.5 yards per game) despite facing six of the top-35 defenses in the country, including three of the top 10. On top of the tough schedule, Navy had to start five different offensive tackles, five different guards and three different centers due to injury. Fullback Isaac Ruoss was named a CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic

COACHING STAFF

Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that success was a Navy offense that set school records for total rushing yards (4,687), rushing yards per attempt (6.1), rushing yards per game (360.5), total offense yards per game (455.8) and tied the record for total offensive yards per attempt (6.8). The Mids also led the nation in rushing.

Fullback Jamale Carothers was named First-Team All-East. Carothers, who started the year on the junior varsity, rushed for 734 yards and 14 touchdowns on just 111 carries (6.6) in 10 games to finish second on the team in rushing.

MacDonald came to Navy from the Naval Academy Prep School where he served as the offensive coordinator for the past eight years. MacDonald was also a position coach at the prep school where he coached the slot backs for one year, the quarterbacks for four years, the wide receivers for one year, the fullbacks for one year and the offensive line for three years.

The NAPS offense averaged over 300 yards per game under MacDonald and in 2016 averaged 33.4 points per game.

MacDonald also handled the budget, was the academic coordinator and the head track & field coach at the prep school.

Prior to NAPS, MacDonald was a graduate assistant at Springfield College for two years where he was responsible for the offensive tackles and tight ends.

Two of his pupils, John Carlson and Sean Meagher, were named to the Empire 8 All-Conference Team.

MacDonald is a 2004 graduate of Springfield College where he earned his Bachelor of Science in Sports Management and a minor in business.

He was a four-year member of the Springfield College football team, including team captain of the 2003 team that won 10 games. He was named ECAC First Team All-Defense as a defensive lineman his senior year.

MacDonald and his wife, Dominique, have two sons, Adrian and Dion.

VA'A NIUMATALOLO

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Defensive Analyst | Third Season at Navy

Va'a Niumatalolo is in his third season at Navy and his first as a defensive analyst. He served last year as an offensive assistant.

Niumatalolo came to Navy from the University of Hawai'i where he served as the offensive intern in 2018 and as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line in 2019.

In his two years at Hawai'i, the Warriors compiled an 18-11 record and participated in two bowl games, winning the SoFi Hawai'i Bowl in 2019 over his alma mater, BYU.

Niumatalolo, who is the son of Ken and Barbara Niumatalolo, is a 2018 graduate of Brigham Young University where he played four years on the football team and appeared in 19 games.

Niumatalolo will also assist football operations in overseeing the Navy football support staff and providing direction for all off-field activities. Additionally, he will help coordinate the daily operations, logistics and administration of the team.

Niumatalolo, who graduated from Broadneck High School, and his wife, Kenzie, have two daughters, Aussie and Jada.

CHUCK PETERSEN

Offensive Assistant | First Season at Navy

Chuck Petersen is in his first year as an offensive assistant.

Petersen was an assistant at the Air Force Academy for 17 years coaching the running backs (1990), wide receivers (1991-96) and quarterbacks/fullbacks (1997-06). He was the primary play caller at Air Force from 1997-06 and served as the offensive coordinator from 2000-06.

Petersen won 12 Commander-In-Chief's Trophies, went to nine bowl games, won three conference championships and owned a 16-2 record against Army while an assistant at Air Force.

Since leaving Air Force, Petersen has served as the safeties coach at North Texas from 2007-10 and was the head coach at Orange Lutheran High School in Orange, Calif. from 2012-16 and at Hyde Park High School in Austin, Texas from 2017-21.

Petersen is a 1985 graduate of the Air Force Academy where he was a four-year letterwinner at cornerback and served as a team captain his senior year. As a player, Petersen won the first two Commander-In-Chief's Trophies in school history and helped lead Air Force to its first two bowl wins in school history (Vanderbilt in the 1982 Hall of Fame Bowl and Ole Miss in the 1983 Independence Bowl). He was 3-1 against Army and was a member of two Air Force teams that beat Notre Dame.

Petersen served seven years active duty in the United States Air Force and was honorably discharged as a Captain. He served in the Air Force Space Command at Eglin Air Force Base in Ft. Walton Beach, Fla. and was a Space Operations Crew Commander and Director of Standardization and Evaluation.

Petersen and his wife Roya have three children: Chase, Brady and Natalie. Brady is a 2019 graduate of the Naval Academy and played football for four years. His nephew is current Navy kicker Bijan Nichols.

P.J. VOLKER

ASSISTANT COACH

Linebackers | Fourth Season at Navy

P.J. Volker is in his fourth season as the inside linebackers coach at Navy.

In 2021, despite playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, the Navy defense acquitted itself well by finishing 32nd in the nation in rushing defense (130.4 yards per game), 51st in passing defense (218.2 yards per game), 34th in total defense (348.6 yards per game) and 34th in red zone defense (.778). Linebacker Diego Fagot was named a Fourth-Team All-American by Phil Steele, First-Team All-American Athletic Conference and All-East. Fagot was also named MVP of the East-West Shrine All-Star Game.

In 2020, after a slow start, the Navy defense finished the year with a flurry, holding Memphis (205 yards), Tulsa (296) and Army (162) to under 300 yards of total offense. It was the first time a Navy defense had achieved that feat since 1997 when the Mids did it seven-consecutive games. Linebacker Diego Fagot was named Second Team All-American Athletic Conference.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that turnaround was the massive improvement Navy showed on the defensive side of the football, as the Mids improved in every major category.

Navy finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in third down defense (121st in 2018), 10th in rushing defense (90th in 2018), 39th in passing defense (75th in 2018), 16th in total defense (86th in 2018), 34th in scoring defense (103rd in 2018), 68th in pass efficiency defense (117th in 2018), 55th in sacks (129th in 2018) and 53rd in tackles for a loss (129th in 2018).

The defensive staff, led by coordinator Brian Newberry, installed a "Get 6" culture within the Navy defense that really took off. Newberry told the defensive players if they got a combination of six three-and-outs, fourth down stops, turnovers and defensive touchdowns in a game, the Mids would win. In 2019, the Mids were 8-0 when they managed to "Get 6."

The Mids finished 10th in the nation against the run, giving up just 105.8 yards per game, despite facing the #2, #3 and #11 rushing offense's in the country. The Mids forced the opposing offense off the field in three plays or less in 36 percent of its drives, which was the 10th best average in the country. The Navy defense gave up just 15.2 first downs per game, which was tied for third best in the country.

Linebacker Diego Fagot was named First-Team American Athletic Conference.

Prior to his arrival in Annapolis, Volker served two seasons on the Kennesaw State defensive staff and was instrumental in the development of All-American Bryson Armstrong, who led the Big South in sacks (11), while ranked second in tackles (114) and tackles for a loss (12.5) in 2017.

Volker also tutored Kennesaw State linebacker Anthony Gore, who was named 2018 Big South Defensive Player of the Year. Gore led the team with 80 tackles, 17 tackles for a loss and six sacks. Every linebacker coached by Volker at Kennesaw State made the All-Conference team.

As the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for Trent Miles' program at Georgia State, Volker coached six All-Sun Belt Conference selections over four seasons (2013-16). In addition, he coached Joseph Peterson, the program's all-time leader in tackles and a three-time all-conference selection.

In 2015, as the Panthers reached their first bowl game in school history, the team was led by the nation's most improved defense. Georgia State led the nation by allowing 15 points fewer per game than in 2014 and improving by 122.3 yards per game and 1.92 yards per carry against the run. The Panthers finished in the top four in the Sun Belt in scoring defense (28.3 ppg), total defense (405.6 ypg), rushing defense (181.4 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (120.3).

Volker spent three years (2010-12) with Miles as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Indiana State, helping the Sycamores post three straight winning seasons. While there, seven Indiana State linebackers were named to the all-conference team, including three-time selection Aaron Archie, who was the program's all-time leading tackler.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Volker was a three-year letterwinner and two-time all-conference selection at the College of Mount St. Joseph (Ohio). He was honored with the school's Future Five Award, which honors alumni who have graduated within the last 20 years that have excelled in their profession and provided service to their communities.

He began his coaching career as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Thiel College. From there, he joined the staff at Thomas More College, a Division III program in Kentucky, where he coached the linebackers and served as the program's recruiting coordinator.

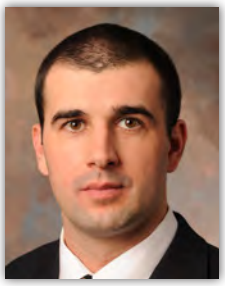
Volker is a 2005 graduate of Mount St. Joseph. He is married to the former Amanda Naseef, and the couple has two young daughters, Rosie and Ella.

COACHING STAFF

MICK YOKITIS

ASSISTANT COACH

Wide Receivers | 12th Season at Navy



Mick Yokitis is in his 12th year at the Naval Academy as the wide receivers coach. Navy has compiled a record of 78-61 (.5613) during Yokitis' tenure, beat Army seven times, has gone to seven bowl games, won five bowl games and won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy four times.

In 2021, Navy managed to have the ninth best rushing offense in the country (225.5 yards per game) despite facing six of the top-35 defenses in the country, including three of the top 10. On top of the tough schedule, Navy had to start five different offensive tackles, five different guards and three different centers due to injury. Wide receiver Mychal Cooper finished his career averaging 19.4 yards per catch, which is the fifth best average in school history. Cooper was also invited to the NFL Players Association Bowl.

In 2019, Navy had one of the greatest seasons in school history, winning a school-record tying 11 games against just two losses, winning the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, sharing the American Athletic Conference West Division title with Memphis and winning the prestigious Liberty Bowl. The Mids' eight-game improvement from 2018 was the second-biggest turnaround in FBS history.

The Mids finished the 2019 campaign ranked 20th in both the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Polls. It marked just the second time in the last 56 years that Navy finished in the AP Top 20 (18th in 2015).

A big part of that success was a Navy offense that set school records for total rushing yards (4,687), rushing yards per attempt (6.1), rushing yards per game (360.5), total offense yards per game (455.8) and tied the record for total offensive yards per attempt (6.8). The Mids also led the nation in rushing.

The Mids were also prolific in the passing game, finishing second in the country in average yards per catch (22.51) and seventh in passing efficiency (176.92). Quarterback Malcolm Perry set the school record for passer rating (181.6).

Navy finished the 2017 campaign with a 7-6 record, which included a 49-7 rout of Virginia in the Military Bowl. The 42-point margin of victory was the largest by a Navy team over a team from the autonomy 5 since the Mids beat West Virginia 51-7 in the 1963 season opener. The Mids played eight games against teams that went to a bowl game and played five teams that won 10 or more games. The offense set a school record by averaging 351.4 rushing yards per game.

Navy finished the 2016 campaign with a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The Mids played Temple in the AAC Championship game and played in a bowl game (Armed Forces) for the 13th time in the last 14 years. The nine wins tied for the fifth most wins in school history and the team set school records for points (531), touchdowns (73), touchdowns per game (5.2), rushing touchdowns (61), total offense (6,136 yards) and yards per play (6.8) despite playing four different quarterbacks.

Senior wide receiver Jamir Tillman was named First-Team All-East and finished his career second all-time at Navy in career receiving yards (1,620) and seventh in catches (91)

Navy finished the 2015 campaign with a school-record 11 wins against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game for the 12th time in the last 13 years, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

In 2014, the Mids finished No. 2 in the country in rushing offense (326.7), No. 3 in passing yards per completion (20.0), 22nd in scoring offense (36.8), No. 1 in red zone offense (.948),No. 4 in third down conversions (.503), No. 1 in fourth down conversions (.923), No. 1 in fewest turnovers lost (8), No. 3 in turnover margin (+1.46), No. 1 in fewest penalties per game (3.1) and No. 1 in fewest penalty yards per game (26.1).

Wide receiver Jamir Tillman became the first player in school history to catch a touchdown pass in four straight games, while his 20.59 yards per catch was the nation's ninth-best average.

Navy finished the 2014 campaign with an 8-5 record, won a bowl game (beat San Diego State 17-16 in the Poinsettia Bowl) and defeated Army for a series-record 13th consecutive year.

Navy finished the 2013 season with a 9-4 record, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, won a bowl game (beat Middle Tennessee 24-6 in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl) and defeated Army for a series-record 12th-consecutive year.

Yokitis helped lead Navy to an 8-5 record in 2012 and a berth in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. Navy defeated Air Force 28-21 in overtime and Army 17-13 to win the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy.

Yokitis was the head football coach and offensive coordinator at the Naval Academy Prep School from 2008-10 where he led NAPS to a 16-7 record.

Yokitis is a 2006 graduate of the Naval Academy where he earned three varsity letters at wide receiver and saw the Midshipmen post a 26-11 record, qualify for three bowl games, win two bowl games and win three Commander-In-Chief's Trophies. Yokitis played in 37-consecutive games for the Midshipmen, including earning a start in all 12 contests as a senior.

After graduation, Yokitis served in the United States Marine Corps before being medically discharged. Mick and his wife, Lindsey, have two sons, Bryce and Nolan, and a daughter, Makenna.

Payne and his fiance, Ally Keirn, reside in Annapolis.

MARCUS THOMAS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Marcus Thomas is in his first year as the Director of Player Personnel for Navy football. Thomas comes to Navy from UCLA, where he was the offensive analyst for Chip Kelly in 2020 and 2021 and the Director of Strategic Intelligence in 2019.

While at UCLA, Thomas assisted the running backs coach (2020 and 2021) and the tight ends coach (2019) as well as with special teams and was responsible for the opponent personnel scouting report. He helped lead UCLA to the 2021 Holiday Bowl, its first bowl game in four seasons.

In 2021, the UCLA offense ranked 16th in the country in scoring, averaging 36.5 points per game. Thomas contributed to the weekly development of the run game plan for a unit that averaged 215.1 rushing yards per game, which was the 17th best rushing average in the country. In 2020, the UCLA offense ranked 20th in the nation in scoring, averaging 35.4 points per game and the UCLA rushing game improved by more than 70 yards per game.

Thomas is a 2014 graduate of the Naval Academy and four year letter winner on the football team. The Mids compiled a 31-20 record in Thomas' four years, won two Commander-In-Chief's Trophies, beat Army all four times and played in three bowl games, winning the 2013 Bell Helicopter Bowl over Middle Tennessee State 25-6.

Thomas was named Second Team All-Independent as a kick returner in 2011, 2012 Honorable Mention All-Independent, 2013 Honorable Mention All-Independent and 2013 All-East by the ECAC. He was a recipient of the 2013 Napoleon McCallum Award which is presented to the Navy varsity football player of the graduating class who has gained the most all-purpose yards in his career.

Thomas is Navy's all-time leader in kickoff return yardage with 2,338 yards.

Thomas spent five years in the United States Marine Corps, including serving as the Marine Aviation Logistics Squadron 36 Detachment Officer in charge of 55 Marines for the 31st Marine Expeditionary Unit, a forward deployed contingency-response unit in the Pacific theatre and an Aviation Supply Officer in Okinawa, Japan where he led a team of 42 Marines, providing logistics and supply support to more than 2,000 Marines with Marine Aircraft Group 36 consisting of 58 aircraft.

2021 GAME RECAPS

MARSHALL 49, NAVY 7

SEPT. 4, 2021 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM • 30,131

- Freshman Rasheen Ali scored the first-four touchdowns of his collegiate career as Marshall defeated Navy 49-7 in the season opener for both teams.
- Ali scored his first TD from the 2, capping the game-opening drive. He added two more scoring runs - from the 3 and the 4 - staking Marshall to a 21-0 halftime lead. Ali scored a final touchdown with a plunge from the 1 midway through the fourth quarter.
- Xavier Arline scored early in the fourth, crashing over from the 1, as Navy avoided the shutout thanks to 337 yards rushing.
- The biggest story of the game was the red zone. Marshall made it to the red zone six times and scored six times, all of them touchdowns, while Navy scored just once in five opportunities.
- Marshall held a 464-398 edge in total yards, largely thanks to Grant Wells completing 20 of 30 passes for 333 yards before being replaced by backup Luke Zban late in the game. Zban threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to E.J. Horton with 2:01 remaining.
- Senior safety Kevin Brennan led the Navy defense with six tackles, a fumble recovery and an interception, while James Harris II rushed for a career-high 80 yards on 11 carries. Navy's 337 yards rushing were the most by Navy since the 2019 Army game when the Mids rushed for 395 yards.

AIR FORCE 23, NAVY 3

SEPT. 11, 2021 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM • 36,997

- (AP) Brad Roberts ran for two touchdowns and Haaziq Daniels added one, and Air Force held Navy to one first down before the fourth quarter in a 23-3 victory.
- This was the earliest meeting in series history between the two programs. It was pushed up from its traditional first week in October meeting so the game would be played on the 20th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks.
- The pregame pageantry felt even more meaningful on this day. The players took the field carrying American flags, and at halftime the names of Navy and Air Force grads who lost their lives on 9/11 were scrolled on the videoboard.
- Roberts ran for a 3-yard TD in the second quarter and Daniels scored on a 28-yard run in the final minute of the third.
- Roberts added another touchdown on a 2-yard run in the fourth. The Midshipmen changed quarterbacks after that, and Maasai Maynor immediately threw a 15-yard pass to Mychal Cooper for Navy's first completion and second first down of the game.
- Navy finished with only 68 yards of offense.

GAME 3
HOUSTON 28, NAVY 20
SEPT. 25, 2021 • HOUSTON, TEXAS • TDECU STADIUM • 25,054

- Houston outscored Navy 21-3 in the second half to pull out a 28-20 victory at TDECU Stadium in the American Athletic Conference opener for both teams.
- Marcus Jones was the difference maker for the Cougars, returning a punt 73 yards for a touchdown in the first half and catching a 47-yard touchdown pass from Clayton Tune with 14:53 remaining to give Houston its first lead of the game at 21-17.
- After the Jones touchdown catch, Navy fumbled the snap on its next offensive play and Malik Robinson recovered the ball at the Navy 25. Houston converted the fumble into a TD, thanks in large part to a third down defensive holding call on Navy when it appeared the Mids would hold the Cougars to a field goal. Three plays later, Ta'Zhawn Henry scored from one yard out, his second of the day, to give Houston a 28-17 lead.
- Navy closed to within eight points with 6:12 left on a 36-yard field goal by Bijan Nichols and got the ball back with a chance to tie with 3:02 left. On 2nd-and-7 from the Navy 28, slot back Chance Warren got behind the Houston defense, but was unable to hang on to the pass from backup quarterback Maasai Maynor. Maynor was then sacked on third down and on 4th-and-18, completed a pass to Mark Walker for 15 yards ending Navy's hopes.
- The MIds dominated play in the first half, jumping out to a 17-7 lead. Sophomore quarterback Xavier Arline capped off a three-play, 76-yard drive to start the game with a 40-yard touchdown run, Nichols made a 30-yard field goal and senior fullback Isaac Ruoss scored on a one-yard run. The Navy defense kept the high-powered Houston offense off the board in the first half with the only Cougar points coming on the Jones punt return.

NAVY 34, UCF 30
OCT. 2, 2021 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM • 30,871

- (AP) Tai Lavatai returned from a two-game injury absence to lead Navy back from a 13-point fourth-quarter deficit and a 34-30 win over UCF for the Mids' first victory of the season.
- With Navy trailing 30-27, Diego Fagot knocked the ball out of Brandon Johnson's hands after a 20-yard reception and Taylor Robinson recovered at the Navy 47. Eleven plays and over five minutes later, Isaac Ruoss ran in from the 4-yard line to give the Midshipmen the lead with 3:09 left. Ruoss finished the day with 84 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries.
- UCF quickly went down the field to the Navy 12, but Robinson, who dropped a would-be interception two plays earlier, came up with his first-career interception in the end zone on fourth down with 24 seconds remaining.
- Bijan Nichols kicked his second field goal and Lavatai ran for his second touchdown of the game after Navy entered the fourth quarter trailing 30-17.
- Lavatai and Ruoss had 21 carries each as Navy ran for 348 yards led by 85 from Carlinos Acie. Acie entered Saturday's game with 68-career rushing yards.
- Daniel Taylor recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for a Navy TD in the first half. The blocked punt by Michael McMorris was the first blocked punt by Navy since 2008 when the Mids blocked two against Air Force.
- UCF freshman Mikey Keene, making his first start in place of the injured Dillon Gabriel, was 16-of-26 passing for 178 yards and two TDs to Johnson.

GAME 5
#24 SMU 31, NAVY 24

OCT. 9, 2021 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM • 28,563

- (AP) Tanner Mordecai threw for 324 yards and two touchdowns and No. 24 SMU rallied from a 14-point second-quarter deficit to beat Navy 31-24.
- Bryan Massey scored on a 95-yard kickoff return to begin the comeback for the unbeaten Mustangs.It was the third time in the last four years that SMU returned a kickoff for a touchdown against the Mids.
- SMU had the game tied by halftime and went up 31-24 on a 22-yard TD pass from Mordecai to Jordan Kerley with 8:19 remaining in the final quarter.
- Mordecai also threw a 66-yarder to Reggie Roberson Jr. on fourth-and-1 to open the scoring, but Navy answered with the next 21 points.
- Chance Warren tied the game with a 23-yard scoring run, then Tai Lavatai threw the first touchdown pass of the season for the Midshipmen, 37 yards to Kai Puailoa-Rojas on a flea-flicker.
- Then a couple big turnovers went Navy's way. Mordecai was intercepted in the end zone by junior linebacker Johnny Hodges, and later in the second quarter, he fumbled - and Diego Fagot returned that turnover 20 yards for a touchdown and a 21-7 lead.
- Navy never had a chance to get comfortable, though. Massey took the ensuing kickoff all the way back for a touchdown, and then Tre Siggers scored on a 2-yard run to tie it with 1:54 left in the half.
- After Kerley's catch in the end zone put the Mustangs ahead, Navy turned the ball over on downs twice, the second time inside its own 20.

GAME 6
MEMPHIS 35, NAVY 17

OCT. 14, 2021 • MEMPHIS, TENN. • LIBERTY BOWL MEMORIAL STADIUM • 30,042

- (AP) Seth Henigan completed eight of 11 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns as Memphis scored on five of its first six drives to defeat Navy 35-17.
- Four of the five touchdown drives included at least one big play. Henigan competed a 49-yard pass to Javon Ivory on the first play of the game, a 74-yard TD pass to Eddie Lewis and a 51-yarder to Koby Drake in the third quarter. The Tigers also scored on a 69-yard reverse.
- Calvin Austin III sprinted 69 yards to score on a reverse, staking Memphis to a 14-7 lead it wouldn't relinquish, one play after Navy ground 21 plays to tie the game at 7. It was the most plays for any drive by any team at the FBS level this season.
- Austin's reverse was all speed, looping out of the backfield and slipping through a knot of three would-be tacklers converging on him just beyond the line of scrimmage.
- Navy took over after Memphis' game-opening touchdown and ground up the rest of the first quarter with a nearly 12-minute, 75-yard monster of a drive taking 21 plays. James Harris II punched the ball over from the 2 - scoring his first career touchdown- as Navy advanced on 17 plays of five yards or less.
- The 21-play drive was Navy's longest since a 26-play drive in the 2004 Emerald Bowl.
- Tai Lavatai left the game after a sack early in the fourth quarter. He passed for 27 yards and rushed for a net of 28. The Midshipmen had 10 rushers for 198 yards on the ground.
- Navy had two apparent scoring plays nullified by penalties just minutes apart in the second quarter and wound up with a Bijan Nichols 36-yard field goal, trailing 14-10.

GAME 7
#2 CINCINNATI 27, NAVY 20

OCT. 23, 2021 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM • 32,004

- (AP) The No. 2-ranked Cincinnati Bearcats outscored Navy 14-0 in the third quarter and hung on to defeat the Midshipmen 27-20 and remain unbeaten.
- Navy jumped out to a 7-0 first quarter lead on a two-yard touchdown run by Tai Lavatai that capped a 13-play, 79-yard scoring drive and drained 7:12 off the clock.
- The Bearcats would tie the game on the ensuing drive when quarterback Desmond Ridder hit a wide open Josh Whyle with a 31-yard touchdown pass.
- Navy went back up on top early in the second quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Bijan Nichols and maintained the three-point lead when senior corner Jamal Glenn picked off Ridder at the Navy 3. The Mids, however, would go three-and-out after the interception and the Bearcats grounded out a 15-play, 61-yard drive that resulted in a 32-yard field goal by Christian Lowery to tie the game at 10.
- Navy went on a long drive of its own on the next possession and looked like it would have a chance to take a halftime lead. After reaching the Bearcat 25-yard line, Lavatai was dropped for a loss of three yards on first down and was sacked for a six-yard loss on second down. Navy would then spike the ball on third down with 10 seconds left in the half to set up a 51-yard field goal by Nichols. Nichols' field goal attempt was blocked by Deshawn Pace, who returned it to the Navy 34 before he stepped out of bounds with one second left. Alex Bales came on to nail a 52-yard field goal at the gun to give Cincinnati a 13-10 hafltime lead.
- That turn of events seemed to deflate the Mids as Cincinnati outscored Navy 14-0 in the third quarter to take a 27-10 lead. Jerome Ford, who was shut down most of the day by the Navy defense, scored on a 43-yard run and Ridder connected with Whyle for a second time on a three-yard touchdown pass with 1:13 left in the third quarter.
- Nichols hit a 27-yard field goal with 7:34 left to make it a two-score game and after the Navy defense forced a Cincinnati punt, the Mids marched 90 yards in 16 plays to score on a one-yard touchdown run by Lavatai with :50 seconds left to make it 27-20.
- Navy would get the ball right back when Daniel Davies executed a beautiful onside kick that Glenn would recover to give Navy the ball at its own 47 and a chance to tie or win the game.
- Arquon Bush, however, intercepted Lavatai on Navy's third play to seal the Cincinnati win.

GAME 8
NAVY 20, TULSA 17

OCT. 29, 2021 • TULSA, OKLA. • H.A. CHAPMAN STADIUM • 16,279

- (AP) Bijan Nichols' 46-yard field goal with 4:14 remaining ended up being the difference as Navy rallied to beat Tulsa 20-17 at H.A. Chapman Stadium.
- Tai Lavatai scored from the 1-yard line with 11:25 left to give Navy its first lead of the game.
- Lavatai rushed for a career-high 64 yards, while the Midshipmen gained 302 yards rushing, zero passing.
- The 15-play eight-minute drive in Navy's come-from-behind win foiled a big night by Tulsa's Anthony Watkins, who scored the Golden Hurricanes' first kickoff return for a touchdown in nearly a decade and compiled 178 yards in total offense.
- Watkins scored a 97-yard kickoff return to open the second half as Tulsa took a 10-3 lead. The last Golden Hurricane with a kickoff return for a TD was Trey Watts, 95-yards against Marshall on Oct. 6, 2012.
- Late in the first half, Zack Long kicked a 26-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead as Tulsa salvaged points from a five-play drive that began with a Watkins season-long 78-yard rush to the Navy 7-yard line. Tulsa had to settle for the field goal after Navy's Michael McMorris came from across the field to run down Watkins at the seven. The Navy defense stiffened from there, forcing the Tulsa field goal.
- Nichols evened the score with a 29-yard field goal for Navy with 3 seconds left in the first half.
- After the Watkins kickoff return, Navy tied the game on a 1-yard touchdown run by James

- Davis Brin, who completed 13 of 23 passes for 165 yards, connected with Ezra Naylor II on a 2-yard touchdown pass, pulling Tulsa to within 20-17 with 2:21 to play.
- Navy recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock.
- The win was Navy's first on the road this season and broke a three-game losing streak.

GAME 9
#8 NOTRE DAME 34, NAVY 6
NOV. 6, 2021 • SOUTH BEND, IND. • NOTRE DAME STADIUM • 77,096

- (AP) Jack Coan threw for 269 yards and a touchdown, Kyren Williams ran for two scores and No. 8 Notre Dame shut down Navy's triple-option attack in a 34-6 victory.
- Coan, a grad transfer from Wisconsin, completed 23 of 29 passes, with a 70-yard scoring pass to Kevin Austin late in the first half for the Irish.
- Williams, who had a career-high 199 yards the previous week against North Carolina, scored on runs of 1 and 20 yards, but managed just 95 yards on 17 carries. The Irish offense totaled 430 yards.
- Grad nose tackle Kurt Hinish had a career-high 10 tackles after making just 14 in six games coming in. Notre Dame dominated the Midshipmen with its size and physical play. Navy controlled the clock, with 34:33 of possession - but completed just one pass for 18 yards and rushed for 166 yards - 73 on 22 carries by fullback Isaac Ruoss.
- It was Notre Dame's fourth-straight victory in the series that began in 1927, but was interrupted last year by the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Navy led 3-0 after the first quarter on the first of two field goals by Bijan Nichols. But the Irish scored 17 points in the second quarter - Jonathan Doerer's tying field goal, Williams' 1-yard TD run and Coan-Austin's touchdown aerial - for a 17-3 halftime lead.
- Notre Dame got a safety when Navy backup quarterback Xavier Arline, replacing injured starter Tai Lavatai, recovered his own fumble in the end zone early in the fourth quarter. Williams then recovered his goal-line fumble in the end zone to finish off his 20-yard scoring scamper. Freshman Logan Diggs completed the scoring with an 8-yard run.

GAME 10
EAST CAROLINA 38, NAVY 35
NOV. 20, 2021 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NAVY-MARINE CORPS MEMORIAL STADIUM • 28,001

- (AP) Owen Daffer drilled a 54-yard field goal as time expired to lift East Carolina to a 38-35 victory over Navy on Senior Day at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. Daffer's previous career long was 39 yards.
- Maquel Haywood scored on a 98-yard kickoff return that gave Navy a 35-27 lead with 8:33 remaining. It was Navy's first kickoff returned for a touchdown since 2012 when Gee Gee Greene had a 95-yard kickoff return against Arizona State and tied for the longest kickoff return in school history.

- East Carolina's Holton Ahlers answered with a 28-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Snead and then hit C.J. Johnson with a two-point conversion to tie the game at 35 with 5:01 left.
- Navy quickly drove back down the field, but on third-and-seven from the ECU 44-yard line, quarterback Tai Lavatai hit wide receiver Mark Walker with a pass for seven yards that would have given the Mids a first down. East Carolina's Ja'Quan McMillan closed hard on the play and punched the ball out of Walker's hands and, although it went out of bounds, Navy lost five yards and the first down which force Navy to punt. East Carolina took over at its own 20 with 1:11 left and after a two-yard run by Keaton Mitchell, Ahlers hit Snead with a 46-yard pass down to the Navy 32 and set up Daffer's heroics.
- Carlinos Acie had 155 yards rushing that included a 90-yard touchdown run. Acie's 155 yards rushing was the most by a Navy slot back since Shun White rushed for a school record 348 yards against Towson in 2008.

GAME 11
NAVY 38, TEMPLE 14

NOV. 27, 2021 • PHILADELPHIA, PA. • LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD • 16,708

- (AP) Navy ran for three touchdowns and threw for two more as the Mids rolled over Temple 38-14 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.
- Senior slot back Carlinos Acie ran for 86 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries, senior fullback Isaac Ruoss had 66 yards yards rushing and two touchdowns on 18 carries, while senior slot back Chance Warren got touchdown passes from both starter Tai Lavatai and backup Xavier Arline to lead the Navy offense that had 291 yards of total offense on the day.
- Navy jumped out to a 14-0 lead on an 11-yard touchdown run by Acie and a 15-yard touchdown pass from Arline to Warren before Temple scored on a one-yard touchdown run by Re'Von Bonner, which was set up by a batted pitch the Owls recovered at the Navy one.
- Temple gifted Navy three points at the end of the half when it fumbled a punt and Navy's Bijan Nichols booted a 32-yard field goal to make the score 17-7 at the intermission.
- Navy took a 24-7 lead with 6:43 left in the third quarter on a three-yard run by Ruoss and then put the game away on fourth-quarter touchdonws by Ruoss (6-yard run) and Warren (4-yard pass from Lavatai).

GAME 12
NAVY 17, ARMY 13

DEC. 11, 2021 • EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. • METLIFE STADIUM • 82,282

- (AP) Quarterback Tai Lavatai ran for two touchdowns and Navy's defense limited Army to 57 second-half yards and a season-low 232 overall in a 17-13 victory. The game was played at MetLife Stadium to commemorate the 20th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks.
- Navy played a complete game, outgaining Army on the ground and overall, controlling the clock and converting three big plays, two on fourth down, that led to all its points.
- The Navy defense made the big play at the end, stopping Army quarterback Christian Anderson a yard short at the Navy 46 on fourth down with 91 seconds left.
- Bijan Nichols added a 43-yard field goal for Navy, which played against a schedule that featured 11 bowl-bound teams.
- Anderson scored on a 56-yard run on Army's fourth play from scrimmage and Cole Talley added field goals of 31 and 32 yards, all in the first half. The Black Knights generated little after that in seeing their four-game winning streak snapped and losing to Navy for only the second time in six games.
- Army led 13-7 at the half with each team scoring touchdowns on the opening possessions.
- Anderson opened the scoring with a 56-yard run on the fourth play from scrimmage. Lavatai capped an 11-play, 83-yard response by the Midshipmen, scoring on an 8-yard run on which fullback James Harris II helped carry him the final 3 yards.
- Navy took over in the second half, taking the kickoff and going 74 yards in 10 plays with Lavatai scoring from 2-yards out. The drive featured a 26-yard run by Chance Warren on fourth-and-4 that got the ball to the 2.
- The late field goal by Nichols was set up by a fake punt on fourth-and-1 from the Navy 34. Linebacker and leading tackler Diego Fagot took a direct snap, avoided a tackle and gained 4 yards. It was his first-career carry.

1924 ROSE BOWL

Navy 14, Washington 14

January 1, 1924 • Rose Bowl Stadium

PASADENA, Calif. – The Midshipmen had completed a 5-1-2 season when they were invited to meet Washington in the 1924 Rose Bowl. After a scoreless first period in which the Huskies held Navy on the one-yard line, the Mids scored early in the second quarter when Pete McKee surprised Washington with a 30-yard pass to Carl Cullen. The Huskies tied the game moments later on a 22-yard run. McKee and Cullen hooked up once again, this time on a seven-yard scoring strike to give Navy a 14-7 lead. Washington closed out the scoring following a fumble recovery on the Midshipmen 10-yard line.

1955 SUGAR BOWL

Navy 21, Mississippi 0

January 1, 1955 • Tulane Stadium

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Quarterback George Welsh led the "Team Named Desire" to a 21-0 triumph over Southeastern Conference champion Mississippi. "He (Welsh) was a genius at calling plays today," said Navy coach Eddie Erdelatz. Fullback Joe Gattuso Sr. was given the Warren Miller Trophy as the game's most valuable player after rushing for 111 yards on 16 carries and scoring two touchdowns. Halfback Jack Weaver had 106 yards rushing and scored the Mids' other touchdown on a pass from Welsh. Welsh, in addition to running the option perfectly, completed 8-of-14 passes for 76 yards.

1958 COTTON BOWL

Navy 20, Rice 7

January 1, 1958 • Cotton Bowl

DALLAS, Texas – "Gentlemen, this was the best ball club I have ever had the privilege of coaching," intoned coach Eddie Erdelatz in the Navy locker room following the Mids' 20-7 Cotton Bowl win over Rice. The expected duel between the two quarterbacks, Navy's Tom Forrestal and Rice's King Hill, never materialized. Tony Stremic and Bob Reifsnyder paced the Navy defense early on. The Mids scored in each of the first two periods (Joe Tranchini on a one-yard keeper and Harry Hurst on a 13-yard run). Halfback and team captain Ned Oldham scored on a 19-yard run and had a pair of conversions.

1961 ORANGE BOWL

Missouri 21, Navy 14

January 2, 1961 • Orange Bowl Stadium

MIAMI, Fla. – Missouri held 1960 Heisman Trophy winner Joe Bellino to four yards on eight carries and defeated the Midshipmen 21-14. The Midshipmen scored early when end Greg Mather intercepted a lateral and sprinted 98 yards for a score. But Missouri countered with an interception return for a touchdown. Bellino scored Navy's second touchdown of the day when he made a spectacular grab of a pass from Hal Spooner and did a somersault out of the end zone. Spooner completed 13-of-21 passes for 176 yards but was intercepted four times.

1978 HOLIDAY BOWL

Navy 23, BYU 16

December 22, 1978 • San Diego Stadium

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – Navy rallied from a 13-point deficit early in the second half to defeat Brigham Young 23-16 in the first Holiday Bowl. The catalyst in the Mids' comeback was split end Phil McConkey, with help from quarterback Bob Leszczynski and the defensive unit. Leszczynski got the Mids going in the third period on a 77-yard TD drive that featured a 16-yard reverse by McConkey, the game's MVP. Moments later, a McConkey reverse of 26 yards set up a 28-yard field goal from Bob Tata that narrowed the deficit to 16-13. With the defense holding the Cougars to just 24 yards over the final 24 minutes, Leszczynski fired down the sideline to McConkey, who raced to the end zone to complete a 65-yard play. Navy was ranked 17th in the country in the final UPI poll.

1981 LIBERTY BOWL

Ohio State 31, Navy 28

December 30, 1981 • Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Navy twice rallied from significant deficits before eventually bowing to Ohio State 31-28 in the 23rd playing of the Liberty Bowl. The determined Midshipmen had a 97-yard scoring drive in the final 5:14 that pulled them to within three points. Navy trailed 10-0 at one time, but had pulled to 17-13 at halftime. The Mids went ahead in the third period when George Herlong blocked a punt and Ken Olson raced in from 10 yards out for a touchdown. Trailing 31-20 with only eight seconds left in the game, Navy scored when Marco Pagnanelli passed one yard to tight end Greg Papajohn, and the two teamed for the two-point conversion. Tailback Eddie Meyers was the game MVP for his 117-yard rushing effort, finishing ahead of Ohio State's Art Schlichter.

1996 ALOHA BOWL

Navy 42, California 38

December 25, 1996 • Aloha Stadium

HONOLULU, Hawai'i – Ben Fay came off the bench in the fourth quarter to lead touchdown drives of 80 and 84 yards, as Navy rallied for a 42-38 victory over California in the Aloha Bowl.

Cal jumped on top on the opening kickoff as Deltha O'Neal returned it 100 yards for a touchdown. Navy answered quickly on a three-play, 69-yard drive, capped off by a seven-yard touchdown run from Tim Cannada. After Cal went back on top, 14-7, Navy answered with two quick touchdowns of its own, as Chris McCoy scored from one yard out and Ross Scott scored from four yards out. Cal bounced right back to take a 28-21, but McCoy answered with a two-yard touchdown run to tie the game at 28 with 39 seconds remaining in the half. That was plenty of time for Cal, as it marched 61 yards in 29 seconds to take a 35-28 halftime lead.

Fay entered the game with 10:38 remaining and promptly drove the Mids 80 yards in 10 plays, as he scored from two yards out to pull the Mids to within three. The Navy defense got the ball back for Fay when junior tackle David Viger stripped Cal quarterback Pat Barnes of the ball and Jerome Dixon recovered it.

Fay made the game-winning drive look easy, marching the Mids 84 yards on six plays, the big play being a 52-yard pass to senior slotback Cory Schemm. Fay scored from 10 yards out to give the Mids a 42-38 victory.

2003 EV1.NET HOUSTON BOWL

Texas Tech 38, Navy 14

December 30, 2003 • Reliant Stadium

HOUSTON, Texas – Texas Tech quarterback B.J. Symons threw for 497 yards and four touchdowns as Texas Tech defeated Navy 38-14 in front of 51,068 fans at Reliant Stadium in the EV1.net Houston Bowl.

The game started exactly like the Mids would have liked as Texas Tech missed a field goal on its opening drive, after advancing the ball to the Navy six-yard line, and then the Mids marched 78 yards on 15 plays on its initial drive, chewing up the clock as they went.The first quarter ended scoreless with Craig Candeto being ruled down at the one-yard line on his third down option keeper.

Navy head coach Paul Johnson decided to go for it on fourth down and Candeto was stopped short once again and when he tried to reach for the goal line the ball popped out of his hands and Texas Tech's Keyunta Dawson picked it up and returned the fumble to the Tech 34. Replays showed Candeto was clearly down when he fumbled.

The Navy defense held again as Tech quickly moved down to the Navy seven-yard line, but Josh Smith picked off Symons' pass on third down and returned it 36 yards to the Navy 38.

The Mids couldn't move the ball on its second possession and after a failed fake punt, Texas Tech moved 47 yards on five plays to take a 7-0 lead on a four-yard touchdown pass from Symons to Mickey Peters.

The Navy offense moved the ball right back down the field on its next possession, but on third-and-four fullback Kyle Eckel was stopped for no gain and then Eric Rolfs missed his first field goal attempt in nine tries as his 37-yard attempt went wide left.

Tech took advantage of the missed field goal as Symons hit Nehemiah Glover with a 17-yard touchdown to make it 14-0 Tech at the half.

The Mids refused to give up as Candeto directed an 11-play, 79-yard drive to start the second half, capped off by his own two-yard touchdown run on fourth and goal to make it 14-7.

Tech answered Navy's touchdown drive with one of its own as the Red Raiders marched 67 yards on nine plays with Taurean Henderson scoring from four yards out to make it 21-7.

2004 EMERALD BOWL

Navy 34, New Mexico 19

December 30, 2004 • SBC Park

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. – Aaron Polanco accounted for four touchdowns and 237 yards of total offense as Navy defeated New Mexico 34-19 in the 2004 Emerald Bowl. The victory gave the Midshipmen a school-record tying 10 wins for the season and marked just the fifth bowl victory in school history.

After the Lobos took a 7-0 lead on the first possesion of the game, the Mids answered with a touchdown drive of their own, moving 80 yards on just seven plays. Polanco scored from 14 yards out to tie the game at seven.

The game turned on the ensuing possession when safety Vaughn Kelley hit New Mexico's DonTrell Moore just as he was catching a pitch. The hit caused a fumble that was recovered by Lane Jackson and knocked Moore out of the game.

Navy quickly took advantage of the turnover, as Polanco scored from one yard out five plays later to give Navy a 14-7 lead. The touchdown was set up by a third-and-eight pass from slot back Frank Divis to Polanco for 17 yards

Josh Smith stopped New Mexico's next drive with an interception and the Mids made the Lobos pay dearly, as Polanco hit wide receiver Corey Dryden on the second play from scrimmage with a 61-yard touchdown pass to make the score 21-7.

After the two teams punted on their initial possessions of the third quarter, Polanco ran for his third touchdown of the day, this one from 27 yards out, to make the score 31-19.

New Mexico, however, marched right back down the field. The Lobos had the ball first-and-goal at the Navy six, but on fourth-and-goal from the one Lobo running back D.D. Cox was stopped short of the goal line by Kelley and Bobby McClarin.

The Navy offense would take over the game from there, mounting an epic 26-play, 94-yard, 14:26 drive that was capped off by a Geoff Blumenfeld 22-yard field goal to make the score 34-19. The 26 plays and 14:26 time of possession were both NCAA records for a single drive.

2005 POINSETTIA BOWL

Navy 51, Colorado State 30

December 22, 2005 • Qualcomm Stadium

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – Sophomore slot back Reggie Campbell tied an NCAA bowl game record with five touchdowns as he helped lead Navy (8-4) to a 51-30 rout of Colorado State (6-6) in front of 36,842 fans at the inaugural Poinsettia Bowl. The two teams combined for a then NCAA bowl game-record 1,183 yards.

Campbell, who was named the game's offensive MVP, scored on 55- and 34-yard scoring strikes from quarterback Lamar Owens and on runs of 22, two and 21 yards to tie a record set by four others, most notably by Barry Sanders in the 1988 Holiday Bowl.

Navy took its first lead of the game, a lead it would never give up, early in the second quarter when Marco Nelson scored on a 22-yard run around the right end, capping off a seven-play, 68-yard drive.

After the Navy defense forced a Colorado State punt, the Mids marched 80 yards on 11 plays as Campbell matched Nelson's TD run with a 22-yard touchdown gallop of his own. The Mids defense forced another punt and Campbell capped off an 89-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run 28 seconds before intermission and the rout was on.

Campbell would score his fourth touchdown of the game on the first possession of the second half on a 21-yard jaunt to give the Mids a 34-10 lead.

2006 MEINEKE CAR CARE BOWL

Boston College 25, Navy 24

December 30, 2006 • Bank of America Stadium

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Steve Aponavicius nailed a 37-yard field goal as time expired to give Boston College (10-3) a 25-24 victory over Navy (9-4) in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Navy outplayed the Eagles on both sides of the ball, but a couple of turnovers, two questionable holding calls and a bad bounce allowed the Eagles to escape with the victory.

Boston College jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter when Eagle quarterback Matt Ryan scored from two yards out.

Navy answered with a 10-play, 88-yard drive capped off by a 31-yard touchdown pass from Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada to Tyree Barnes to give a 7-6 lead.

After a Jeremy McGown interception of a Ryan pass gave Navy the ball back at the BC 44-yard line, the Mids took eight plays to take a 14-6 lead on a five-yard touchdown run by Zerbin Singleton. It was Singleton's first-career touchdown.

Kaheaku-Enhada threw his second touchdown pass of the day, this time to Jason Tominson, to give Navy a 21-13 lead.

Aponavicius hit a 26-yard field goal at the gun to cut Navy's lead to five at the half.

Navy regained the momentum to start the second half, going 85 yards on 11 plays. Matt Harmon's 22-yard field goal gave Navy a 24-16 lead.

Ryan threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-22, but the two-point conversion failed.

After both teams traded punts, Navy took the ball over at its own 24 with 4:09 remaining in the game. After picking up two first down, the Mids ran a toss play to Shun White on third-and-six. White appeared to pick up the first down and clinch the game, but the officials flagged the Mids for holding. On the next play Reggie Campbell took his eyes off of Kaheaku-Enhada's pitch and Boston College's Jolon Dunbar picked up the fumble at the Navy 45 and returned it five yards. Six plays later, Aponavicius nailed the 37-yard field goal to give the Eagles the win.

2007 POINSETTIA BOWL

Utah 35, Navy 32

December 20, 2007 • Qualcomm Stadium

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – Utah (9-4) outscored Navy (8-5), 21-0, over a seven-minute span in the second half to rally for a 35-32 Poinsettia Bowl victory over the Midshipmen in front of 39,129 fans at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego. The game was the debut for Navy head coach Ken Niumatalolo.

Utah would take a 7-0 lead early in the second quarter on a five-yard touchdown run by Darrell Mack. The Mids would answer Utah's score with one of their own, driving 70 yards in eight plays. Junior quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run to tie the score at seven.

Joey Bullen's 39-yard field goal with 28 seconds left in the half gave Navy a 10-7 halftime lead.

The Mids made it 17-7 on the first drive of the third quarter. Junior fullback Eric Kettani busted through the Utah secondary and rumbled 43 yards for a touchdown to give Navy a 17-7 lead.

Jereme Brooks scored from 23 yards out off a reverse to cut Navy's lead to 17-14 and then Utah took the lead when Johnson hit Derrek Richards with a 40-yard touchdown pass to make the score 21-17. Johnson's 19-yard quarterback draw gave Utah a 28-17 lead with 12:47 left in the contest.

To Navy's credit, the Mids refused to quit as Kaheaku-Enhada led Navy on a nine-play, 81-yard drive that was capped off by a 10-yard touchdown pass to White that made the score 28-25.

The Utah offense would answer with a Mack one-yard run and the Utes appeared to have an insurmountable 35-25 lead with 1:27 left.

The Mids, however, had other ideas. Kaheaku-Enhada hit Zerbin Singleton with a 58-yard touchdown pass that made the score 35-32 with 57 seconds left. Bullen then pulled off a perfectly-executed on-side kick that initially Utah's Dale had his hands on, but Singleton ripped it out of his hands giving the ball to Navy at its own 42 with 57 seconds left. After Kaheaku-Enhada ran for nine yards on first down, his pass was intercepted by Dale at the Utah 31 after Campbell slipped coming out of his route.

2008 EAGLEBANK BOWL

Wake Forest 29, Navy 19

December 20, 2008 • Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Wake Forest (8-5) outscored Navy (8-5) 22-6 in the second half to rally for a 29-19 victory over the Midshipmen in the inaugural EagleBank Bowl at RFK Stadium in Washington, D.C.

Navy jumped out to a 13-0 lead thanks to field goals of 40 and 47 yards by Matt Harmon and a 50-yard return of an Alphonso Smith fumble by senior cornerback Rashawn King.

The Mids were looking to add to their lead late in the second quarter, driving the ball deep into Wake Forest territory, but on second down from the Wake Forest 27-yard line senior quarterback Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada overthrew Tyree Barnes and Smith intercepted the ball at the two-yard line.

The Navy defense had dominated the game up to that point, but the Mids allowed Wake Forest to drive 98 yards in 3:48 to cut the Mids lead to 13-7 at the half.

The Demon Deacons took their first lead of the game on their first drive of the second half, driving 73 yards on 10 plays (nine of those plays were runs) in 5:17. Adams scored from five yards out to make the score 14-13.

Navy would retake the lead early in the fourth quarter after a defensive stand gave the ball to the offense at the 50-yard line. Kaheaku-Enhada ripped off a 35-yard run on the first play and then he scored from two yards out five plays later to make the score 19-13. Navy's two-point conversion attempt failed.

Navy's lead did not last long as Wake answered Navy's touchdown with one of its own, marching 80 yards in nine plays. The big play of the drive was on third-and-seven when Skinner hit Chip Brinkman with a 44 yard pass down to the Navy 11-yard line. Skinner struck again two plays later on another third-and-seven, this time hitting Ben Wooster with an eight-yard touchdown pass. Skinner converted the two-point conversion with a pass to Devin Brown to make the score 22-19.

Shun White returned the ensuing kickoff all the way down to the Wake Forest 11-yard line, but the play was called back after Navy was nailed for holding.

Navy still had two opportunities to tie or retake the lead, but Kaheaku-Enhada was stopped for no gain on third-and-five from the Navy 47 on the first drive and then lost a fumble on fourth-and-10 on the second drive.

2009 TEXAS BOWL

Navy 35, Missouri 13

December 31, 2009 • Reliant Stadium

HOUSTON, Texas – Quarterback Ricky Dobbs rushed for 166 yards and three touchdowns on 30 carries and completed nine of his 14 pass attempts for 130 yards and a touchdown, while the Navy defense held Missouri to just one touchdown as the Mids routed the Tigers 35-13 in front of a crowd of 69,441 at the Texas Bowl.

Dobbs set a Navy bowl record for rushing yards and tied the record for carries and rushing touchdowns en route to being named the Texas Bowl MVP. Slot back Marcus Curry also had a big day, rushing for 109 yards and a touchdown on 12 carries and catching five passes for 97 yards.

The Navy defense opened the game in a 2-4-5 alignment that befuddled the Missouri offense all day. After giving up a 58-yard touchdown pass from Blaine Gabbert to Danario Alexander on the second play of the game, the Mids allowed just six points over the final 59:24.

After the Alexander touchdown run on the second play of the game, Navy tied it on a one-yard touchdown run by Dobbs with 2:58 left in the first quarter and then took the lead for good on a 12-yard run by Dobbs with 45 seconds left in the half. That touchdown was set up by a Vela fumble recovery.

Bobby Doyle's three-yard touchdown reception on a slant route from Dobbs extended the lead to 21-10 early in the third quarter and then Navy put the game away in the fourth on Curry's 11-yard touchdown run and a one-yard touchdown run by Dobbs.

The Mids gashed the Missouri defense, which entered the game ranked 11th in the country against the run, for 515 yards, including a Texas Bowl-record 385 yards on the ground. Missouri was held to 356 yards of total offense, including a paltry 65 rushing yards.

Linebacker Ross Pospisil led the Navy defense with nine tackles, 1.5 sacks and an interception, while outside linebacker Craig Schaefer had eight tackles, three tackles for a loss and a sack. Safety Wyatt Middleton added an interception and outside linebacker Ram Vela recovered a fumble.

2010 POINSETTIA BOWL

San Diego State 35, Navy 14

December 23, 2010 • Qualcomm Stadium

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – Freshman tailback Ronnie Hillman rushed for 228 yards and three touchdowns, while junior quarterback Ryan Lindley completed 18 of his 23 passes for 276 yards and two TDs to lead San Diego State to a 35-14 victory over Navy in front of a San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl record crowd of 48,049 at Qualcomm Stadium.

The Aztecs jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter as Hillman scored on a 22-yard touchdown run and wide receiver Vincent Brown caught a 53-yard touchdown pass from Lindley.

Navy cut the lead to 14-7 early in the second quarter when, on third-and-19, senior quarterback Ricky Dobbs hit wide receiver Greg Jones with a 30-yard touchdown pass.

San Diego State went back up by 14 with 3:15 left in the half when Hillman scored on a 37-yard run, but the Mids answered with a 10-play, 73-yard scoring drive to cut the lead to 21-14 at the half. Dobbs hit Jones with a 40-yard pass down to the San Diego State 11 and then scored from the one with seven seconds remaining to give the Mids some momentum heading into the locker room.

Navy got the ball to start the third quarter and moved it to the San Diego State 9-yard line where the Mids had it first-and-goal. On first down, Dobbs was stopped for no gain and on second down he rushed for six yards to the Aztecs 3-yard line. On third-and-goal, sophomore slot back Bo Snelson was stopped for no gain and on fourth down Dobbs just barely overthrew an open Snelson in the end zone as the Mids turned the ball over on downs.

The score remained 21-14 until early in the fourth quarter when Lindley hit Hillman with a 15-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-14.

Dobbs ended his celebrated career by rushing for 107 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries and completing eight of his 15 passes for 147 yards with one TD and one interception. Meanwhile, Jones finished with three catches for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Outside linebacker Jerry Hauburger led the defense with 11 tackles, while linebacker Tyler Simmons and safety De'Von Richardson finished with seven stops each. Linebacker Matt Warrick and safety Wyatt Middleton pitched in five stops each.

2012 KRAFT FIGHT HUNGER BOWL

Arizona State 62, Navy 28

December 29, 2012 • AT&T Park

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. – Taylor Kelly threw four touchdown passes and ran for a fifth score to lead Arizona State to a 62-28 victory over Navy in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl in front of 34,172 fans at AT&T Park.

Offensive MVP Marion Grice ran for 159 yards and two touchdowns for the Sun Devils (8-5), who used their fast-paced spread offense to score touchdowns on their first nine possessions.

Among the highlights for Navy were Keenan Reynolds' 3-yard TD pass to Matt Aiken in the first half and a 95-yard kickoff return for a score by Gee Gee Greene in the third quarter. Greene's kickoff return for a TD was the first in school history in a bowl game.

Arizona State's Rashad Ross started and ended the first-half scoring with touchdown receptions. His 16-yard catch from Kelly capped a 75-yard game-opening drive and he got behind the Navy defense for a 52-yard score in the final minute of the half to make it 34-7. Ross then caught a 50-yard TD pass on Arizona State's first drive of the second half to make it 41-7.

Grice scored on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and a 39-yarder in the third. He had 19 touchdowns this season, with 11 coming on the ground.

The Midshipmen had a few opportunities to keep the game close on offense in the first half but Greene was unable to hold onto a pass in the end zone on fourth-and-7 from the 31 in the first quarter and Reynolds lost three yards on a third-and-1 keeper from the eight before Nick Sloan missed a field goal.

Sen. John McCain, a former Navy fighter pilot who represents Arizona in Congress, handled the pregame toss. Instead of using a coin, the game sponsored by Kraft, uses an Oreo with one side being a chocolate cookie and the other vanilla.

Greene carried the ball 12 times for 112 yards to go along with his kickoff return for a touchdown. Freshman fullback Chris Swain rushed for 93 yards and a touchdown on four carries, while sophomore fullback Noah Copeland rushed for 47 yards on 10 carries.

Brandon Turner caught a 23-yard touchdown pass from Trey Miller in the fourth quarter. Matt Warrick led the Navy defense with nine tackles, while Tra'ves Bush, Keegan Wetzel, Jordan Drake and Parrish Gaines had six tackles apiece.

2013 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL

Navy 24, Middle Tennessee 6

December 30, 2013 • Amon G. Carter Stadium

FORT WORTH, Texas – Keenan Reynolds joined the 30-touchdown rushing club in Navy's 24-6 victory over Middle Tennessee in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

Reynolds had a three-yard score to cap the opening drive for Navy (9-4) and added a one-yarder in the fourth quarter. Already holding the NCAA record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback, Reynolds upped his total to 31 to match Colorado State running back Kapri Bibbs, also a sophomore, for the national lead in 2013.

The only players with more rushing TDs in a season were Barry Sanders (37) with Oklahoma State and Wisconsin's Montee Ball (33).

Navy piled up 366 yards rushing and finished its season with five straight victories

The Blue Raiders (8-5) were held to a season low in points. They had finished the regular season with a five-game winning streak, averaging nearly 43 points a game in that stretch - since a 34-7 loss on Oct. 12 at North Texas.

Reynolds lost two fumbles, matching his total during the regular season, but Middle Tennessee failed to convert into points on either of the miscues. Both fumbles were recovered by linebacker T.T. Barber, Middle Tennessee's MVP, after Navy drove inside the 20.

Down 10-6 at halftime, the Blue Raiders moved to the Navy seven on the opening drive of the second half. They went for it on fourth down instead of trying a short field goal, but fullback Corey Carmichael managed only a yard before getting taken down by Travis Bridges and George Jamison, who also had an interception.

2014 POINSETTIA BOWL

Navy 17, San Diego State 16

December 23, 2014 • Qualcomm Stadium

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – Austin Grebe kicked the go-ahead, 24-yard field goal with 1 minute, 27 seconds left to lead the Midshipmen to a 17-16 victory over San Diego State in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

The Mids won their fourth straight and for the sixth time in seven games. They've won consecutive bowl games for just the second time in history. Addiitonally, they were playing just 10 days after beating Army for the 13th straight time.

The Midshipmen won the contest after the Aztecs' Donny Hageman was wide right on a 34-yard field goal attempt with 20 seconds left.

The winning drive was set up when Navy's Chris Johnson forced and recovered a fumble by Donnel Pumphrey.

Fullback Chris Swain converted on a fourth-and-1 and Ryan Williams-Jenkins took a pitch and ran 28 yards to help set up the game-winner by Grebe.

San Diego State then got to the Navy 17 before Hageman missed. Hageman earlier made field goals of 43, 37 and 30 yards. His third field goal gave SDSU a 16-14 lead late in the third quarter.

Junior quarterback Keenan Reynolds ran for two touchdowns, extending his own NCAA record for scores by a quarterback to 64.

He scored on a 1-yard keeper for the game's first score and then somersaulted into the end zone at the end of a 6-yard run to give Navy a 14-13 lead midway through the third quarter.

Leading 16-14, SDSU went for it on fourth-and-5 from the Navy 12 but Quinn Kaehler's pass to Mikah Holder was incomplete.

Navy punted on its next possession but got the ball back after Pumphrey fumbled.

The Midshipmen rushed for 254 yards, led by Swain with 72 yards on eight carries.

Navy improved to 2-2 in the Poinsettia Bowl. The victory avenged a 35-14 loss to SDSU in the 2010 Poinsettia Bowl.

Reynolds was named the game's offensive MVP, while senior linebacker Jordan Drake, who tied his career high with 13 tackles, was named the game's defensive MVP.

2015 MILITARY BOWL

Navy 44, Pitt 28

December 28, 2015 • Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium

ANNAPOLIS, Md. – Senior quarterback Keenan Reynolds wrapped up his record-setting college career in spectacular fashion, running for three scores and throwing for another to lead Navy past Pittsburgh 44-28 in the Military Bowl. With Reynolds leading the way, the Midshipmen completed their first 11-win season in 135 years of football.

After the Midshipmen let a 24-point cushion dwindle to 38-28, Reynolds capped a nine-play drive with a 9-yard touchdown run with 4:19 remaining. It was his 88th career TD, breaking a tie with Kenneth Dixon of Louisiana Tech for most in Football Bowl Subdivision history. Reynolds ran for 144 yards on 24 carries, completed 9 of 17 passes for 126 yards and had a reception for 47 yards on a trick play. He leaves Navy as the FBS career leader in touchdowns and points (530). His 4,559 yards rushing are the most by a quarterback in Division I history.

Qadree Ollison rushed for 73 yards and scored two touchdowns for Pitt. Nate Peterman threw a TD pass, but was intercepted three times. It all added up to a disappointing ending for the Panthers in their first season under coach Pat Narduzzi.

After Quadree Henderson returned the opening kickoff 100 yards for Pitt, Navy went up 21-7 at halftime and built a 31-7 lead midway through the third quarter. Pitt scored two touchdowns in 17 seconds to close to 31-21, but could not complete the comeback.

Playing before a sellout crowd of 36,352 in its home stadium, Navy used its triple-option attack to overwhelm a team that went 6-2 in the Atlantic Coast Conference and ranked 20th in the nation against the run. The Midshipmen finished with 590 yards in offense, including 417 on the ground - 114 by senior fullback Chris Swain.

After Henderson weaved from end zone to end zone for the game-opening score, Reynolds directed a 75-yard drive that ended with his 1-yard touchdown run. Later in the first quarter, Reynolds capped a 14-play march with a 5-yard TD. Navy's next touchdown came on an 11-yard pass from Reynolds to Tyler Carmona.

Niumatalolo momentarily abandoned the triple option in the third quarter in favor of a bit of trickery. Reynolds pitched the ball to fullback Shawn White, then went around the right side of the line for a catch-and-run that set up a 26-yard touchdown jaunt by Demond Brown.

It was 31-7 before Nate Peterman threw a 4-yard TD pass to Ollison, and a 22-yard fumble return by Jordan Whitehead got Pitt within 10 points. After Navy scored another touchdown, Ollison ran for a 45-yard score to make it 38-28.

But this was to be Reynolds' day. In his final significant drive with the Midshipmen, he converted three third downs and drew the Panthers offside on a fourth-and-3. Junior corner Brendon Clements had two interceptions for the Navy defense, while senior safety Lorentez Barbour also picked off Peterman.

2016 ARMED FORCES BOWL

Louisiana Tech 48, Navy 45

December 23, 2016 • Amon G. Carter Stadium

FORT WORTH, Texas – Louisiana Tech senior quarterback Ryan Higgins threw for 409 yards and four touchdowns, two each to Trent Taylor and Carlos Henderson, and Jonathan Barnes' 32-yard field goal broke the game's fourth tie as the Bulldogs beat Navy 48-45 in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

The Bulldogs drove for the winning score after Navy freshman quarterback Malcolm Perry ran 30 yards for a touchdown on his only play. Higgins was then 4 for 4 for 58 yards on the final drive.

Taylor, the 5-foot-8 senior, set an Armed Forces Bowl record with his 12 catches for 233 yards, including a 51-yard TD just before halftime for a 31-24 lead, and joined Troy Edwards as the only Bulldog with more than 4,000 career receiving yards. Henderson, a junior, had 10 catches for 129 yards and finished this season with 19 TDs

Perry, whose TD with 3:46 left tied the game at 45-45, came in after Zach Abey took a shot to the ribs on a play that led to a targeting ejection by Tech defensive tackle Jordan Bradford.

Abey, who made only his second career start, ran for 114 yards and two scores and threw for 159 yards and another touchdown. Abey was named Navy's Most Valuable Player in the game.

The 45 points were the second-most points Navy has ever scored in a bowl game and most it has scored in a loss.

2017 MILITARY BOWL

Navy 49, Virginia 7

December 28, 2017 • Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium

ANNAPOLIS, Md. – Backup quarterback Zach Abey scored five touchdowns, starter Malcolm Perry ran for 114 yards and two scores and Navy rolled to a surprisingly easy 49-7 victory over Virginia in the Military Bowl played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

After Virginia's Joe Reed took the opening kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, the Midshipmen got two TDs apiece from Perry and Abey in taking a 28-7 halftime lead.

Perry left in the third quarter with a foot injury, leaving Abey to score on runs of 5 and 20 yards to make it 42-7 in a game Navy entered as a 1 1/2-point favorite.

The Midshipmen rolled up a Military Bowl-record 452 yards rushing, including 101 by Chris High and 88 by Abey, who began the season as the starter before losing the job.

After scoring on a 1-yard run with 11:11 remaining, Abey sat down after becoming the fifth player in FBS history to rush for five TDs in a bowl game.

Playing in their first bowl since 2011, the Cavaliers (6-7) could not contain Navy's triple option and had no success moving the ball.

Seeking its first winning season in six years, Virginia instead absorbed its sixth loss in seven games.

Virginia senior Kurt Benkert came in with a school-record 3,062 yards passing this season, along with 25 touchdown passes. In this one, he went 15 for 34 for 133 yards and an interception, and the Cavaliers finished with a season-low 175 yards in offense.

Navy scored on its opening drive that ended with a 1-yard run by Abey. The Midshipmen then forced a three-and-out, and Perry finished an eight-play drive with a 22-yard touchdown run for a 14-7 lead.

Perry scored from 19 yards out and Abey concluded the first-half scoring with a 1-yard TD. By then, Reed's kickoff return was irrelevant.

2019 LIBERTY BOWL

Navy 20, Kansas State 17

December 31, 2019 • Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium

MEMPHIS, TENN.- Bijan Nichols kicked a 23-yard field goal with two seconds remaining and No. 21 Navy capitalized on a fourth-down gamble in the final minute to beat Kansas State 20-17 in the Liberty Bowl.

A Navy team with the nation's top-ranked rushing attack set up the winning score by completing a halfback option pass with less than 30 seconds left. The Midshipmen snapped the ball on fourth-and-3 from the Kansas State 46. Quarterback Malcolm Perry pitched to C.J. Williams, and he threw downfield to a wide-open Chance Warren for a 41-yard gain.

Perry, who rushed for 213 yards, spiked the ball with 5 seconds left to set up Nichols' field goal. Nichols had missed a 38-yarder earlier in the fourth quarter.

The victory enabled Navy (11-2) to tie a program record for wins and ensured the Midshipmen will finish a season in the AP Top 25 for just the third time in the last 56 years. Navy finished 18th in 2015 - when it also won 11 games - and was 24th in 2004

Navy went 3-10 last year and matched the second-biggest season-to-season improvement in win-loss record of any team in Football Bowl Subdivision history. Hawai'i owns the record by going 9-4 in 1999 after finishing 0-12 in 1998.

The Mids made that dramatic turnaround thanks largely to Perry, who capped a brilliant senior season with 28 carries and a touchdown pass.

Perry ran for 2,017 yards this season to set a Football Bowl Subdivision record for yards rushing by a quarterback. The record had been owned by Jordan Lynch, who ran for 1,920 yards for Northern Illinois in 2013.

Navy dominated much of the game but wasted a couple of opportunities to put it away. The Mids led 17-10 late in the third quarter when a holding penalty on Billy Honaker wiped out a 31-yard run by Perry that would have given them first-and-goal at the 2. Navy ended up punting.

Nichols then sent a 38-yard field goal attempt wide left with 8:26 left in the game. At that point, Navy was outgaining Kansas State, 351-83, but only led 17-10.

Kansas State finally got its offense going at that point, as Skylar Thompson connected with Wykeen Gill on a 15-yard completion and a 42-yard pass on back-to-back plays. Those long gains set up Thompson's 1-yard sneak that tied the game with 5:14 left

That set up Navy's dramatic winning drive.

NAVY RADIO NETWORK

Pete Medhurst is in his 10th year as the Voice of Navy Football and has been with the Navy Radio Network since 1997 handling pregame, postgame, sideline and play-by-play duties for football and play-by-play for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, baseball, volleyball, swimming and wrestling.

Medhurst, born and raised in Anne Arundel County and a graduate of Southern High School, has been the play-by-play announcer for Navy basketball for the past 12 seasons and has been the voice of Navy lacrosse for the last 22 years. He is widely considered one of the top lacrosse announcers in the country.

Medhurst has also handled football play-by-play duties for HDNet and CBS Sports Network and lacrosse for ESPNU and the Big Ten Network. He has also filled in on radio broadcasts for the Washington Nationals and is the proud owner of a 2019 Washington National World Series ring.

Medhurst co-hosts a show with Chris Russell during drive time (3-7 PM) in Washington, DC on Sportstalk 980.

Joe Miller, who has been involved with the Navy Radio Network since 2001, enters his 10th year on the broadcast team and his fourth as the color analyst.

Miller, who was also born and raised in Anne Arundel County and is a Southern High School graduate, has worked with Medhurst on the football pregame and postgame shows and has been the play-by-play announcer for Navy men's and women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer and baseball.

Miller was the play-by-play announcer for Johns Hopkins lacrosse from 2004-12 where he called four NCAA Lacrosse Championships. Additionally, he's also called Maryland lacrosse on the Maryland Radio Network and has served as play-by-play announcer on the Comcast Network. Miller has also called games for D.C. United.

Keith Mills is in his fourth year with the Navy Football Radio Network serving as the sideline reporter.

A former Maryland Sportscaster of the Year, Mills joined the WBAL Sports team in 2006, part of a 40-year-local broadcasting career that began in June of 1979.

A multiple Edward R. Murrow and Emmy award winner, Keith began his journalism career at the Baltimore News American working for legendary Sports Editor John Steadman. He began his television career at WJZ TV as a sports producer in 1979 and eventually became an on-air sports reporter for the station.

In 1987, Keith joined the sports department at WMAR-TV as the weekend sports anchor before joining WBAL in 2006.

A graduate of Brooklyn Park High School and Towson University, Keith was the Monday through Friday sports anchor for the WBAL TV Morning Show while hosting a variety of special programming for WBAL TV, WBAL AM 1090 and 98 Rock radio before retiring in 2019.

Mills still does work for WBAL including Ravens pre-game and post-game shows and NFL draft, Preakness, Orioles and Navy Football.

Among some of his most memorable sports moments in Baltimore that Mills has covered include the last Orioles World Series championship in 1983, the Orioles last weekend at Memorial Stadium in September of 1991, both Ravens Super Bowls wins, Cal Ripken breaking Lou Gehrig's consecutive game streak and numerous Army-Navy football games.

A member of the Anne Arundel County Sports Hall of Fame and the Maryland Swimming Hall of Fame, Keith was also heavily involved in covering the Olympic Games, producing ABC's regional soccer tournament coverage in Annapolis during the 1984 games while documenting the many local athletes who went on to win Olympic gold medals: such as Theresa Andrews, Beth Botsford, Anita Nall and Michal Phelps in swimming, Carmelo Anthony and Angel McCoughtry in basketball and Matthew Centrowitz in track and field.

Extremely active in the community, Mills has coached a variety of amateur and high school sports while also serving a six-year term on the Board of Directors of Special Olympics Maryland while emceeing dozens of charitable and foundation events.

Scott Wykoff returns for his fourth year as the studio host on the Navy Football Radio Network.

For nearly two decades, Wykoff has been one of the most enthusiastic and recognizable voices in Baltimore radio.

Wykoff joined WBAL Radio in 2002 and his signature natural sound-rich stories and live coverage of breaking news and sports stories have been honored with some of the most coveted awards in broadcasting, including four National Edward R. Murrow awards from the RTDNA and two Best In Show honors from the prestigious National Headliner Awards.

Wykoff was the station's lead reporter for WBAL's National Thoroughbred Racing Association Eclipse Award winning coverage of the 2006 Preakness documenting Barbaro and the Kentucky Derby winning horse's breakdown in Baltimore and life saving surgery at the New Bolton Center in Kennett Square, PA.

In addition to covering the top story live on-location each weekday morning on WBAL Radio, Wykoff also covers the Ravens and Orioles, including Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans. He reported back to Baltimore from the 2004, 2008 and 2012 Democratic and Republican National Conventions.

In addition to being a studio host for the Navy Football Radio Network, Wykoff is WBAL Radio's Navy Football beat reporter.

Before joining WBAL, Wykoff was a reporter at WMAL Radio in Washington, DC from 1992-2002. He covered a wide variety of news and sports stories in the Nation's Capital, including breaking news, the 9-11 attacks, the Redskins and the University of Maryland basketball team. While at WMAL, he won a National Edward R. Murrow Award for his coverage of the last game of Cal Ripken Jr's Hall of Fame career with the Orioles.

In 2010, Wykoff's extensive coverage of the Preakness and horse racing in Maryland earned him the prestigious Maryland Jockey Club's Old Hilltop Award. He joined the likes of legendary sports journalists like Red Smith and Jim McKay as winners of the Old Hilltop Award.

Wykoff was selected as "Baltimore's Best Radio News Reporter" by Baltimore Magazine In 2011.

STADIUM POLICIES

ACCESSIBLE SEATING & PARKING

Specially constructed areas to accommodate wheelchair spectators are located throughout the lower level of the stadium. Specific tickets are needed to access these areas. Please contact or visit the Navy Ticket Office to arrange seating accommodations. Parking is available on the East and the West sides of the stadium to those with both a pre-paid parking pass and a state-issued handicapped license plate or placard.

AGE LIMIT POLICY

Children age two and under, who are sitting on the lap of an adult, do not need a valid game ticket. Children who have reached their third birthday must have a valid game ticket to gain entrance to the stadium and are permitted seating access only in their ticketed location.

CLEAR BAG POLICY

To provide a safer environment for the public and to significantly expedite fan entry into Navy Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, Navy Athletics will implement a new security policy regulating the size and type of bag that may be carried into the stadium on game day. Fans are encouraged not to bring any types of bags to games however the following will be permitted:

- Bags that are clear plastic, vinyl or PVC and do not exceed 12”x12”x6”
- One gallon clear plastic freezer bags (Ziploc bag or similar)
- Small clutch bags, with or without a handle or strap, that do not exceed 4.5”x 6.5” (approximately the size of a hand)
- An exception will be made for medically necessary items or diaper bags (infant must be present) after proper inspection at the gate
- Seat cushions without zipper and blankets

Prohibited bags include, but are not limited to: purses larger than a clutch bag, brief cases, backpacks, cinch bags, fanny packs, oversized totes, mesh bags, luggage of any kind, computer bags and cases, camera bags and cases, binocular cases or any bag larger than the permissible size.

CONCESSIONS

Concession stands are conveniently located throughout the stadium in the concourse areas. Vendors will serve the stands throughout the game.

E-CRUISERS COURTESY CARTS

Look for the eco-friendly E-Cruisers courtesy carts circulating through the parking lots and tailgating areas. These carts are available to assist you with getting around the parking lot and to and from the stadium as needed. Please do not hesitate to stop one of these carts to ask for assistance.

FIRST AID

Emergency medical treatment is available at the first aid stations located on the lower and upper levels on both the Blue and Gold sides. On the Blue side, the first aid stations are located on the South end behind sections 1 and 101. On the Gold side, first aid stations are located on the North end behind sections 25 and 125. Also available are emergency medical teams on both the upper and lower levels on both sides of the stadium on a roving basis. Contact the nearest usher to request medical assistance.

GATES OPEN

Gates at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium open two hours before kickoff.

LOST & FOUND

Items lost or found can be identified at the ticket office located in the North end zone. Lost items not claimed on game day can be claimed by calling (800) US4-NAVY.

MERCHANDISE

Merchandise is available on both the Blue & Gold Concourse (upper and lower), at the trailer outside the main ticket office located at the north end of the stadium and adjacent to the concession stand on the Northeast side of the stadium.

NON-PERMISSIBLE ITEMS

Bottles (glass or plastic), cans, thermoses, coolers, alcoholic beverages, outside food or drink, bags or backpacks larger than 12x12x12, folding chairs, umbrellas, professional cameras and tripods, noise makers, hanging banners/signs/sticks, chains, illegal substances, laser pointers, clothing containing vulgar language, large strollers, fireworks, aerosol cans, pets, pepper spray, firearms, drones and any item deemed by management to be dangerous or inappropriate.

SMOKING POLICY

Smoking is allowed only in the open-air areas in the Memorial Plaza at the north end of the Stadium and near the concession stand buildings at the south end of the Stadium near the two large Blue and Gold tents. Smoking is prohibited in all other areas of the Stadium.

TAILGATING

Tailgating is allowed for all cars parking in the stadium lots. Tailgating is permitted directly behind your car and may not interfere with adjacent parking spaces and/or traffic lanes. Reserving parking spaces adjacent to your car in the parking lots is not permitted. Please refrain from littering in the parking lot and throw trash in the proper receptacles. Fans who do not exercise their tailgating privileges in a responsible manner will face forfeiture of their parking pass for the remainder of the season and possible cancellation of season ticket privileges for future seasons.

Organized and private tailgate locations are available on a game-by-game or season basis in the NavyFest area. For more information contact the Navy Group Sales Office at (410) 293-8743 or (410) 293-8791.

TICKETS

All tickets are digital. Tickets may be purchased 24 hours a day at www.NavySports.com. The game day ticket office is located at the Class of 1953 Pavilion in the North end zone of the stadium. The ticket office opens 2 1/2 hours prior to kickoff.

TICKET QUESTIONS

All ticket questions or problems can be answered at the main ticket office located at the Class of 1953 Pavilion in the North end zone of the stadium.
